Prepare Plans For New School In NE Section

The Editor's column

By S. R. PADDOCK

We want to thank the 2,000 people who visited our booth at the 4-H Club Fair and especially the 386 persons who took time to write their comments.

After reading those kind words expressed in many of the comments, we feel that there exists a closer relationship between us and our readers.

Nicer things could never have been said about any newspaper. With apologies to one Chicago morning newspaper, we pass on to readers the comment of a Mt. Prospect reader. "Don't lean so much toward the GOP. Let's be American. Keep your ideas in the editor's column. Outside of that, I would rather read your paper than the Trib."

To the 25 who offered constructive criticism, we want to say that some of their suggestions will be adopted.

A farmer asked us, "Why worry about government surplus? Nature, with its unusually hot weather, is taking out a big surplus slice this year."

Whenever two persons meet, conversation usually turns to the mushroom growth of the northwest communities. New business ventures are keeping pace, but the words, "shopping center" do not have the magic touch that they did a few months ago.

Independent business interests are not sitting idly by waiting for those shopping centers to be built. They are going out on their own. The latest in Arlington Heights is a butter, egg and poultry store that will be erected on the northeast corner of Dunton and Sigwalt.

Palatine village board will ask foreign firms doing retail business in Palatine to report such sales for municipal sales tax purposes.

It will mean extra book work on their part, but Palatine will insist upon compliance with the letter of the law.

In order to treat everybody alike, even the Good Humor truck will be notified that Palatine wants its bite out of all ice cream sales made within the village. All outside dairies will be notified they must collect the extra tax.

That extra book work is going to give outside corporations a headache.

It is now official. Illinois Highway Dept. has notified Palatine that allotments on September gasoline sales credited to the village will be based on a population of 6,460.

Arlington Heights is not alone in its water troubles. It has become so serious in northern DuPage county, that the municipalities of Elmhurst, Villa Park and Lombard are considering a major project to secure water from Lake Michigan.

Arlington had another water crisis last Friday and placed a definite ban on all sprinkling. The board decided maintaining sanitary conditions in the home is more important than welfare of lawns.

Palatine has plenty of water, but its weak spot is water storage. An additional well is a safety first need. Palatine's one good well is pumping over a million gallons a day. Its other wells only provide 400,000 gallons.

Vitruvious Masonic Lodge at Wheeling laid the cornerstone of its new home a week ago. That lodge is the grandpappy of all masonic lodges in this area. Its oldest child is Palatine lodge which will celebrate its 100th birthday in four years. "Grandpappy" is 105 years old.

The Shopping Habit Survey that Paddock Publications is making for the benefit of the businessmen reveals some interesting facts.

One Arlington housewife says that there is need for a shop specializing in maternity clothes. Our society editor agrees with her, saying, "The market is surely here."

Another one says that Arlington Heights does not have enough stores. "New ones are springing up weekly," says our advertising department.

The query regarding the purchase of a fur coat and other furs has proven to be a dud as illustrated by these notes: "Are you kidding?" "Big joke," "What furs?" "No furs in this family." "Have none."

No names are signed to the shopping studies, but we are convinced that there is a lot of buying being done away from home and it behooves local stores to do some "stepping out" if they desire to reap the harvest that awaits them.

Many of the new families need to be sold on the local stores. In plain English, advertising budgets should be greatly increased. Paddock Publications is at their beck and call.

We salute this week the four generations of George Busses—all residents of Mt. Prospect—whose pictures appear on the feature page. The great grandfather is George Busse, 80; the grandfather is Geo. L. Busse, 54; daddy is George R. Busse, 27, and the youngest member of the clan is George K. Busse, 10 months.

Mt. Prospect is growing and so is the number of pages in the Mt. Prospect Herald that are required to record its happenings. We suggest that Mt. Prospect readers do not stop with pages one, two or three, but read all of the Mt. Prospect section. Otherwise they will miss some of the important happenings of their local community.

Ground was broken last Friday for the new Westgate shopping center, to be located on the southwest corner of Campbell and Wilke rd., Arlington Heights. It is expected to be completed by early spring. Break Ground For New Westgate Shopping Center

Ground-breaking ceremonies for a new shopping center in Arlington Heights were held Friday morning at the site, southeast corner of Campbell ave. and Wilke rd.

Herbert H. Heyman of Landau and Perlman, Chicago business property developers, said that approximately 75 per cent of the space in the center has already been leased and that completion is scheduled for early Spring of 1956.

In addition to the 12 stores planned, Westgate will also include a 2,500 square foot medical center with space for about 15 doctors and dentists.

LOCATED ON A 4-acre site, there will be approximately 45,000 square feet of rentable space. Parking space will be provided for 350 cars at the front and east and west sides of the store building. Almost 4 times the building area will be devoted to parking, landscaping, and canopied walks. The center will be of most modern design and will have a weather protecting walkway around the front and sides of the store building.

The National Tea company will occupy the largest store in the center, approximately 12,000 square feet. The air-conditioned store will have a fresh baked goods department, self-service meats, magic-eye doors, and will feature one of the chains' largest frozen foods sections.

W. A. Hornsby Co. Inc. will operate the 8th store in its chain of northern Illinois variety stores in the center. The 6,200 square foot store will be completely self-service.

A LEASE has also been signed for a 4,000 square foot Westgate Hardware store. It will carry complete lines of national brand hardware items.

A 2,000 square foot store has been leased to Daisy M. Bosch for the sale of complete children's and infants' wear. Cleaners DeLuxe, with stores in Skokie, Franklin Park, Arlington Heights, Niles, and North Lake will also open another unit here.

Westgate Drugs, operating stores in the new shopping centers in Lombard and Morton Grove, has leased approximately 5,000 square feet for an ultra modern, self-service store at the west end of the building. The medical center will adjoin this store on the south.

THERE WILL also be space in the center for a junior department store, men's and women's wear stores, and a family shoe store.

Architect for the center is Sidney C. Finck of Chicago, J. Thurber Stowell, associate. The Hope Construction company of Chicago is the general contractor for the job. Real Estate Research Corporation conducted the economic research on the project. The site was purchased in 1954 from Leo C. Reuter, developer of the Westgate subdivision.

First In Hearts Of Readers And No. 1 of Nation's Weeklies

"Best newspaper in the northwest metropolitan area."

So reported a reader in a survey conducted recently among readers of Paddock Publications. Some 59 communities were represented.

Most readers seemed satisfied with their community newspaper.

"Paddock Publications give me many minutes of pleasure and information."

"I especially enjoy it over a second cup of coffee."

"A well edited paper."

"I read this paper very thoroughly and enjoy all of it."

"Very interesting to everyone in the family."

THESE WERE typical comments from 2,000 readers who also indicated that their favorite sections of the paper were in order of preference, the front page, local items, want ads, the picture page, and society news. Other features which rated high in reader interest were the Editor's Column, Fence Post, sports news, 4-H Corner, and "Just Around the Corner," a column by Patty McArdle.

A Barrington reader said, "The paper must be good. I drive to Palatine every Thursday to get it."

Several persons commended the papers for their campaign to preserve an elk herd in Busse forest. "You saved the elk," assured one reader.

AMONG SUGGESTIONS offered was this from one reader: "Wish it would be published more than once a week!"

The survey was taken at the North Cook county 4-H Fair held at Arlington Park.

Announcement was made this week by the American Press association that the Arlington Heights Herald leads all other weeklies in advertising lineage as well as placing among the top 50 in circulation for towns under 20,000 population. Playing second in ad lineage was the Somerville, N. J., Messenger-Gazette. This makes the Herald one of the country's outstanding weekly newspapers.

Junior High Growing; Will Need 10 More Classrooms Soon

Ganster and Hennighausen, architects, have been employed to prepare plans and specifications for a new building on E. Miner st., site of Arlington Heights elementary school district 25.

V. L. Bedingfield, president of the board of education, said this decision was made at the August 16 meeting of the board.

Purchase of the site was approved by the voters at the September 19, 1953, election and the board subsequently acquired the land. It is located 4 blocks directly east of Recreation park, and is a rectangular plot, with an eastward extension of Miner st. serving as its northern boundary. It is bounded on the west by Dryden.

GANSTER AND Hennighausen have planned the Dryden, Ridge, and South schools for the district, as well as the south wing of the Junior high school. This firm is well known throughout the Chicago area for developing highly functional, attractive buildings which can be economically constructed as a result of careful choice of materials and interior arrangements providing for maximum use of the space included.

Because this is a new site including some 19 acres, and because long range plans indicate the eventual possibility of having 2 buildings on this site, the board plans to give careful consideration to proper use and development of the site. They have employed the firm of McFadzean, Everly and Associates, site engineers, to work with the architects and the board in planning the arrangment of facilities on the site and its proper development.

According to the board and the school administration, this building will be badly needed by the time it can be ready for occupancy. Tentative plans call for it to serve a part of the Junior high school students of the community and also to house kindergarten through fifth grade pupils for the northeast section of the district.

The present Junior high school at South and Chestnut streets is now filled to capacity, with 24 classes organized for the present school year. However, by the time the building can be completed, quarters for at least 10 more classes must be found, and 2 years later for almost that many more classes. School officials point out that this steady pressure on the Junior high school results from the heavy enrollments in the lower grades, with which the district has been struggling for some time, now reaching the junior high school level.

AT THE SAME time that more facilities are needed for the junior high school grades comes a need for more lower grade facilities on the north side. North school kindergarten classes will be conducted on triple sessions during the coming year. It has been necessary to relocate the dividing line between the Ridge and North schools for the coming year, and to shift children from the Wedgewood Terrace subdivision to the Dryden school, in an effort to solve an over-crowding problem at the North school.

Supt. Ralph E. Clabaugh pointed out this building is expected to relieve an approaching problem throughout the district by easing certain crowding in the Junior high school and by eliminating the necessity for further shifting of dividing lines between the 4 elementary schools which would be imperative if facilities are not provided for children in kindergarten through fifth grade in the rapidly growing northeast section of the village.

No date has been set for holding a referendum on this building, as planning on the part of the administrative staff and the board regarding type and amount of needed facilities must be completed. After that, the architects must develop plans before the probable cost of the building can be determined.

The board feels that it is through careful study by school officials in the preparatory stage and careful planning by architects to meet these needs adequately and yet economically that real savings for taxpayers is brought about. For that reason, their plans call for many weeks of study and planning before a definite proposition is submitted to the community for its approval.

Announce Details of Double Shifts at Arlington High

Arlington Heights high school will open September 6, at 11 a.m., with an orientation day for freshmen and all other new students. Juniors and seniors who attended the high school last year will report for the first time at 7:25 a.m. September 7, while sophomores who attended the high school last year will report on the same day at 11 a.m.

As a result of overcrowding, the high school will be on a double shift program for the first time in its history. Juniors and seniors will attend classes from 7:25 a.m. until 1:10 p.m., and freshmen and sophomores will attend classes from 11 a.m. until 4:45 p.m. The overlapping of the 2 shifts is made possible by the 3 lunch periods between 11 and 1:10, enabling one-third of the student body to be in the cafeteria during each lunch period. Such an arrangement prevents a further lengthening of the school day.

EVEN WITH the shift program, many students who live within walking distance of the school will attend classes which are scheduled one period earlier or later than their shift.

Another effect of the double shift program has been to deny music to many students who had requested it. This resulted from the fact that 5 of the 7 periods on each shift are 40 minutes in length, instead of the normal 55 minutes, and all science and vocational classes scheduled during the shorter periods require double periods to meet standards set by the state of Illinois. Consequently, many students do not have a period free for music.

Freshmen and all other new students will report September 6 to the boys' gymnasium where they will be welcomed by H. L. Slichenmyer, superintendent, Paul Opstad, freshman class sponsor, and Fritz Snyder, student council president. General instruction for the day will be given by Eugene Oliver, administrative assistant.

FOLLOWING THE assembly, freshmen students will receive their program cards from teachers at alphabetical stations in the gym. At 11:30 a.m. they will report to their eighth period classes, where they will pay their student fees and complete record forms.

New sophomores, juniors and seniors will meet with their class sponsors and student guides following the assembly for further orientation, and will be given guided tours through the building. They will receive their program cards and pay their fees with their own class September 7. These new students will be required to turn in their medical examination records on the same day.

At 12:15 p.m. all students will have lunch in the high school cafeteria, where they may purchase a 25-cent or 35-cent lunch. They may, if they care to, bring their own lunches. Milk and ice cream will be sold in addition to the regular lunches.

At 12:55, fresnmen students will go through their daily schedule, spending a short time in each class to meet the teacher and become familiar with the location of the classrooms. They will reassemble in the boys' gymnasium at 3 where they will hear brief talks by 3 students — Jo Mitchell, Jack Ebert, and Alice Olson — on various phases of high school life. Following the assembly they will go through their schedule a second time. Dismissal will be at 4:45 p.m.

STUDENT guides provided by the student council will be stationed in the corridors throughout the opening day and week of school to help new students locate rooms.

All freshmen are requested to bring the medical examination records and student fees the first day they attend school. The student fee is $9 and includes: rental of textbooks (workbooks not included); insurance; subscription to the high school paper; and towel fee. If the student wishes the "Heights," the school yearbook, an additional charge of $4 is made, bringing the total to $13. A receipt wil be issued to the student upon payment of fees.

Each student will be required to furnish 2 combination locks. These may be purchased at the student supply store in the school for $1.10 each. Students may use these locks for their 4 years of high schol and sell them back to the school for 35 cents if they care to do so.

Student athletic season books covering admission to all home football, basketball, and wrestling events wil be available for $3.50 through the student supply store shortly after school begins. Single student admissions to the 20 events covered by the season book would total $8.25.

BUS SERVICE will begin September 6, for the second shift and September 7, for the first shift. The schedule of routes will appear in this paper next week.

All juniors and seniors will report to the boys' gymnasium at 7:25 a.m. September 7. Following a brief assembly, they will receive their program cards from teachers at alphabetical stations in the gym and go to their first period classes, where they will pay their fees and complete record forms. Their regular schedule will be followed throughout the day.

All sophomores will report to the boys' gymnasium at 11 a.m. Wednesday for a brief assembly. After receiving their program cards, they will follow their regular schedule, paying their fees in their eighth period classes.

Proposed Lake Michigan Water Project May Follow Route 83

A mammoth project to pump Lake Michigan water to western suburbs may eventually provide Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, and Des Plaines with additional sources of water supply.

The plan, now being considered as part of a water commission ordinance to be acted on by Elmhurst, Lombard, and Villa Park, may provide for a pipe line from the lake, down Lake-Cook rd. to Route 83, and south to the suburbs.

Tentative plans call for projected outlets to serve communities in this area.

Attorneys from the 3 western towns are cooperating in drawing up the ordinance, which will be September 12. Resolutions passed by the city councils began the cooperative undertaking.

The proposed water commission, made possible by the state legislature in its recent session, would be composed of a representative from each community with a fourth member appointed by the DuPage county judge. Purpose of the group would be to find the best way to bring Lake Michigan water to these towns. The 83 pipe line is one possible solution.

The commission trustees would act as a wholesale company to sell water. They would be responsible to hire persons to operate the system, float water revenue bonds, and fix rates.

Each community would sign a contract with the commission for the water it needed.

It will be 2 to 4 years before the Lake Michigan is in use, however, because of the many steps to be taken from the formation of the commission to the finished construction of pipelines to the towns.

Attorney Frank Opeka is investigating the proposal for a report to Mt. Prospect village authorities.

Marvin Kule Injured

Marvin Kule of Lake Zurich, formerly of Arlington Heights, was injured Saturday when a trailer truck accidentally rolled over him at the state fair grounds in Springfield.

His condition Tuesday was reported good at St. John's hospital, Springfield, where he is confined.

School Bus Routes

All students from the Arlington Heights high school district who will be traveling to school by bus should watch next week's paper for a complete listing of routes and time schedule for buses. School will be operating on a double shift and bus schedules have been regulated to fit in with the new schedule.

Elementary students in Arlington Heights will also find a schedule of grade school bus routes in next week's paper.

Ban All Sprinkling In Arlington

Orders were issued Tuesday morning to all residents of Arlington Heights that an emergency ban was placed on the village's water and no sprinkling would be allowed until further notice.

The village has an adequate water supply but due to unforseen delays in the reconstruction of the Kennicott well the village does not have enough pumping capacity to get proper pressure in all sections of the community. Many residents in the extreme northwest and northeast sections of the town have had no water at all during the period sprinkling was allowed, and extremely low water pressure at all other times.

IT WAS THE concensus of opinion of the village board at a special meeting called Monday night by Albert W. Goedge, village president, that it was much better to have burned lawns than to endanger the health and safety of residents in the community.

"Hand bucketing" or sprinkling cans may be used, however, to water evergreens, flowers and shrubs. Hoses, soakers, sprinklers in any form, are strictly forbidden. Police officers will issue arrest tickets to any resident found violating this order.

THIS BAN will remain in effect until the Kennicott well is in operation and the pressure is found to be adequate. It is hoped this can be accomplished within a week or 10 days.

Trustee Robert Bishop was not in favor of banning sprinkling. He felt some other solution could have been worked out to at least permit partial sprinkling during this emergency. The four other board members, present, however, thought a change in hours would only lead to more confusion and felt it would be better to put a complete ban on sprinkling at this time. Voting in favor of the ban were Trustees Richard Bronwell, Forrest Davis, John Hoover and James Millay.

2 Navy Veterans Join Arlington Police Force

Two new patrolmen have been added to the Arlington Heights police force, announced Chief Carl H. Skoog this week. He said the additions were made to fill vacancies.

LOUIS KOHLER

Louis J. Kohler, 30, of 1330 N. Chicago, was a member of the Chicago police department for 5½ years before joining the local force. A Navy veteran of 3½ years, he is a native of Chicago and has lived in Arlington Heights 4 months. He is married and has 1 child.

ROBERT KESLINKE

Robert W. Keslinke, 27, of 1715 Miner st., was with the transportation department of Illinois Bell Telephone co. before joining the Arlington Heights police force as patrolman. Born and raised in Chicago, he is a Navy veteran of 3½ years and is unmarried.

Both men assumed their new duties August 16. Arlington Heights police department comprises 15 regulars and 2 radio men.

Mt. Prospect Man Killed Monday

Henry P. Burmeister, 44, of Route 1, Mount Prospect, was suffocated Monday morning when a leaning corn crib collapsed and buried him under 5 tons of corn.

A coroner's jury Tuesday reached a verdict of accidental death in the tragedy.

Burmeister was assisting 2 other men to empty the crib, located on the Martin Hanfeld farm at Maude and Arlington Heights rd., Wheeling township.

Hanfeld said they attempted to drag the weight off Burmeister with a tractor and chain, but the 10 ft. snow fence crib merely split, spilling the corn over the ground.

Arlington Height's firemen and policemen assisted the farmers in shoveling out Burmeister, who was partially buried for 15 minutes.

Efforts by the Arlington Heights inhalator squad failed, and the man was pronounced dead by Dr. Bernard Moore.

Deputy Nick Covello and Deputy Anthony Cutaia of the county sheriff's police handled the case.

Burmeister, who was born and lived all his life in Wheeling township, is survived by a sister, Mrs. Lillian Drewes of Arlington Heights.

Funeral services will be at 2 p. m. Thursday at St. Paul's church, Mount Prospect. Black's Memorial Home, Arlington Heights, is handling arrangements. (ACM

Prizes Given Away

A Schwinn bicycle, $25 gift certificate, and $10 gift certificate are 3 prizes being offered to customers of Lorraine-Anne shop, 18 W. Campbell, Arlington Heights.

The gifts are "back to school" awards to be given in connection with the store's 10 per cent reduction on children's new winter coats and snowsuits through September 17. All customers are eligible for the gifts to be awarded September 17.

Trailers Go On Tax Books

Owners of trailers will hereafter be assessed for local taxes. An assessed value of $1440 upon trailer and auto is common, which will mean a tax bill in the neighborhood of $60.

Many school districts have objected to trailers, claiming that they pay nothing towards the maintenance of the schools. (B5

'Kaffee Klatsches' to Raise $1000 for Proposed Hospital

Two more projects to raise money for the proposed Northwest Community Hospital Center were announced this week. Money raised at this time will go toward the purchase of a site, or, if not needed, will go into the fund to help pay for the building.

Charles Walters, chairman of the hospital board of directors, said this week that the board expects to announce the location of the site for the proposed hospital within the next few weeks.

In the meantime, many organizations and individual groups are planning projects to raise money for the hospital that is to serve residents of Wheeling, Elk Grove, Palatine, Schaumburg and Barrington townships. Benefits given to date have raised nearly $2,000. This, of course, is a far cry from the extimated $2,000,000 needed to build the 125-bed hospital, but the response shows the keen interest of residents to obtain a hospital for this area.

PALATINE NURSES club revealed plans for a series of "Kuarter Kaffee Klatsches" that are expected to raise another $1,000 for the hospital. The "coffees" began this week when members of the club were hosts to other members who paid 25 cents each to attend the "kaffee klatsch." A total of 40 members were entertained.

These 40 members in turn, will each invite 5 guests to a kuarter kaffee klatsch at their homes next week, bringing the total to 200 women, each paying 25 cents to attend the affair. The second week each of these 200 women are expected to invite 5 guests to their homes for coffee, at 25 cents each. If this is carried out 1,000 women will have been reached by the second week. This chain of events will continue until October 1, when the Nurses club expects to reach its goal and possibly go "over the top."

Co-chairmen of the project are Mrs. W. P. Boswell and Mrs. Lorin Miller, both members of the Palatine Nurses club.

Arlington Heights Newcomers club will hold a benefit bridge party September 29, with proceeds to go to the hospital fund. The affair will be held at the VFW hall on W. Northwest hwy.

Tickets will be $1 each and several added attractions are being planned as part of the evening's entertainment.

Another group of youngsters manned a refreshment stand and held games last Friday for the benefit of the hospital. The event was held at the Berngen home, 932 N. Chestnut, Arlington Heights, and proceeds totaled $6.71. Participating were Pamela and Bunny Berngen, Kathy Robertson, Tina Hunter, Joyce Esse and Barbara White.

Home From Europe

Home from their European travels are Mr. and Mrs. Thorleif Larsen, 450 Banbury, who returned last week after a 6-week trip abroad. The couple left June 7 on the boat, Oslofjord, and went to Norway to visit Mr. Larsen's relatives in Oslo and Holmestrand. They went to Sweden by train and on to Denmark where they rented a car to continue their tour through the continent. They visited relatives of Mrs. Larsen in Hamburg, Germany. In Holland they were particularly interested in viewing some of Rembrant's outstanding paintings. They also went to Belgium and Switzerland by car and recommend that mode of travel as the best to really get to know the entire countryside of foreign countries; roads, they reported, were very good. They had a most interesting stay in the historic old city of Perugia, Italy, situated on 4 hills. The parents of Mr. and Mrs. Larsens' daughter-in-law reside in this city, said to have an even earlier history than Rome. The climate of Italy they thought was similar to the climate of California. After a 3-day stay on the Riviera and a visit in Paris, the Larsens left France Aug. 8th to sail home.

Last Thursday, Andrea Graczyk, 1417 Fremont st., celebrated her fourth birthday by having several little friends in for a birthday luncheon. One of the highlights of the party were the clever little Davy Crockett favors each child received that could be used first as a candy cup and then be worn as a hat.

Friday night Clarence Wrobel of 1404 W. Fremont st. celebrated his birthday by inviting some of his neighbors to be his guests.

Rolling Meadows Wins Round in Secession Fight

The first round in the fight by the Arlington Park Race Track, the North Western railroad and Arlington Crest to withdraw from the City of Rolling Meadows was won in the city last Monday.

In a hearing held at the county court Judge Ross Millet of Sycamore, DeKalb county, upheld the city's motion to dismiss the withdrawal petition on the ground it was not properly prepared. Judge Millet had been assigned to the case by county judge Otto Kerner.

SEVERAL POINTS of fault with the petition were raised by attorneys Louis Ancel and Jack Siegel on behalf of the city. The law requires the signatures on a withdrawal petition of a majority of electors and also the majority of owners of land in the territory involved. The petition submitted did not indicate in any way which signatures were those of electors or which were of property owners, if any, and it was on this point Judge Millet ruled the petition inadequate.

Attorneys Jack Edmonds and Thomas Thomas of the race track's legal firm argued they were prepared to prove the signatures adequate. Attorney Gerald Chapman was also present representing the North Western railroad. Judge Millet ruled the petition itself must contain the necessary information, however.

The petition was dismissed "without prejudice." This makes it possible for the petitioners to resubmit their withdrawal request.

Saturday Is Tax Deadline

It's the last call for payment of the second installment of the 1954 real estate taxes.

This Saturday, August 27, is the last day on which payments can be made to the local township collectors according to instructions issued by Herbert C. Paschen, county treasurer.

While the penalty date is September 1, Saturday is the last day for the local collectors.

Payments may be made up to September 1 at the county office in Chicago but because of the great amount of work to be done by the county office, the local collectors have been told to end their collections on Saturday, August 27.

So it's the last call, if you don't want to make your payments downtown in the last minute rush at the county building, see your local collector before the close of business this Saturday.

The local collectors appreciate the fine support that their patrons have given them. (B 5

Learn And Review Bicycle Safety Before School Begins

Youngsters, particularly those who ride bicycles, should learn traffic laws and regulations early in life.

Bicycles, if ridden thoughtlessly, can get children into the same kind of trouble that adults often experience with a car, according to the institute for safer living of the American Mutual liability insurance company. Statistics show that at least 25,0000 injuries and 800 deaths on the highway occurred to cyclists during the past year, mostly resulting from actions which were traffic regulation violations. Defective bicycles accounted for one out of every three of these accidents.

WITH THE OPENING of school, when hundreds of addition a l youngsters will be riding bicycles, the Institute warns that parents should make sure that children know and obey the following traffic regulations and common sense practices:

When turning left or right, use the same arm signals that are followed by motorists.

Traffic lights, signs and regulations are meant to be obeyed. At busy intersections, dismount and walk across.

In many places riding on sidewalks is taboo. Where this is the law obey it!

FOR NIGHT riding, keep your headlamp and tail reflector in good working order.

For all riding, equip your bicycle with horn or bell.

Give passing cars plenty of room, hug right side of road. Never ride in center or two-abreast.

Take the necessary time and pains to learn to ride well. Get an experienced cyclist to help. Practice in a safe area, away from traffic.

Make sure handlebars and saddle are properly adjusted. Set saddle so that when pedal is at lowest point rider's leg is comfortably straight.

STUNTS LIKE riding no-hands, standing on seat, coasting with feet on handlebars belong in the circus. Leave them for professionals.

Two-on-a-bike is dangerous since it interfers with rider's vision, steering and balance.

Use special care on rainy days to prevent skidding. Take wet streetcar tracks at right angles (90 degree) or as nearly so as possible.

Watch out for the standing car which has someone in the driver's seat. Look out for parked cars pulling suddenly into traffic. Keep a sharp look-out for unexpected opening of auto doors on the street side. Never hitch on other vehicles, or race on street used by automobiles.

JUST DOGS

Water Logged

The subject of warm weather has brought about a number of questions relative to the care and handling of dogs and one which was most unusual was, perhaps, the question put to your editor by a youngster who inquired if a dog could be given artificial respiration just like a human being if, perhaps, the dog had an overdose of too much water. Vacations and the local swimming pool, I guess, brought about the question, and the answer to the problem might be of interest to you. Most dogs can swim, all however are not expert, and exhaustion and cramps can bring even the best of aquatic canines in danger of drowning.

Resuscitation for a dog is to hold him up by the hind legs for a short period of time so that water in the throat area may run out and then lay him on his side and press on his ribs slowly with an in and out movement. If the dog is unconscious you might revive him by placing aromatic spirits of ammonia under his nose, if the ammonia is available, or some other such strong smelling material which will have a similar reaction. When he has returned to normal he should be wrapped in a blanket and kept warm and quiet in order that not too much of a strain is placed on the heart.

Puppy Worms

Don't make the mistake of routine worming just because you think that your puppy "probably has worms". Actually, if their owners had never heard of worms many puppies fatally stricken by wrong hit or miss worming methods would be alive today.

At the least sign of distress in a dog someone is sure to advise that he needs worming, when what the animal may really need is, perhaps, treatment for a far more serious ailment. "Going Off" of his feed, biting at his tail or having fits are not necessarily signs that a dog needs worming. Worms might be the least of his troubles. All worm medicines in order to kill and expel them must be strong agents, and to subject a dog to worming at a time when he is suffering from some severe ailment is a hindrance rather than being helpful. The only sign of any value to a layman that a dog has worms is when they are seen passed in the stool. Therefore, the best way to do your worming is to have treatment prescribed by a veterinarian after he has determined the kind of worms present, if any. If you do use home remedies be sure to follow directions explicitly. Most medicine when used in amounts other than carefully recommended is extremely toxic.

Local Obedience

This coming Sunday, August 28, The German Shepherd Dog Training Club of Chicago will hold its annual obedience trials and tracking tests on the clubhouse grounds, located on Route 53 approximately a mile south of Lombard.

The trials which are an annual affair are looked forward to by not only owners of German Shepherds, for whom the trials are basically held, but also by many people throughout this area who are interested in general obedience training. It gives the folks a good opportunity to observe dogs doing obedience work under outdoor conditions, which oftentimes brings up many interesting side lights, such as a stray rabbit or two.

The judging will start in the morning and will last until supper time, with plenty of parking space available for the spectator's cars.

Blood Transfusions

There has been some discussion over a period of years among veterinarians that if a dog gives a blood transfusion to another dog it has usually meant that the donor lost his life in doing so. In view of this fact and in line with recent conversation which your editor has had with various people, it is of interest to note that "Luke" a 7½ year old Bloodhound has given over 200 transfusions to fellow canines at Dr. H. M. Zweigs Veterinary Hospital of Nassau, New York. This, therefore, seems to prove the point that it is not necessary for Fido to lose his life in trying to save one of his friends by becoming a blood donor.

Barks and Bays

The sport of Greyhound racing has been enjoyed in many states; however it is of interest to note that 90% of America's racing bloodhounds are bred in Texas, Kansas and Oklahoma where dog racing is illegal.

Overcrowding

A University of Illinois veterinarian says that unsanitary conditions, poor feed, overcrowding or resistance lowered by cholera all help necro to get started in your swine herd.

Hawthorne Flower And Garden Show

North Western To Pay $2,691,000 State Taxes

The state of Illinois will receive more than $2,691,000 from the Chicago and North Western railway as 1954 taxes on its operating property in twenty-four Illinois counties, according to Paul E. Feucht, president of the railway company.

Feucht said that the Illinois tax bill, an increase of more than $47,000 over 1953 taxes, was the largest in the North Western's 107 year history and is the largest tax bill of the nine states served by the railway.

The total Illinois tax for 1954 is $2,691,295.62, of which $1,568,415.66 or more than half, constitute school taxes.

Dorothy Heim Marries Leonard Haberkamp

Miss Dorothy Amanda Heim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Heim of Wheaton, became the bride of Leonard Martin Haberkamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Haberkamp of Des Plaines at 7 p.m. July 30 in St. John Evangelical Lutheran church, Wheaton. The Rev. H. H. Tessmann officiated. The church was decorated with palms, white flowers in altar vases, candles and caladiums set at the communion rail. White ribbons decorated the pews.

List Registration Dates For Adult Night School

The opening of school for the young members of the community will be followed within a few weeks by the opening of the Arlington Heights high school adult evening school. Classes are scheduled to begin the week of September 26, with registration for classes taking place September 19, 20, and 21 at the high school.

Many of the most popular subjects of former years will be repeated this fall, along with a few new subjects. These include instruction in art, ceramics, bookkeeping, algebra, business English, improvement in reading, shorthand, typing, millinery, sewing, tailoring, interior decorating, flower arranging, landscape gardening, woodshop, machine shop, electricity and home repairs.

Those who wish to improve their social skills with instruction will be interested in the classes in square dancing, ballroom dancing and bridge, in which instruction will be offered for those who are beginners as well as those who have played but wish to perfect their game. French, Spanish and German classes are being planned, as well as instruction in piano and organ.

Bulletins will be mailed shortly after September 1 to those persons who have called the high school office, Clearbrook 3-0200, to request one. The practice of mailing bulletins addressed to boxholder or householder has been discontinued because of new postal regulations prohibiting this form of mailing.

Estonian Finds Life in States' All He Ever Dreamed About

A 53-year-old Arlington Heights carpenter who sailed to America on a 43-foot sailboat in 1947 was naturalized as an American citizen today before U. S. District Judge Joseph Sam Perry.

The new citizen is George Madison who lives at 118 S. State rd. in Arlington Heights.

Madison left Estonia during the Nazi occupation, during which his wife disappeared. In 1943 he flew to Finland with 10,000 other Estonians. Many of these fought in the Finnish army against the Russians, but Madison — because of his age—did not, although he had been a sergeant of cavalry in the Estonian army.

HE SPENT MOST of his time in Finland as a carpenter, but after peace treaties were signed between Russia and Finland in 1944, Madison sailed to Sweden rather than be under Communist rule.

For 3 years he tried unsuccessfully to get a visa to enter America from Sweden. Finally, he and 23 other Estonians sailed to America in a 43-foot-sail boat, powered by an ancient motor—confident that America would never hesitate to accept stateless people.

He and the others docked at West Palm Beach, Fla., in 1947 after 62 days at sea. They were interned on Ellis Island for 8 and a half months before a special law was signed by President Truman granting them entry.

Madison (his family name for over 170 years) traveled to San Francisco to visit relatives, but didn't like the west coast. On his way back across the country, he saw a score of buildings going up in Arlington Heights. He figured that buildings needed carpenters, got off the train, and decided to make his home in Arlington Heights.

IN 1951 MADISON married for [illegible] his wife, Selma, also an Estonian, spent 5 years as a displaced person in Germany and was naturalized last year.

"It feels wonderful to be a citizen after being stateless for 12 years," Madison said today.

"Everything I ever heard about American freedom, and how human rights and happiness are valued above everything else, has come true. I have a new car and a home that'll be paid for in 2 years. Not even in Sweden could I have accomplished that."

Elementary Teachers 'Back To School' Next Week

School days are nearly here. The 100 teachers of the Arlington Heights elementary schools are returning to their jobs Monday for a week of intensive planning and preparation for the opening of school September 6. Principals and other administrators have been on the job for 2 weeks or more.

TEACHERS NEW to the school system will spend considerable time being briefed on the phases of school policy which will affect their teaching.

The week's schedule also provides time for all teachers to work in their classrooms, preparing for the first arrival of the children. Bulletin boards will be covered with enticing pictures and suggestions of the many things to be learned in the room during the year. Books will be taken from storage and the final cleaning jobs completed.

The first day of classes will be a full day's work for everyone.

In addition to preparing for the arrival of the children, teachers will meet together to study various phases of the school curriculum and operation. Study sessions will be devoted to the using of the library more effectively and will be led by Florence Sorokin, head librarian. Martha Sapp, guidance director, will lead a discussion on the use of educational film and other audio-visual devices used in teaching, Agnes Skadberg, reading consultant, will review for teachers the place of phonics in the teaching of reading.

THE SPECIAL education teachers, such as the speech correctionists, school nurse, vocal music teacher, and visiting counselor will provide information on the manner in which all teachers can be of help to children in the area of their speciality.

R. E. Clabaugh, superintendent of schools, will talk to the group on Wednesday morning concerning the philosophy and policies of the school system.

The Parent-Teacher association will be hosts to the teachers at a breakfast Tuesday morning. Mrs. Howard Froyd, PTA president, and Victor Bedingfield, president of the board of education, will be on hand to welcome new teachers and to greet those who are returning.

The fact that teachers return one week early eliminates confusion and delays in starting the school year and is a far cry from the days when the teacher arrived in her room only a half hour before the children.

4 Trustees Disagree With Fellow Trustee

Four members of Arlington Heights village board, trustees Davis, Hoover, Millay and Weber, disagree with Trustee Bishop on a pay-as-you-go policy for water works improvements.

They agree that some immediate changes should be made from current funds to correct the water situation, but they think a major water project should be financed by bonds.

Their answer to the Fence Post letter of Trustee Bishop appeared in last week's issue, appears this week.

County Board Delays Approval Rezoning 10,000 Sq. Ft. Lots; Questions Septic Tanks

County Commissioner Charles F. Chaplin of Northbrook scored another victory last week in his fight to improve sanitation by raising the minimum standards for septic tank systems in the county's unincorporated areas.

At Chaplin's urging, the county board's public service committee deferred action on rezoning requests by builders who want to put up 800 homes on lots 10,000 feet square—or about 60 by 100 feet.

Chaplin protested the rezoning because the lots "are too small to be handled adequately by septic tanks." He had called for raising the minimum lot size for homes with septic tanks from 10,000 to 20,000 square feet. He has claimed repeatedly that the use of septic tanks on small lots presents a menace to health.

Commissioner John Mackler proposed a resolution, put to the full county board at its Tuesday meeting, which would require all builders of homes with septic systems to post a $2,500 bond to guarantee the system will work properly for two years.

After receiving the resolution, the board turned it over to the state's attorney's office for an opinion as to the legality of making it retroactive. It's expected to be returned to the board in time for its next meeting, and then, probably, will be referred back to committee.

Chaplin says that in the unincorporated areas building permits for homes with septic tanks are averaging about 2,000 to 3,000 a year. "In many cases, these lots are just too small to build an adequate septic tank," he said. "And when you get flooding, it's a mess," Chaplin quoted a federal engineer as having stated that 50 per cent of the septic tanks being installed in five midwest states are inadequate.

The 800 lots on which approval of the county board is being delayed, comprises four parcels, three of which are in Worth township and one in Maine.

No definite action has been taken on the application for variation of the Midland Enterprises, which is developing a large tract, west Rohlwing road, between Northwest highway and Rand road.

The county board, so far as can be learned has given its approval to 10,000 sq. ft. lots that have previously been okayed by the zoning board of appeals. (B-5

Plan Reopening Of School For Retarded Children

Plans are currently underway for the reopening of the school for retarded children in Park Ridge.

There are already 2 children from this area enrolled and it is likely there are others who would benefit from the special training offered by the William Frederick school. For that reason the parent group is anxious that Mt. Prospect and Arlington Heights parents of mentally handicapped children or young adults, between the age of 6 and 35, investigate the training program used in these classes which begin September 6.

Park Ridge Aid for Retarded Children may be addressed at 913 S. Aldine ave., Park Ridge. Robert Zander, president, W. F. Knaack, vice president or Mrs. Raymond Till of the organization may also be reached for information by calling Talcott 3-1724, Talcott 3-8273 or CLearbrook 3-5404 respectively. It is requested that the calls be made evenings. (AM Shell Oil Seeks Distributing Center In Elk Grove Twp.

The Cook county zoning board of appeals has under consideration 3 petitions for rezoning in Wheeling and Elk Grove townships. A fourth petition was withdrawn at the last minute because of public pressure.

Arthur W. Busse, Elk Grove township, has requested a change from farming to business 1 acre located on the northeast corner of Oakton st. and Elmhurst rd. The Arrow Petroleum co. wants to erect a filling station on the site.

IF THE BOARD approves the petition of August Deeke, RR1, Box 386, Arlington Heights, for rezoning of 22-¾ acres near Oakton and Elmhurst rd. from farming to light industry, the Shell Oil co. will erect an oil terminal and distribution center. Representatives of the firm assured the county there would be no oil refining or manufacturing and no petroleum odors.

An addition to a restaurant at Rand and Elmhurst rds. is also being considered by the board of appeals. In question is 3 acres now classified as residential (10,000 sq. ft.) and the petition requests a change to business (tavern and amusement.) Hearings were held Friday by the zoning board at Mt. Prospect and Arlington Heights village halls.

Mt. Prospect village board will protest the rezoning on the grounds that the village has no guarantee as to the kind of business establishment which will go on the corner. Other restaurants at 83 and Rand objected because of the competition factor.

WITHDRAWN was a petition from Smith and Dawson real estate in Prospect Heights, who had planned to ask for rezoning of the southwest corner of Palatine and Elmhurst rds. The firm wanted to erect a real estate and business office. Opposition from the Prospect Heights Improvement association, the Businessmen's association, property owners, and Carlton A. Smith, original developer of the community, persuaded the realtors to withdraw their petition.

The day ends at 5:30, except for special buses. Elementary schools served and the number of buses needed are: Arlington Hights, 14; Prospect Hts., 6; Wheeling, 5; Mt. Prospect, 4; Feehanville, St. Peter's, St. Raymond's and Wilson schools, 2 each; a single bus will serve Orchard Place and St. John's, Elk Grove.

Gems Of Thought

PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE

We own no past, no future, we possess only now.

—Mary Baker Eddy

One today is worth two tomorrows; what I am to be I am now becoming.

—Benjamin Franklin

Do today's duty, fight today's temptation; do not weaken and distract yourself by looking forward to things you cannot see, and could not understand if you saw them.

—Charles Kingsley

The best preparation for the future, is the present well seen to, and the last duty done.

—George Macdonald

Look not mournfully into the past, it returns no more; wisely improve the present, and go forth into the shadowy future without fear and with a manly heart.

Richard Black was the host and Walt Tinsley provided the "safe" transportation for the above guests who enjoyed their annual trip to Lake Geneva last Wednesday. Included were a group of the barber shop singers, who were received with open arms at the Lake Geneva Golf club, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Habecker, and the Danish Tea room, where steaks were enjoyed.

The night was topped off with a late evening serenade by the barber shop singers of Mary Lou McCollow, whose husband was with the boys the greater part of the evening. Richard made his debut as a baritone that evening. He is now a full-fledged member of the SPEBSQSA.

Park Ridge Pastor To Preach Sunday At Our Saviour Church

The Rev. James J. White, assistant pastor of St. Luke Lutheran church, Park Ridge, is to be guest preacher at the 9 a.m. worship service Sunday morning at Our Saviour's United Lutheran church, meeting in Dryden school. The acting pastor of the church, the Rev. George Hoog, is away from the city on vacation.

Pastor White is a 1955 graduate of the Chicago Lutheran Theological seminary at Maywood, and is continuing to pursue graduate studies there while acting as assistant to the Rev. Walter Spangler at the Park Ridge church. A native of Peoria, Pastor White graduated from Carthage college before entering Maywood seminary, and interned at St. Luke Lutheran church, Chicago. He has been a leader in Luther league work throughout the Chicago area, and has just returned from the national convention of Luther leagues meeting in Ann Arbor.

Among the new members recently received at Our Saviour's are the following families: Mr. and Mrs. Ted Meyer and Gregory; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zehner, Gregory and Charles; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Anderson, Michael and Dona; and Miss Jeanne Meyer.

Pastor Hoog will return from vacation August 30. Any member who wishes pastoral assistance before that date may call any member of the church council or directly to Dr. Walter Spangler, TA 3-3423.

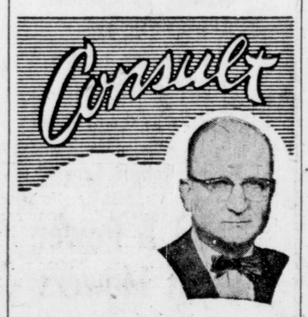

St. John Church Announces Late Summer Services

St. John church, N. Evergreen at St. James, Arlington Heights, this week announced its schedule of late summer services beginning Sunday, August 28, and climaxing Rally day September 25. Pastor J. G. Meiners will preach a series of Bible studies during the services which will be for the entire family beginning at 10:30 a.m. and concluding in a little less than an hour.

Great hymns that are favorites of many people will be joined in by the congregations. Special music will also be presented every Sunday under the direction of organish August Stelling, a student of the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago. The church school conducts a program for preschool children in the church school rooms at the same time. Both a class and separate childcare are provided for nursery children.

These services are offered at a time of the year when many spirits are lagging, and are part of a nation-wide trend of popular expository preaching of the Bible. A spokesman for the congregation said, "We cordially invite to these Sunday 10:30 services those in the community without a church home. The sermons will be in a style for which Rev. Meiners is becoming known outside the bounds of his parish."

The regular church school program with "church and home" emphasis will be held each Sunday at 9:15 a.m. for those primary and above. The youth Bible class is for young people of high school age.

FOR THE ANSWER TO THIS QUESTION

I can't get back on my feet, financially, after having pneumonia for two months. I was hit twice — by having hospital and medical bills, and by loss of my income. Does your agency have insurance to pay my salary when I'm laid up from sickness or an accident?

Your electric friend "LITTLE BILL" says:

"I'll cook your meals electrically— for pennies a day!"

How Public Service Company keeps your electric bill down—

(while everything else goes up)

Though the cost of living has doubled—today electricity actually costs you less per kilowatt-hour than it did 25 years ago.

Many new ideas have helped Public Service Company keep the cost of electricity low. Today, for example, we send out your electric bill every two months. This cuts the cost of bookkeeping, printing, and meter-reading in half. And, by putting your bill on a post card, we also save on envelopes and postage. These "little savings" all add up to a big saving for you in lower-cost electricity.

So today, while you're using far more electricity than 25 years ago, you're actually getting more of it for your money (almost twice as much, as a matter of fact).

Nancy Boettcher Is Now Mrs. Donald Buenzow

After a wedding trip to the Wisconsin Dells and Devil's lake, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Buenzow will reside in Tulsa, Okla. The couple married in a candlelight service at 4:30 p.m. August 7 in St. Peter Lutheran church in Arlington Heights.

The bride is the former Nancy Boettcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Boettcher, Rt. 58, Arlington Heights, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Buenzow, 210 N. Fremont, Palatine.

The Rev. L. V. Stephan officiated at the service amid a setting of white gladioli, white pompons and candelabra tied with chrysanthemums. "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Benediction" were the selections sung by soloist John Lee. He was accompanied at the organ by Donald Hermann.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of French chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta made with scoop neckline trimmed with seed pearls and rhinestones. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a crown of pearls and rhinestones and she carried a prayer book covered with 2 white orchids and lily of the valley arranged by her father, an Arlington Heights florist.

The bride's maid of honor was her sister, Miss Patricia Boettcher, who wore a light blue embroidered nylon gown fashioned with scoop neckline and full skirt. She carried a basket of white larkspur, pink roses and blue cornflowers. Mrs. Lois Verhoeven, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Marilynn Hermann were bridesmaids. They wore gowns identical to the maid of honor's gown and carried baskets of white larkspur and pink roses. All attendants wore blue nylon headpieces with pink roses.

The bride's 4-year-old cousin, Terry Kraegel, was flower girl and also wore a gown of light blue embroidered nylon made with scalloped neckline. She also carried a basket of the white larkspur and pink roses.

Kent Chidley of Palatine was the groom's best man and Burton Nesset, also of Palatine and John Stob of Long Grove, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Boettcher wore a dress of mauve lace over pink taffeta with blue accessories and a white orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a pink acetate dress with white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

A buffet supper was served to 140 guests in the church activity building following the ceremony.

The bride, a graduate of Arlington Heights township high school, was employed in the business office of Illinois Bell Telephone Co. until her marriage. Her bridegroom is a graduate of Palatine township high school and is entering his senior year at the University of Tulsa this fall where he is studying business administration.

Junior Clubwomen To Present Benefit Dance

Seventh district junior Womens clubs again announce their plans for the Wheeling Braille Classroom Benefit dance to be held this year at Elmhurst country club Friday, September 30, from 9 p.m. until 12:30 a.m.

The response the dance received last year makes the club's hopeful to top the generous $1200 turned over to the Wheeling Braille classroom fund last year.

A visit to the Braille classroom at the Wheeling school to watch the little blind youngsters learn to read, to write on a Braille typewriter and to fit puzzle pieces together proves these sightless youngsters can be integrated into the community classrooms and be made into useful, self-supporting citizens simply by folks who care enough to lend a helping hand, according to the juniors.

The community attitudes, and the attitudes of the parents of blind youngsters, surrounding children educated in Braille classrooms are bound to be different from a decade ago when sorrow and pity were the only thoughts one felt for a blind person, report the junior clubs. Today this problem is being treated with much intelligence and forethought and understanding to make these youngsters useful citizens with a place in community life when the time comes for them. A parent of one blind child remarked, "The only thing that my child can not do that a child with sight can do will be to drive the family automobile and watch television, and after talking to other parents about these two activities I don't think we're so bad off after all."

Club members report that another aid of community classrooms for the blind is to bring these children home just like the rest of the neighborhood children, not having to be sent away like the little blind boy who lives in Palatine. He was forced to attend the school for blind children in Jacksonville because there was no place closer to his home for him to be educated. But now, thanks to the start our community has made, he is on the attendance rolls at Wheeling. His mother relates how, when he first came home he would wake up in the middle of the night screaming "I want my Mommy, I want my Mommy," dreaming he was still in Jacksonville. Today he feels safe and secure in his own bed, in his own home, where he belongs. These sightless youngsters, little and afraid and insecure, belong beside their mothers, the same as every small child.

Residents can help these youngsters by purchasing a ticket to the seventh district junior clubwomen's "Autumn Sights" dance.

League Of Women Voters Completes Workshop Meetings

The League of Women Voters of Arlington Heights has just completed a successful series of workship meetings on the Freedom Agenda, held during July and August. Part of the national program of the league, the Freedom Agenda program features a discussion of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights, and how they affect the freedom of the individual.

Meetings were held at the home of Mrs. John Hoppe, Mt. Prospect, who is resource chairman for the program. Mrs. E. J. Roble and Mrs. Walther Liebenow, both of Arlington Heights, acting as discussion leaders, led the group in a lively review of the issues. Thirty-five league members attended at least 1 of the 3 meetings.

The group studied 6 pamplets on the Constitution and its amendments, published by the Carrie Champan Catt memorial fund on a grant from the Ford Fund for the Republic. The Carrie Champan Catt Memorial fund was established by the League of Women Voters for purposes of research and education.

Groups all over the country have organized discussion meetings on the Freedom Agenda, often with a local minister or Lion's club or American Legion official as discussion leader. While this summer's meetings were confined to members of the League of Women Voters, they eventually hope to interest other groups in the community in sponsoring such discussion meetings.

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

My 5-year-old daughter came into the study the other day with a potato sack over her head, saying, "Daddy, take this off."

Me: "Come here."

When she was almost within reach, she pulled at the sack, and got it off. Then, turning, "Goodbye."

Me: "Wait a minute. You didn't even say thank you."

She: "I don't need to say thank you."

"Why not?"

"Because I got it off myself."

"You couldn't get it off until you got in here."

This may be a casual version of an old story about the man who took his problems to the Lord in prayer. But when the Lord did not give him an answer, "I sat down and used my own intelligence."

MANY OF OUR problems are solved with help from on High, help that we fail to recognize because the thunder did not roll and the veil of the Temple was not torn in two. We seem to expect the Lord to "rear back and pass a miracle" just because we don't know whether to admit to our wives that an argument last night was a foolish thing for which we are sorry.

Some problems are quite serious. We talk about them, to our family, to our friends, to our pastors. Frequently they do not tell us what we ought to do. So we say, nobody could help me, I had to make the decision myself.

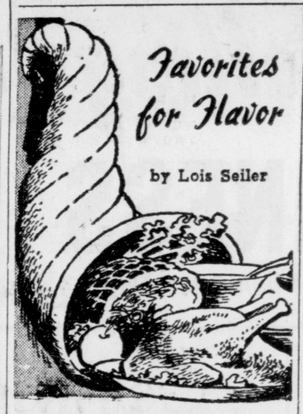

That is as it should be. No wise person ever decides for another: think of the consequences if he accepts your decision and it is not right for him — and it won't be right for him because it was not his decision.

MANY OF US do not recognize the help that we get just from talking about the problems in relation to somebody else. We find answers when we are close to someone who is willing to listen, or willing to help if there is a way to do so.

And off we go feeling no need to say, "Thank you," because "I used my own intelligence." We owe no thanks to the Lord, nor to our pastor, nor to our best friend, nor our wife, nor our father.

We are made for communion, for communication; in a social setting, our problems develop and our answers are discovered. If we fail to recognize it, we fail to use one of our greatest benefits to the fullest extent. Use of the social benefit brings with it some of the richest rewards of being a human being.

Cooking honors are shared in the John A. Pepio household at 820 S. Vail, Arlington Heights, but Mrs. Pepio modestly asserts that she is no competition for her husband.

When he takes over at the grill she retires to the background to prepare vegetables, salad and dessert.

For Mr. Pepio's finesse at the outdoor grill has earned him the reputation of a master chef, and his barbecued foods are the product of experience, talent and a flare for flavor.

One of his favorites is a small turkey. He trusses it up on the motor-driven spit of their grill and lets it cook for a good 2½ hours. Before and during the grilling he bastes it with a sauce he has devised. It gives the turkey a crisp, crunchy crust, making the skin as delicious to eat as the meat itself.

This sauce is excellent for any fowl or roast pork. He even coats the skins of potatoes and bakes them on the spit.

The bacon drippings in the sauce give the skin its crunchiness, while the wine, butter, minced onion and garlic give it flavor.

Mr. Pepio loves to cook with wine and believes it is unsurpassable for flavoring and tenderizing meat.

His butter and wine combination is again evident in a delectable mushroom dish he originated. For this, large, white mushrooms, which he purchases at a mushroom farm, are sauted in butter and simmered in bouillon and wine. They are served in individual dishes with the sauce.

Barbecued foods are not just a summertime pleasure for the Pepios. When the cold weather sets in, Mr. Pepio moves their portable grill onto the porch and thus is able to grill all year 'round. Meats with fat on are taboo because of the splattering, but fowl, beef and pork roasts are quite safe to barbecue indoors.

Mr. Pepio's talents are also utilized at the kitchen range, and he prepares superb Italian dishes such as Lasagna and Ravioli.

Though Mr. Pepio may outshine his wife on specialty dishes, her ability is evident in the baking realm. Their 3 children, Mike, 12, Nancy, 10, and Kathy, 4, can quickly deplete a supply of baked delicacies, so Mrs. Pepio finds herself preparing baked goods almost every day.

One of the family's favorites is a delicious Devil's Food cake. Moist and light-textured this cake never fails.

Mrs. Pepio likes recipes which include buttermilk, for she prefers tender, light-textured cakes.

Along with buttrmilk, this Devil's Food cake also calls for 2 tablespoons of hot, fresh coffee. It is iced with a luscious, brown sugar frosting.

Mrs. Pepio has made this cake for years, and she finds that it is excellent for cup cakes, too.

News Of Rolling Meadows

HELENE BRISTOL, Editor 2104 South Street CLearbrook 3-8125

School Drive Shuffle

Have you set next Saturday night aside to shuffle off to the School Drive Shuffle? If you haven't, "you'll be sorry!" The Rolling Meadows Teenage clubs are really going "all-out" to make the street dance one of the top events of the year. The kids have arranged to use the present Little League ball field for extra parking space in addition to the parking lot at the Kimball Hill school.

The dance will be held on the smooth asphalt at the corner of School drive and Meadow drive. The music will be definitely danceable—for both the youngsters and we "older people." The younger teens, who are members of the Junior Hi club, are busy selling tickets "across the creek" in units 6 and 7, while the members of the Guys and Dolls Teen club are carrying on a door-to-door ticket selling campaign in the older sections. In a mass ticket-selling drive last Saturday, accompanied by the community loudspeaker, the young people sold almost $200 worth of tickets. The entrance fee is only 50c—and you will find you'll go a long way to have more fun for only one-half of a dollar anywhere!

Both teenage clubs—the Junior Hi for 10 to 14 year olds, and the Guys and Dolls Teen club for 15 to 18 year olds—have received the enthusiastic support of all of the adult and young people's organizations in the community. The organized groups have given them their support—now let's all give them our individual support!

Food Stand

For you ever-hungry Rolling Meadowites, the Junior Womans club will operate a food stand at the School Drive Shuffle. You'll have a chance to have really delicious beef barbecue sandwiches—"with a pickle in the middle and mustard on top" (or is that a hot dog?). All members of the Junior Womans club are baking cakes for the food booth, too. That means you will have another chance to sample those now famous homemade cakes the local women are so adept at baking. Of course there will be coffee, milk and soft drinks for the thirsty—and who won't be thirsty after a few rounds at the street dance?

Proceeds from the sale of food at the stand will be donated by the Junior Womans club equally to the Junior Hi club and the Guys and Dolls Teen club to help them get their fall activities programs underway.

Welcome World

Earl and Jean Schinkowsky of 2904 South court got their fondest wish last week when their second daughter arrived. Little Sandra Lee, who will be 2 next month, has proved to be such an ideal addition to their family, Earl and Jean decided nothing could be nicer than another little girl. Baby Susan Gail joined the Schinkowsky family August 21, at St. Francis hospital in Evanston. Since Jean and Earl are both "natives" in the Rolling Meadoys area, lucky little Susan will have her grandparents living very near. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brinkman of Rohlwing rd. and Walter Schinkowsky of Palatine. Mr. Brinkman is the superintendent of the Arlington Park race track and Mr. Schinkowsky operates a well-known florist business in Palatine.

Lawrence William Gimenez, 4½, is a mighty proud little boy these days. He had a new baby brother, Robert Thomas. The second son of William and Gladys Gimenez of 2611 Park st. lustily announced his arrival August 13, tipping the scales at 7 pounds ½ ounce when he checked into St. Elizabeth hospital, Chicago. The new baby and his mother are now "at home" and busily receiving congratulations and best wishes of their many friends and neighbors.

August 16 was the arrival date chosen by little John Keith Tolley, the first son of Dolores and Edward Tolley of 2409 Wilke rd. The husky boy checked into Resurrection hospital in Chicago at the healthy weight of 8 pounds 5 ounces. His 2 older sisters, Pamela, 5½, and Kathy, 2½, are enthusiastic over the new family addition.

Nancy Jean is the name Pat and Joe Komosa of 2707 St. James st. have chosen for their new baby daughter. The newest Komosa family addition arrived at St. Joseph hospital, Elgin, August 20. She tipped the scales at 8 pounds 10 ounces. Nancy Jean has an older brother and sister, too. They are Paul, 17 months, and Diane, 3.

It's a first baby at the home of Bob and Dolores Gottschalk of 2700 Sigwalt st.! The little miss checked into the Belmont hospital, Chicago, August 15. Her registered weight on arrival was 7 pounds 11 ounces. Bob and Dolores have chosen the lovely name of Deborah Ann for the little girl.

Cabaret Dance

Don't forget the invitation which has been extended to all Rolling Meadows residents for the Ushers Club Cabaret dance Saturday night. The Ushers club has titled their late summer dance "A Night Under the Stars" since it will be held on the grounds of Our Lady of the Wayside parish in Arlington Heights. Tickets are only $1 each, with proceeds going toward the convent chapel. Music will be provided by an outstanding group known as the Melodeers, and games, refreshments and all kinds of fun are promised to everyone attending. Tickets can be obtained right in Rolling Meadows by contacting one of the local members of the Ushers club. They are Bill Tully, 2412 Fremont st. (chairman); Richard Drolet, 2403 Sigwalt st.; William Hickey, 2411 George st.; Robert Gelderman, 2310 Bluebird lane; Herb Saunders, 2704 Oriole lane; Robert Kreutz, 2104 George st.; and Bill Van Wazer, 2207 George st.

Solicitors Licnse

Are all of you remembering to ask solicitors at your door for their permit cards? The ordinance requiring all solicitors to register with the police department was passed for your own protection. The only way it can work properly, however, is for every resident to refuse to do any business with any solicitor who does not bear the proper card identification. Those not carrying permit cards or who give you cause for complaint in any way should be reported to Police Chief Tom Ullock at Clearbrook 5-2414. Make asking for a permit card a habit.

Activities Directory

If you will note the Rolling Meadows Business Directory this week, you will see an "Activities Directory" in the center. Getting Rolling Meadows residents interested in their community and its activities is the main purpose of this column. For handy reference we thought you might like to have a list of the clubs and activities available, however, and have developed the "Activities Directory" for your convenience. If any group has been inadvertently omitted please let us know—the omission certainly is not intentional in any way. If you have any questions regarding any of the groups listed by all means call the person listed. You may be sure they will be glad to help you in any way possible.

Blood Donors

An urgent appeal for help has been made by Don Dahlquist of 2506 Sigwalt st. Don has donated his time and effort to providing a list of available blood donors to any Rolling Meadows family in need of the service. Naturally there is no charge for this and any family in the community is welcome to call for assistance. Three separate calls for donors have been made in the last few weeks, and the list of available donors has now been exhausted. If you would like to help your neighbors in this vital way, won't you contact Don Dahlquist at Clearbrook 3-0889. He will gladly give you any further information you may desire.

Sincere appreciation has been expressed by Howard and Dolores Reinberger of 2712 Dove st. to the group of Rolling Meadows residents who generously donated blood to assist them. Howard, who is now recuperating at the home of his mother in Chicago, urgently needed the blood to repay the blood bank for the blood he had used during his 2 long sieges in Michael Reese hospital. Rolling Meadows "good Samaritans" were Lynn Bozee, Oscar Falk, Harold Vreeland, Fred Hahn, Earl Mills, Joe Stapleton and Don Dahlquist.

Change in Schedule

Be sure to note the changes in school schedules announced on the front page of this week's issue of the paper. These changes in class schedules at the Rolling Meadows Kimball Hill school are only of a temporary nature with a full routine of classes to be used as soon as the addition to the present school is completed.

Rolling Meadows City Clerk Eda Zimmerman has also announced a brief change in schedule for the city hall. This announcement is also carried on the front page today.

Christenings

Little Susan Marie Groves was the center of attraction at christening services last Sunday at Our Lady of The Wayside church in Arlington Heights. Susan Marie, the infant daughter of Ginger and Wing Groves of 3511 Campbell st., was the only baby baptized at the regular 2 p.m. christening service. Father O'Hara, pastor of the church, officiated at the baptism. Acting as godparents for the baby were Dr. and Mrs. Italo Egizi of Elmhurst. An "open house" was held by the proud parents following the christening service. On hand for the festive occasion were Jim and Marie Moran and their son, Jimmy Pat, of Arlington Hts., Chuck and Dodie Culver of Chicago and Eileen Gehl and her 2 children, Jackie and June, of Chicago.

A number of the Groves' Rolling Meadows friends also dropped by to add their best wishes for the happy occasion including John and Shirley Northcote and their daughter, Linda, Bi and Gretchen White, Steve and Dorothy Morrell, Pat and Herb Glover, Dick and Ruth Spirek, and Pete and Eleanor Keller.

A christening service in their home at 2700 George court was chosen by Jim and Linda Tyl for their young daughter, Vickie Marie. Officiating at the baptism was the Rolling Meadows Lutheran church vicar, Frederick Koehler. Acting as godparents for the little girl were Jim Tyl's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolk Jr. The Tyls held a buffet supper in honor of the happy occasion. On hand for the celebration were the baby's grandmother, Mrs. James Tyl, her sister, Terry, and her cousins, Susan and Bobby Wolk.

August 14 was the date chosen by Muriel and Vic Schrock of 2807 Dove st. for the christening of their new son, David Joseph. The christening was held at Our Lady of The Wayside church in Arlington Heights with Father O'Hara, pastor of the church, conducting the service. Acting as sponsors for the infant were Clarann and Joe Stecker of Chicago, who will soon become Rolling Meadows residents themselves. The festive occasion was celebrated by the family and friends with a buffet following the church service. On hand for the party were the baby's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Schrock of Prairie du Chien, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lang of Chicago. Also present were Harold and Joyce Boyce and their 2 children, Mary Beth and Ricky, and Miss Ann Kathrein.

Pot Luck Supper

Another of those delicious pot luck suppers has been planned by the Community church at 6 p.m. this coming Saturday evening at the Barn. The dinner this week will be sponsored by the Junior high fellowship group. The young people, all aged from 10 to 14, will provide rolls, butter and beverages. The only requisite for attendance is the will to have a good time plus your own silverware. The teenagers also ask that each family bring one dish for the supper—either a hot dish, salad or dessert. If you have never been to one of these pot luck suppers, you really don't know what good eating you are missing. These Rolling Meadows women are superb cooks, no matter what the recipe of the moment happens to be. The Junior Hi group is hoping the pot luck supper will prove to be a pleasant prelude to the "School Drive Shuffle" street dance which they are co-sponsoring with the Guys and Dolls Teen club. Why don't you plan to come to the pot luck supper first, then go on to the street dance later? You couldn't ask for a more pleasant evening's fare.

Inadvertently (which is a good word for forgetful) your reporter omitted mention of the last pot luck supper held at the Barn August 13. That pleasant outdoor dinner was sponsored by the church members who live on Meadow drive. It proved to be the "best ever" with an exceptional attendance. Following the supper 2 "exciting" volleyball games were played with the women just managing to defeat the men in the second contest. The volleyball games were followed by the movies of the evening. The group from Meadow drive rightly feels it will be a long time before their "pot luck" will be topped either by better food or a more enjoyable evening.

Home Owners' Picnic

The date of September 4 is surely circled on your calendar by now—or is it? That is the date set by the Rolling Meadows Home Owners' association for their second annual outing which they promise to be even better than the first. If you were a resident last year you will well remember how successful the first annual outing proved to be. Helping to create an atmosphere even more enjoyable for the kiddies will be "BeBop The Clown." There will also be games and prizes for the children; candy, ice cream, pop and balloons, too. The Pepsi-Cola Carousel will be running for the enjoyment of the small fry, and "Elsie the Cow" and "Little Oscar" have promised to visit the outing to say hello to all of the children. There will be races and prizes for the adults, too, not to mention the free beer which has been promised.

This year's outing is restricted to members of the association. Dues are only $2 a year with $1 initiation fee for new members. The picnic alone should prove more than ample value for this modest membership fee, excluding all of the many other services the association performs for the community. A telephone call to any official of the association will bring your membership card to your door. If you are interested won't you call Helen Macior at Clearbrook 5-0933 or Eleanor Keller at Clearbrook 3-2840. They will be glad to add your name to the membership list or give you any further information you may desire. If you should miss paying your association dues in advance, a special table will be set up at the picnic where you may pay up your membership fee.

Birthday Parties

It was his 5th birthday which brought his neighborhood playmates to the home of Kevin Maher, 2305 Park st. Kevin is the young son of Peggy and Bill Maher, and he observed his birthday, August 16 with a party highlighted with a beautiful birthday cake and ice cream. On hand for the festivities were Johnny Massa, Patty and Judy Lack, Bobby Seelbach, Bobby Stoltman, Gerri Abraham, all of Rolling Meadows, Stevie Porter of Chicago, and his cousins, Mary Beth and Jimmy Springer of Sycamore. The most treasured birthday gift received by young Kevin is his beautiful new phonograph.

It was an impromptu birthday celebration last Friday night at the home of Vic and Muriel Schrock of 2807 Dove st. The celebration was held in honor of Vic's birthday which fell August 20. Among the guests on hand for the celebration were Billie and Les Traub of Heron court, who discovered Vic and Bille shared a common birthday. Also joining the fun for the double celebration were Al and Shirley Piekarski and Jacque Grady, all of Dove st.

A lawn party was the birthday observance held by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bryant of 2601 George st. for the fifth birthday of their daughter, Karen. Games and refreshments and prizes, too, highlighted the important birthday festivities. Joining Karen for the big event were her older brother, Johnny, 7, Cheryl and Kathy Wirth, Sandra Carmella, Jimmy Bell, Kathy Mrozek, and Marsha and Billy Reddy.

Another fifth birthday party was held August 14 for Johnny Martin, son of Dick and Nancy Martin of 2105 Robin lane. On hand for the party fun were Johnny's playmates Cindy and Jimmy Wade, Meredyth, Jimmy and Kirk Buckholz, Sheila Brown, Kathy and Tommy Lindquist, and George and Neal Oreskovitch, as well as his older 10-year-old brother, David. Mrs. Georgia Goodspeed, Johnny's grandmother, also attended.

A second birthday party for the same group of little friends was held last week by Jean and Jim Wade of Robin lane in honor of the fourth birthday of their daughter, Cindy. The party was held August 22 and was a complete success with games and prizes for all. Joining in the fun were Linda Baker, Danita Loveless, Meredyth, Jimmy and Kirk Buckholz, Sheila Brown, Kathy and Tommy Lindquist, George and Neal Oreskovitch, David and Johnny Martin, and Cindy's brother, Jimmy, 2½.

It was a combination family get-together and birthday party which brought the guests to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Estrella last week. The Estrellas who live at 2400 Wing st. held a birthday party for Al's young cousin, Joanne Beran, of Cicero, who was 2 years old. Fifteen members of the family were on hand for the celebration including the little girl's grandmother, uncles and aunts.

Women's Bowling League

All Rolling Meadows women interested in bowling this fall are reminded of the important meeting to be held tonight, Thursday, at The Barn at 7:30 p.m. Whether you plan to bowl as a regular member of the league or would like to "sub" occasionally when needed you are urged to be on hand for this meeting. Following the business of the night a pleasant social period has been planned and refreshments will be served.

Cub Scouts

Pot Luck Supper

Hey, all you cubs! You haven't forgotten the cub scout pot luck supper this coming Sunday, have you? The pleasant evening has been planned for all regular cub scouts and their families, and a special invitation is extended to all prospective cub scouts for this fall. All boys in the community who are interested in the cub scout program are urged to bring their parents to this pot luck supper. Adult workers in the scouting program will be on hand to welcome the new boys and their families and to answer any questions they may have. Be sure to bring along sufficient silverware for your family. Rolls, butter and beverages will be provided by the cub scout organization and each family is asked to bring either a hot dish or a salad or a dessert for the supper.

Dance Tickets Coming Soon

Remember, that cub scout dance set for October 28 is going to be getting nearer and nearer. By this tim you surely must have marked your calendar, but have you started to look for that baby sitter yet? Tickets for the gala affair which will be held in Fred's place in Mt. Prospect will be "on the street" next week. Ticket sale has been temporarily held back in order not to interfere with the street dance planned by the teen clubs this Saturday night. Tickets are only $1.

The nearby location should appeal to everyone, and the cub scout organization promises a top-notch band. There will be special awards and refreshments, too, to add to the enjoyment of the evening.

Softball League

In a finish topped only by the current American League pennant race, the Rolling Meadows Softball league will wind up its season this Sunday in a photo finish. The final game of the season will be played next Sunday morning at 11 on the Arlington Heights high school field. It will be a contest between Sigwalt and Wing st., with a victory by Sigwalt st. necessary to clinch the first-place title. A victory by Wing st. would end the league standings in a tie between the teams from Sigwalt and Campbell sts.

Two close games were played last week. Bringing them even closer to the first-place finish they covet, Campbell st. defeated Wing st. by a score of 8 to 5. In an exciting contest South st. upset Bluebird lane by a score of 8 to 7. The winning run was scored on a home run in the last half of the final inning by Ralph Thorstensen of Fremont st. who really "saved the day" for his South st. team.

League standings this week:

	Won	Lost
Sigwalt Street	8	3
Campbell Street	8	4
Bluebird Lane	6	6
Wing Street	4	7
South Street	3	9

Lutheran Church News

The experimental church service held in the Breezeway of the Kimball Hill school last Sunday was a complete success. Not only did Sunday prove to be one of the hottest days of the year, the sun was shining brightly. The breeze-cooled area was ideal for the service which worked out far better than ever the most enthusiastic member had hoped. The outdoor-type service in the breezeway will be continued until the auditorium facilities of the Kimball Hill school are completed. Services start at 10:30 a.m.—Don't let the lack of proper building facilities keep you away—the outdoor type service is really an experience you should share.

Nurses' Attention

A nurses club has been proposed for all registered nurses here in Rolling Meadows. If you are a R.N., whether you are working in your profession or not, the group is interested to know about you. Won't you call Ruth Gruenbaum at CLearbrook 5-0856.

If you're between the ages of 10 and 14 and you missed the Junior Hi Club's Splash Party last Friday night, you really missed it! A wonderful time was had by the young teenagers, who met at the Barn for their trip to Bangs Lake. Seven cars filled with the youngsters took the trip to Wauconda for the evening of swimming and fun. Thanks are due to Messrs. O'Brian, McFeggan, Jesperson, Hayden, Crane, Ringsmuth and Wood for their assistance in the transportation department.

News Of Rolling Meadows

HELENE BRISTOL, Editor — 2104 South Street — CLearbrook 3-8125

Wedding Participants

Last Saturday was an important day for Barbara and Dick Sterner of 2205 Campbell street. On that day they attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Faust, where Dick acted as an usher. The wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Faust was really a "Rolling Meadows affair" as the newly-married couple are now "at home" in their new home on Sigwalt street.

Vacationing

A "trip of a lifetime" has just been completed by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mich of 2401 Cardinal dr. Mr. and Mrs. Mich have just returned to Rolling Meadows from a 3-week trip through the western part of the country. Some of the important stops on the agenda were the Badlands and Black Hills in South Dakota, Yellowstone National Park, Salt Lake City, Reno and Las Vegas, Nevada, Los Angeles, Laguna Beach, Boulder Dam and Grand Canyon, and Zion and Bryce National Parks. They found the exciting new Disneyland in California a wonderful spot to visit, but the real highlight of their trip was the 21 mile mountain trail road trip through the Tioga Pass in Yosemite National Park in California. That is a trip few attempt on the dangerous one-way mountain road which leads through some of the most spectacular scenery in the United States.

The final vacation "trip" of the year has been taken by Sharon Soderburg of 2209 Cardinal drive. Sharon spent her last vacation at the home of her grandmother in Chicago, and now is back home with her parents, Chester and Ruth Soderburg, preparing to return to school.

A visit to her old home town of Springfield was the pleasant weekend trip for Peggy and Bill Maher of 2305 Park st. last week. The happy trip was completely filled with seeing old friends and relatives and was highlighted by a trip to the Illinois State Fair. The Mahers also saw the state capitol while there. While in Springfield they visited Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, relatives who live in that city.

It was a Centennial celebration which brought Vee Lee and her children, Bruce and Karen, to Gilman, Ill., for 4 days last week. The visit in Gilman was spent at the home of Vee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hartley. Since Gilman is Vee's hometown the brief trip afforded an opportunity for many visits with old friends and classmates. The Lees' home in Rolling Meadows is located at 2309 School drive.

Another hometown visit has just been enjoyed by Marion Birt and her children, Barbara and Chuckie of 2307 Campbell st. While Floyd Birt was busy making 2 trips to California and to Florida (what a hard life!) in connection with his work in the naval air force, Marion and the children spent a pleasant visit in Wausau, Wis. The visit was divided between the homes of the children's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Utecht and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Birt.

It was a pleasant weekend trip for Norma and Perry Mann of 2608 Kirchhoff rd. this last week. Accompanied by their 2 lovely daughters, Patty and Marlene, Norma and Perry traveled to Streator, Ill. There they visited their friends, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Hunter.

The return from their vacation was almost as active as the vacation itself for Rev. Nelson and Nancy Ringsmuth of Park st. Less than 1 hour after their return from a tour of New England, the Ringsmuths were on their way to Bangs Lake to join the Junior Hi group in their splash party last week. Their eastern trip was highlighted by a wilderness trout fishing trip for Rev. Ringsmuth. While her husband was in the near-border area of Maine fishing, Nancy Ringsmuth and the children, Peter and Robin, stayed in the resort town of Ocean Park. The New England trip also featured a visit to their former parish in Hyannis, Mass., as well as a visit to Watertown, Mass. They also saw Nancy's sister in Haverhill, Mass., and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Cameron in Wilmington, Mass.

Although the illness of Mrs. Fluger's father cast a touch of sadness to the trip, Arlene and Howard Fluger, nevertheless, enjoyed their vacation recently spent in Dayton, Ohio. The Flugers were accompanied on the Ohio journey by their children, Shirley, 6, and Bill, 11. The Fluger home in Rolling Meadows is located at 2702 Sigwalt st.

A visit with their great-grandmother was the recent vacation treat for Pam and Pudgy Scheidler. Pam, 4, and Pudgy, 1½, spent a week with their mother at the home of their great-grandmother, Mrs. Mary Ward in Mendota, Ill. Dolores Scheidler and the children are now back at their home at 2309 Meadow drive.

A real vacation weekend has just been spent by Rolling Meadows only bridge club of record. The Sterlingworth hotel at Lauderdale Lake near Elkhorn, Wis., was the site chosen for the weekend outing. Pam and Lloyd Snell, Carl and Mary Schultze and Alice and Jean Farrell of Rolling Meadows, and their "fourth" at bridge Wally and Georgia Robinson of Palatine managed to play a "little bridge" in true card-player fashion during their weekend jaunt. Golfing and swimming were the main items on the agenda, however, making it a "perfect" weekend for all 4 couples.

Ed and Lois Wilhusen of 2311 Eastman st. have just returned from a vacation sojourn. The enjoyable holiday was spent at Twin Pin resort in Longville, Minn. Along on the trip were the Wilhusen's 2 sons, Eddy and Jerry, 5 years old. A highlight to the vacation was Eddy's sixth birthday, which was celebrated during the trip.

Edison Park was the "not-so-distant" vacation spot recently visited for 10 days by Linda Kitterman, but a trip to India couldn't have proved to be more enjoyable for an 8½ year old girl. Linda is the young daughter of Marge and George Kitterman of 2606 South st. Her vacation was spent at the home of an old friend of Marge's who has a son born on the same day as Linda. The 2 children enjoyed a trip to the Music Festival together, as well as other trips to Kiddieland and the movie "Davy Crockett," Linda's current ideal!

A happy ending was the result of the recent trip taken by Verdell and Esther Middleton of 2415 Jay lane. The serious illness of Esther's father brought the Middleton family to the home of her parents in Driscoll, N. D. Also visiting in Driscoll in the family emergency were Esther's 2 brothers from Portland, Ore., and her sister from Buffalo, Minn. Seeing his family so happily reunited is credited with the speedy recovery of Esther's father, the most pleasant ending they all could have wished for. Joining their parents for the visit to the grandparents' home were Sharon, 2, and Kevin, 4.

It was even hot in so-called "cool Wisconsin" is the report given by Art and Rosemarie Barber of 2502 Fremont st. on their return from their recent vacation. The Barbers with their young daughter, Kathy, spent a week in Waupaca, Wis., visiting friends. They arrived home last Monday to find lovely cool weather in this famous resort area of Rolling Meadows.

Charity Dance

If you see one of your Rolling Meadows feminine neighbors approaching you with a determined gleam in her eye, you had better reach for your wallet. She is undoubtedly a member of the Rolling Meadows Junior Womans club, and is probably clutching a ticket to the "Annual Autumn Sights Benefit." The benefit is a dance to be held Friday, September 30, at the Elmhurst Country club. The dance is sponsored by the entire 7th District Junior Woman's clubs, and is for the benefit of the Wheeling Braille school, the only class for blind children of northwest suburban Cook county. The dance promises to be a really outstanding affair. Tickets are $5 a couple, a really reasonable price for this top-flight affair. In charge of ticket sales in Rolling Meadows is Jacque Grady of 2808 Dove st. Ticket captains are Margaret Baumgart, 2309 Wing st.; Marge Brandt, 2501 Sigwalt st.; Ann Krajci, 2205 Park st.; Billie Traub, 2203 Heron court; and Marge Vreeland, 2107 South st.

Another Birthday

It was a birthday outing for Marge Schmidt of 2900 Dove st. for her birthday last week. Husband George Schmidt, took his wife "out" for the night last Friday for her birthday celebration.

Vacation Blight

Illness made the vacation trip of Bert and Betty Ivarson of 2405 School drive not quite the success they had hoped. Both Bert and baby, Billy, who is just about 1 year old, were ill during the trip the Ivarson family took to Merrimac, Wis. According to Betty, they couldn't be any happier to be back to their Rolling Meadows home.

Little League Parties

August 17, the White Sox Little League team had a wiener roast and outdoor movie at the home of John and Mickey Mazanet, 2310 Wing street. Manager All Haase and coaches Art Nyblin and John Manzanet presented each of the 12-year-old boys who are leaving the Little League with a league ball. The balls were all signed by their fellow teammates. The "graduating" boys were Wayne Wilkans, Danny Haase and Mike Considine. The boys of the White Sox team also presented their coaches and manager with a gift in appreciation of the great amount of time and effort they had spent with the boys. The simple statement "a good time was had by all" never was more appropriate as each of the members of the team will easily attest they really had the time of their lives at the outstanding affair.

When the Braves Little League team won the Rolling Meadows championship their sponsor Jim Service was so enthused he offered to "foot the bill" for a special outing for the boys and their families. The victory celebrating was held last Saturday in Deer Grove, not only to commemorate the boys' performance on the playing field but their outstanding conduct off the field as well. The Braves not only established themselves as playing champions this year, their food consumption record at the picnic must surely establish them as champions along that line as well. They managed to down 8 cases of pop as well as 12 dozen hot dogs (with only slight help from fathers and mothers!) The boys really had something to celebrate as their string of 14 consecutive victories in Little League competition should be one that will prove hard to beat in the future. The championship team members were Clifford Zeek, Bill McFeggan, Joey Wertheimer, Joey Locascio, Les McDonald, Tom Kedzie, Danny Nelson, Bud Smith, Kenny Peters, Roger Rumrey, James Kivi, Neal Christensen, Kenny Girard and Earl Young. Members of the families of all of the boys were on hand to help the boys celebrate at their picnic.

Another Little League party of a slightly different nature was held last Friday at the home of Grace "Pinky" Martin at 2801 Wilke rd. A post-game get-together was held by the Little League mothers who had so successfully played in the "Petticoat Classic" on the previous Sunday. I can personally attest, it will be a long time before Rolling Meadows sees a more successful or hilarious party. The uniqupe orange-passing game sent the party into literal hysterics, and the stories related by Lola Kolb, Evelyn "Muscles" Melnik, and Mary "Stinky" Rybak will be a long time in the forgetting. Star of the evening was Irene "Pumpkin Drawers" Nottke with her accordion who accompanied the women in the back-yard song fest which closed the evening. Tentative plans were laid for a bigger and better "Petticoat Classic" next year although the women found it difficult to picture a better game from a standpoint than had been played this year.

Community Church News

Congregational Meeting

Following the regular 9:30 morning service, the Congregational meeting of last week will be continued. All members of the church are urged to attend the important meeting which will deal with building plans of the church.

Diaconate Dinner

The Sunday school teachers and staff will be the guests of honor at the special "Diaconate Dinner" next Monday evening, August 29, at the barn. The dinner will be sponsored by the board of deacons and deaconnesses. The deaconnesses will prepare and serve the dinner, which features a menu of ham, candied sweet potatoes, salad, desert and other delicacies. The dinner, which will start at 7 p.m., is to honor both the old and new members of the hard-working Sunday school staff at the opening of a new school season.

Lucky Winner

Did you notice elsewhere in the paper the announcement that a Rolling Meadows had won the grand prize of the Mt. Prospect Lions club carnival? Grover and Claire Pryor of 2510 Robin lane are the proud and happy winners of a 1955 Buick 4-door Riviera! The lovely car, which is a two-tone yellow and black, features leather and nylon upholstery in red and black. The lucky winners won their top-prize on only $1 worth of chances which they purchased while the car was displayed at the 4-H Fair last week. Almost as excited as their parents (which is pretty excited you may well realize) are their children David, 18, Kathleen, 6½, and Michael, 2.

Medical Reports

It was August 17 when young Michael Hayden, 18 months old, swallowed rubbing alchol. The young son of Andy and "George" Hayden of 2706 Sigwalt street was immediately rushed by his mother to the doctor. The little boy had to undergo a stomach pumping which fortunately was prompt enough that he is recovering very well.

Another stomach-pumping operation was perfromed this past week on young Jeffrey Sharples, the young son of Wes and Irene Sharples of 2413 George st. It was thought Jeffrey had swallowed turpentine, but a prompt trip to the hospital in Elgin for the stomach-pumping operation proved the baby hadn't swallowed the danegrous material. The excitment was a form of final climax to their Rolling Meadows life for Wes and Irene, who are leaving Saturday for their old home in New Jersey, where Wes has been transferred. Wes and Irene, with their children Gail, Jeffrey and baby, Kenny will go by plane from Chicago to Newark. They will be staying for a brief time with Wes' parents in their country home where, according to Irene, there are real "hills and trees"—a rare sight in Rolling Meadows we admit. The Sharples' address for mail from their old friends will be Box 1116, R.D. 2, Parsippany, New Jersey.

Robert Sutton of Campbell street is back home! Mr. Sutton who spent several weeks in the West Side Veterans hospital in Chicago has recuperated very well from his leg operation and is now back at work. The family wants to thank their many friends and neighbors for their many cards and good wishes which were received during the hospital stay.

Police Magistrate Charlie McCormick can very emphatically give advice on diving in shallow water these days. Charlie, who lives at 2305 Campbell street, recently suffered a serious neck injury when he dove into shallow water while on a family picnic. A reminder of his swimming advice will be traveling with Charlie for about 6 weeks as that is the length of time he will be in a brace for his neck injury.

Visitors

Evelyn and George Mahoney recently returned from a visit to Oklahoma. The next best thing to bringiing the state home with them has happened, however. They entertained Evelyn's cousin, Gwen Ann Slover, last weekend. Miss Slover comes from Oklahoma City and managed to bring a taste of that wonderful state with her to the Mahoney home at 2404 Wing street.

Tuscaloosa, Alabama, is the home of the current visitors at the home of Richard and Pat Hofmann of 2708 George court. They are Pat's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Colburn and their two daughters'. The visit of Pat's sister has really turned into a "company bonanza" since all of the other family members from Chicago have kept the Hofmann doorbell busy with their visits to see the Colburns.

Mrs. Mildred Ryerson of 2309 Campbell street has had a welcome guest this past week. He is her nephew, Kenny, who is visiting here in Rolling Meadows from his home in Colorado. His is also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bishop who live next door to Mrs. Ryerson since Mrs. Bishop is his cousin.

Floyd and Marion Birt of Campbell street also have welcome guests in their home. They are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Weigand who are visiting in Rolling Meadows from Green Bay, Wisconsin, where Mr. Weigand is stationed with the navy. Bob and Floyd met while they were both stationed at Glenview naval air station. Accompanying their parents on their trip from Green Bay were the Weigand's children, Bruce, Bobby and Donna.

After a period of 8 years without seeing one another Marge Becker of 2703 Sigwalt street and Mrs. Ralph Sutkus of Montebello, Calif., held a reunion last week. Mr. and Mrs. Sutkus and their sons. Tommy and Jimmy, were luncheon guests of Marge and Harold Becker. The women at one time had worked together, but a move to California had separated them. You can well imagine how successful that luncheon proved to be with 8 years of experiences to catch up on!

Probably one of the most popular visitors ever to stay in Rolling Meadows is currently visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bill Maffey of 2402 Jay lane. "Uncle Charlie" Maffey makes his home in Queens County, Long Island, New York. He has been staying with the Maffey's since July 1. The Maffey's and their neighbors were saddened this week to hear "Uncle Charlie" is planning to leave Rolling Meadows about September 1. "Uncle Charlie" has made many friends in Rolling Meadows, especially amongst the children who will miss him greatly when he leaves.

Men's Bowling League

A second Rolling Meadows Men's Bowling league has been organized. It is a cooperative league with several teams from Rolling Meadows and some teams from Prospect Meadows, a combination which should promote good will throughout the 2 communities. Very unexpectedly the league has found they may have 4 additional alleys for their league and are opening membership to residents of the community. If you are interested in joining your neighbors for a weekly bowling session Wednesday nights at 9 p.m. at the new Beverly Bowling Lanes, you will be most welcome. A call to Bob Binnie at CLearbrook 5-1282 will bring you any further information you may desire.

Women's Associations Announces Programs

President Leona Gobeyn this week announced a full season of interesting programs to be presented by the Women's association of the Community church of Rolling Meadows. "A hearty welcome to attend these events is extended all women," she further stated.

Prepared through the efforts of program chairman Barbara Schneider and others, the first of the dates the Women's association hopes will be marked down to remember is September 8. "Your Voice is You" is the title of the program scheduled to be presented on that date through the cooperation of the Illinois Bell Telephone Co.

OTHER PROGRAMS have been set monthly as follows:

October - "Builders and Destroyers," a lecture by W. P. McDowell.

November - Toy show.

December - "The Romance of the Christmas Carol" with Dorothy Posey, narrator, and music by the church.

January - "Fur Facts" by I. Himel and Sons.

February - "Home Color Fashion Show" by the Martin-Senour Co.

March - Little theater presentation.

April - "It's Up to You" by Dorothy Posey, instructor on the staff of the Patricia Vance school of Charm and Modeling.

"We earnestly hope that as many ladies of Rolling Meadows as possible will be able to attend any or all of these programs which represent the best series we have ever presented," says publicity chairman Norma Mann. (R be welcomed back after a 2-month absence. An invitation is also extended to all newcomers wishing to join the choir to attend this initial rehearsal of the fall season.

A get acquainted period will follow the business of the evening and refreshments will be served. A permanent organist is urgently needed. Anyone interested in this salaried position should contact Don Hoppock, chairman of the music committee, CLearbrook 3-4924.

Per Capita Meat Consumption Up

Per capita meat consumption is expected to reach 158 pounds in 1955, reports National Live Stock Producer, the nation's leading live stock magazine.

This will be 3% above 1954 and the highest meat consumption on record for the past four decades.

Pork consumption will be up from 60 to 66 pounds per capita. Beef at 78 pounds will be slightly below the 79 pounds consumed last year which was an all-time high.

Veal consumption will remain at the 10 pound rate but lamb consumption will drop slightly from 4.5 to 4.2 pounds per capita.

Wilson Community News

Students of Wilson school will resume regular classes Thursday, September 1 at 9 a.m. Parents of first grade students are reminded that a complete report of physical examination and a birth certificate, not a hospital record, are required for each child beginning school.

Lunch period for all grades will be from noon to 1 p.m. Wilson school does not have facilities for a hot lunch program and lunches are carried by children who eat at school. The PTA sponsors a school milk program whereby fresh milk is delivered daily and is available at a low cost.

A fee of $6 for grades 1-4 and $6.50 for grades 5-8 is requested for book rental. This fee includes rental of texbooks and the furnishing of workbooks, paper and art materials by the school. In addition, upper grade students should own their own loose leaf notebooks, fillers and fountain pens. Book fees are payable Sept. 1.

New Wilson teachers will attend an orientation meeting at Feehanville school August 29, conducted by Miss Lucy E. Driscoll, assistant superintendent of Cook county schools. August 30 and 31 will bring the entire 1955-56 staff together for a building workshop. Assisting in the workshop will be Miss Driscoll, Mrs. Holloway, American Junior Red Cross, Miss Ruhrdanz, school nurse from Cook county department of public health and Mrs. Dever, Wilson PTA health chairman.

Howard Harvel has agreed to handle the transportation for Wilson school for the coming year. He will serve all children in the district. Fare is $3.50 per person per calendar month. There will be 2 buses with a schedule of 8:30 and 3:30 pickups. Children will be let out of school at 3:30 instead of 2:45 as in previous years.

Anyone desiring further information may call Mr. Harvel at CLearbrook 3-7002. (ACP

On-the-Job Accident Rate Decreasing

The good old days weren't as good as right now when it comes to work accidents.

The on-the-job accident rate for 1954 was the best on record, according to the 1955 edition of the national safety council's statistical yearbook, "Accident Facts," just off the press. It marked the eighth consecutive year in which the accident frequency rate of the Council's industrial members has come down.

The 1954 rate is less than a fourth of the 1926 rate.

In The Future

A purse consisting of a plastic pocket and a permanent magnet holds coins for the motorist passing through a series of toll stations ... A do-it-yourself captain's stool can be had for five dollars less than the same piece of furniture assembled ... A toy tool kit, suggested as a premium, has six tools made of plastic and steel .... Back-up lights, provided on many automobiles, may now be reinforced by back-up buzzers which make an angry noise when the car reverses direction.

News Of Prospect Meadows

Adam Altavatter estimates that he drank several gallons of water last week when he visited a number of homes where residents were alarmed at the cloudiness of the drinking water. He did this to prove that the unattractiveness of the water did not indicate pollution. This cloudy condition, quicklyremedied, was due to a jammed relief valve on well number 1.

Because of the inconvenience caused by this accident, Mr. Benjamin, of the Prospect Meadows Water Co., has offered to donate material for installation of a water fountain in the community park. More information on the progress of this undertaking will be printed in our next bulletin.

The many newly-black topped driveways recently installed in the Meadows reflect the spirit of constant improvement that exists in the community.

Vacations

Chris and Jack Pelletier and sons, Mark and Mike, returned Friday night from a week's vacation trip. They motored north through Wisconsin, travelling close to Lake Michigan and crossing the lake by ferry to St. Ignace. They spent a day at Mackinac Island and all enjoyed seeing the locks at Sault Ste. Marie. They went swimming at the beaches of 3 of the Great Lakes, Huron, Superior and Michigan, and stopped to visit the various state parks and other interesting sights along their route.

Gail and Millie Webber spent an 8-day vacation at Three Lakes, Wis., with their sons, Larry and Bob, and friends from Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Lyons. Bob put his father to shame by catching a 14" crappie with an old bamboo rod, while Gail sat hopelessly waiting for a bite on his brand new fly rod.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McNaughton and family have returned from a 2-week vacation in Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., visiting with John's family, his mother, Mrs. Otto Mc Naughton, and sister, Mrs. William Piedmont and 7 children, of New Haven, Conn. They enjoyed swimming and picnicing.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Rutkowski spent 4 days of their vacation visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sprick of Akron, Ohio, and the rest of their vacation visiting various places of interest in Chicago. A day at Riverview Park was a thrill to the youngsters, since it was their first visit to the amusement park.

Mrs. Jean Michaels enjoyed the company of 17-month-old Benjamin Beasley, who spent a week with her while Mrs. Beasley, a mutual friend of the family, spent a week in the hospital recuperating from an operation. Jean's 3 children enjoyed the little fellow's antics with delight.

Entertainment

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Halabrin entertained Mr. and Mrs. Art Hedges and 2 children, Jimmy and Trina, of Lima, Ohio, last week at dinner. Also included were Mr. and Mrs. L. Mc Ewin and daughter, Susan, of Elgin. This was a reunion of buddies who served in World War II with Dick.

Lorrie and Chuck Brazeau had an outdoor supper for Mr. and Mrs. S. Sabitt and daughters, Myra and Janice, of Prospect Heights last Saturday evening.

Maxine Myslinski's mother, Mrs. Elcye Simmons, has decided to make her home in this area. She will leave Saturday via TWA airlines for Redwood City to make disposition of belongings in her previous residence. She hopes to accomplish this in 2 or 3 weeks and will then return for permanent settlement in Prospect Meadows.

Convalescing

Mrs. Charles Leichsenring would like to express her gratitude for all the heartening cards, letters and other messages she received during the course of her recent illness. Mrs. Leichsenring is now home after a stay of more than a month at St. Francis hospital, a good deal of which time she spent in an oxygen tent. Needless to say, everyone is delighted at her recovery and happy to see her home again.

Birthday

It was a surprise party for Rickey Susan Halabrin last Thursday when her godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith and their sons, David and Michael of Mt. Prospect, dropped in unexpectedly to help her celebrate her second birthday. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Art Mumm, Mr. and Mrs. E. Mikolasek, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kadra and son, Richard, of Chicago, as well as Rickey's sister, Heidi, Mr. and Mrs. Ulan and Mr. and Mrs. C. Rutkowski.

Sympathy

Sincere sympathy is extended to Don Finch whose father died last Friday.

Chit Chat

There was a big celebration at the Manda residence on Bob-O-Link Sunday when a group of friends surprised Irving by coming out for his birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Manda of St. Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blair and family of Lombard Heights, Joseph Liss of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. E. Manda and family of Chicago, John Tobias and his mother of Chicago, Emil Starcevich and family of Evergreen Park, Mrs. Mary Mayes and mother of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schwartz of Roselle.

A wonderful time was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Irving Manda and their guests, and all enjoyed the birthday cake.

Olga and Paul Goodwin have sold their home and will soon be leaving the Meadows. Neighbors and friends will be sorry to see them go. The Goodwins have been doing a lot of entertaining lately in order to have one last get-together with their many friends in the Meadows. Last Saturday evening 37 couples bid their farewells at a gala affair in the Goodwin's balloon-decorated garage. Don Hanlon, of Chicago, whose friendship with Paul goes back to the days when they attended high school together, acted as bartender for the evening. Wonderful refreshments were served, and in spite of sad farewells, everyone managed to have a marvlous time.

Ray and Nora Roths and sons, Ray Jr. and Marty, new residents of 607 Bob-O-Link enjoyed the company of Ray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Roths of Detroit last weekend. Saturday the 2 families drove to Milwaukee to spend the day visiting the home of other relatives there.

Anne and Vic Incinelli were the lucky winners of an aluminum folding chair Sunday night at the Mt. Prospect Lions Carnival.

Stan Polly's grand opening of his service station at Rt. 83 and Foundry rd. last weekend was a huge success, and he wishes to thank all in the community for their cooperation and patronage. Fruit juice decanters were given away to all customers, as well as toys and candies for the children. Several prizes were given and a power mower was won by Walter Vartanian of Bunting Lane.

Your reporter for this week was Lorraine Brazeau.

YMC To Hold Annual Corn Roast August 26

Young Married Couples club of the Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights will hold its annual corn roast August 26 at 6:45 p.m. at Lake Avenue Woods west.

Hosts for the affair, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Carlson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schultz, promise all the corn even the man with the heftiest appetite can eat.

Those who attend are to bring their own meat and buns and a dish to share. They are invited to call the Schultzes or the Carlsons for potluck arangements.

Wayside Ushers Club Plans Late Summer Outdoor Dance

"A Night under the Stars" will be staged for members and friends of Our Lady of the Wayside parish, Arlington Heights, Saturday evening by the Ushers club of the parish, President Oreste Tomei of the club announced this week.

A cabaret dance, featuring the music of the Melodeers, "A Night under the Stars" will be held on the outdoor pavilion of the parish, at 8 p.m. Tables will be grouped around the specially prepared surface of the dance area and suspended lanterns will illuminate the festivities.

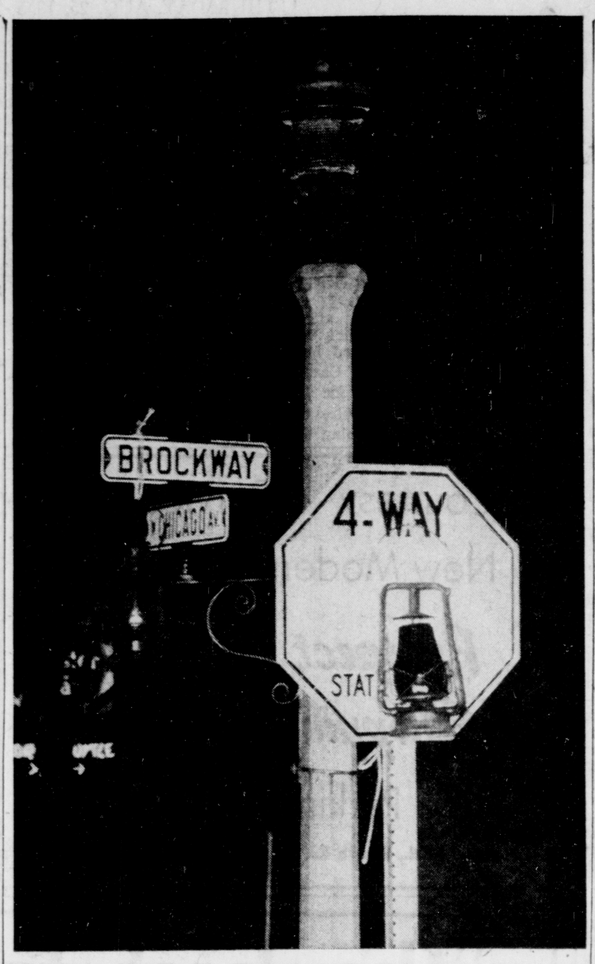

Among the entertainers will be members of the Arlington Heights Barber Shop chorus and the Barbershop quartet. This group sang at the Chicagoland Music Festival at Soldier Field last Saturday, joining in with a chorus of 300 barbershoppers.

Games and refreshments will be provided for this party, the first event on the parish social calendar for the 1955-56 season.

"A Night under the Stars" is the annual affair planned and run by the 32 men of the parish who comprise the club. Each year these men, who serve the parish at all Sunday morning masses and on feast days, invite their fellow parishioners to join them in an evening of fun and friendship. This year's late summer outdoor dance is the most elaborate and ambitious enterprise yet undertaken by the Ushers club according to its members. It also promises to be the best.

Assisting Tomei in the arrangements are John Baker and Dr. John Heinz, entertainment; James Howard, James Clark, Walter Schroeder, Joseph Grant, Joseph Bodor, and John Lagorio, tickets; Thomas Cain and Carmen Duro, decorations; Theodore Koenig, Harry Hubbell, Michael McDonald, John Sullivan, William Wysocki, Robert Pagliai, Paul Barnes, Richard Drolet, Robert Kreutz, and Robert Deibel, games; Herbert Sanders, William Hickey, John Solon, John Bakalar, and Robert Geldeman, refreshments; Robert Stauder, Robert Taylor, and Eugene Stoik, parking; Matthew Brost, William McNeil, and John Barrett, general.

The past is clear as a mirrow, the future as hard as lacquer.

Brockway street, Palatine, is dark and lonely after the midnight hour. Half of the ornamental street lights in the business section have failed to shine the past six weeks. As an experiment, a reporter for Paddock Publications tested the use of old time barn lanterns Monday night. They gave such little light that he and the photographer decided they weren't much better than the street lamps that are out of commission.

Fifty years ago they were used to light the way of the farmer to milk his cows. They are only a relic today, but they have served well if the publication of this picture brings about the rejuvenation of those non-operating street lights. —Staff Photo

From the Police Blotter . . .

A resident in the 400 block on south Vail reported to police August 15 that several boys were stripping a car on that block. The boys had disappeared by the time the police arrived.

Earlier that evening Ray Wiltgen, 112 E. Northwest hwy., Arlington Heights, reported to police that an outside rear vision mirror had been taken off his auto while it was parked at Dunton and Campbell.

Two Rolling Meadows lads, 9 and 12, were picked up in a local store, the older being accused of shoplifting. No complaint was signed but the boys were turned over to their parents for punishment.

A car parked too close to the railroad tracks in one of the railroad parking lots had to be moved by a tow truck, as passing trains were just brushing the bumpers.

Six garbage can covers were found strewn on a lawn on Mayfair rd. in Scarsdale and were recovered by police.

Rodney Himes, Barrington, reported to police that his 1953 Harley Davidson motorcycle was stolen from the Arlington Theatre parking lot sometime between 8:30 and 11:15 p.m., August 20.

A man on S. Dunton was arrested for dumping garbage on vacant property at State and Central. Police were called to the scene because of offensive odors from burning garbage and found a letter addressed to the man in a partially burned bag of garbage.

Vandalism was reported at a new home under construction at the corner of Mayfair and Stratford. Fifteen windows were broken and tar was smeared on the new plaster. The home is being constructed by Art Jacobs.

A local police officer was called to a home in the 800 block on W. Campbell to shoot a rat in a window well. It weighed 3 pounds. (Mighty Mouse?)

Ike and Russians Take Back Seat To Conference On Pitcher's Mound

Geneva had nothing on baseball. Neither did Teheran, Quebec, Yalta, Potsdam, Casablanca and the rest of those "summit" deals over, says The Sporting News.

Everybody talks it over on the diamond today. Baseball has gained a new profundity, with deep-thinking and debate proceding such old-fashioned stuff as hits and double plays.

Maybe that's why the magnates are buying up all those bright young bonus fellows out of college. They don't play, but they can sit there on the bench and rationalize the opposing home run hitter.

Anyway, the national pastime nowadays is seldom presented without a script. The field often resembles another great American scene, July Fourth on the village green with somebody rendering an oration.

THE ONLY SUMMIT on the diamond is the pitcher's mound, but it isn't the only rostrum. Speechifying happens anywhere, anywhere within view of the TV camera. Ike and the Russians didn't do it any better than a third base coach telling a hitter the bunt was on, in 500 words.

Harry Walker, Cards' manager, impresses as baseball's premier Geneva type. You can sense from the slow, deliberate march of Harry from dugout to the summit that he is using Phi Beta Kappa keys for brain cogs. You know there is a lot of weight behind his words when he asks the pitcher, "How are you feeling?"

This is quite a contrast to another manager the Cards had—Billy Southworth. He ran whever he went and so did his players, and they won three straight pennants. But a Southworth is dated in today's game—too impetuous.

JOE McCARTHY wouldn't do in today's TV game, either. Strictly an antique! Yankee Joe would manage an entire season—and win—without ever showing on the field.

Burt Shotton is another example of the wrong technique. Burt didn't even put on a monkey suit, much less bow to the television cameras, but he won two out of two in his two full seasons at Brooklyn.

Sometimes it seems as if any well-known slugger who comes to bat with a runner on base must look like a guy who just dropped in from outer space.

THE CATCHER never saw this guy before because he goes out to the summit to describe him to the pitcher. By this time the manager is worried. He has inspected the visitor from Saturn's Rings and decided he looks vaguely like somebody he met only yesterday, but he doesn't know where. So he goes out to the summit, to find out what the catcher and pitcher know. That makes it urgent and the infielders rally round. The outfielders edge in, awaiting a summons, but by this time the huddle has decided the guy looks like Kluszewski and so the pitcher might as well quit worrying and trust to luck.

However, at this point, the harried plate umpire approaches and politely murmurs: "Let's shake it up, boys. After all it's the same old game. You've been pitching to this fellow for the last five years."

THE MANAGER is hurt and indignant. He snaps at the ump: "Can't you see I'm in conference with my ball players? You got no business here."

The ump hasn't any business there, so he wanders around the group on the mound as if he is playing drop the handkerchief.

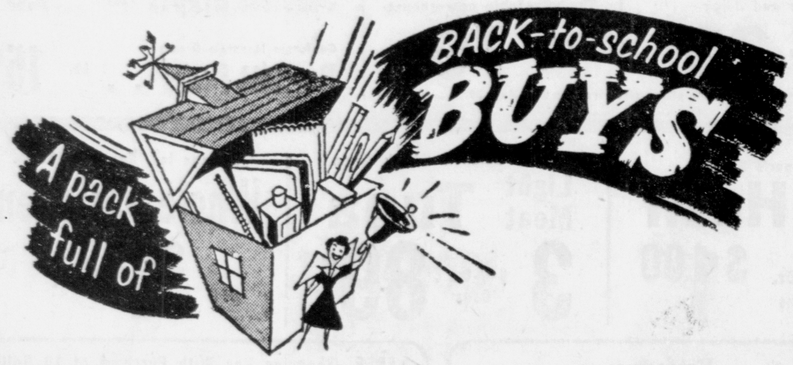

After all this, Kluszewski hits a homer and the pitcher knows he was right in the first place and asks the player representative to put the manager on the grievance report.

In 1626 Peter Minuit purchased Manhattan island from the Indians for trinkets worth about $24.

It's a boy for Marge and Jim Baker of 1174 N. Beverley. William Edward was born August 20 in Resurrection hospital and weighed 6 pounds. Jim is playing a dual role this week by staying home and taking care of 5 year old David and the house. However, his burden was lightened Tuesday when Marge's mother, Mrs. C. R. Cooper, came in from Toledo, O., to give a helping hand.

Esther and Ben Lockhart of 606 Clarendon are announcing the birth of their second daughter who arrived August 22. The new baby, who has not as yet been named, weighed 6 pounds 8½ ounces when she put in her appearance at Resurrection hospital. Esther's mother, Mrs. McPhillips, who is here from Detroit, is caring for the new baby's "big sister," Peggy, who is a little over a year old. Marge and Esther are getting acquainted for the first time—it was bound to happen—2 gals from the Greens who had the same doctor, are in the same hospital at the same time for the same reason!

Baby Shower

Dene Bosso was guest of honor Monday night at a stork shower given for her by Eileen Bludeau of 811 Olive st. Diapers, rattles and safety pins were hung at vantage points so no one would have any doubt that this was a baby shower. Ever the centerpiece was 2 bassinettes filled with flowers. Dene received a very useful gift, a gift certificate from Marshall Fields with which to buy something of her own choosing. Guests who enjoyed cake and coffee at Eileen's besides Dene and her mother were Ann Freund, Mary Brandt, Lorraine Loos, Vi Zaborowski, Maryn Johnson, Jean Cooney, Dorothy Kalkhoff, Rosemary Buttstadt, Ruth Epsky and Shirley Willy.

Another Goodbye

Kay and Bill Baer have sold their house at 1184 Beverley and will soon be moving to Rockford. Bill is employed by the Samuel Harris Co. as a sales man of industrial supplies and has been stansferred to the Rockford territory. The Baers have 1 child, Curtis, who is 4 years old. Neighbors are sorry to see them leave, but wish them lots of luck in Rockford.

Girl Scouts

A girl scout leader for girls 10 years old and above is urgently needed. All girls are from the Greens and are eager to begin their activities in September but the absence of a leader presents a problem. Anyone interested in applying for this worthwhile activity is asked to phone Marian Born, at Clearbrook 3-0876.

Birthday Party

In the afternoon she invited Kathy Braun, Pamlie and Pam Hembd, Barbara Horner, Kathy and Kent McNamara and Danny Gory to her house for ice cream and cake, and in the evening her relatives came to wish her happy birthday and have another party.

Visitors Coming and Going

Peggy Sterner and her children, Kenneth, 8½, Kathy, 5, and Donny, who is only 3 months, traveled by train to Detroit to visit Peggy's folks, Mr. and Mrs. George Burton for 1 week which went by much too quickly.

Agnes and Charles Barnes have and a steady stream of company from the east all summer, but they love it. The Barnes are now entertaining Mrs. Cunningham and her granddaughter, Donna May Cunningham, who flew here from Nutley, N. J.

Kathleen Shannon, 8-year-old daughter of Terry and Leslie Shannon, had a nice little vacation for herself when she spent 3 days at Crystal Lake, visiting her girl friend, Donna Jean Schnell, and Donna's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Schnell.

Susan Dettloff, daughter of Lorraine and Erwin Dettloff, is happy to be home again after spending her first long vacation away from home. Susan and her girl friend vacationed at Camp Lucerne in Warsaw, Ind., for 12 days and enjoyed the novelty of living in cabins and sleeping in bunk beds. Susan was home only a couple of days before she started traveling again, this time with her mother and father. The family took a trip to Souix City, Ia., to visit Lorraine's folks.

Pauline and Don McNamara and their children, Kathy and Kent, just returned home from their vacation in New Richmond, Wis., which is Don's home town. While Pauline and Don were busy renewing old acquaintances, Kathy and Kent were meeting some of their cousins for the first time. Althoukh the McNamaras were gone only 1 week it was very busy and enjoyable one.

Due to pressing family matters, Ed Brookhouzen tendered his resignation as a member of the board of education at a special meeting last Thursday. He said "I regret the necessity for this action on my part, but as soon as possible I will try to resume my participation in community affairs."

John Nowicki of Marcella road and Carl Bischof of Anita ave. were appointed to fill the vacancies left by E. Brookhouzen and K. Karnuth and will serve until the annual election.

School board wishes to express its appreciation to Mrs. Mae Campbell on Morrison ave., who donated her piano to the school last Sunday.

On registration day, September 1, (10 a.m. to 3 p.m.) there will be provided forms for dental and physical examinations. Any child living within the district who will be 6 years of age by December 31 will be eligible for attendance.

Plans call for the completion of the building by August 29, and hot lunches are scheduled to start on the first day of school, September 6.

Bus routings this year will be as follows: First bus begins pickup at 8:25 a.m. at Alton and McDonald, and will proceed from Alton to Edward, Edward to McDonald, McDonald to Wolf, Wolf to Euclid, Euclid to River rd., River rd. to Foundry, Foundry to Rand, Rand to Central, Central to Westgate, Westgate to Meadow Lane, Meadow Lane to Central, Central to Wolf, Wolf to Foundry and from there to the school.

The second bus begins pickup at 8:30 a.m. at Kleeman's store on Foundry road, from there to Lee, Lee to Hill, Hill to Graylynn, Graylynn to Woodland, Woodland to Foundry and from there to the school.

Mrs. Charlotte Soderlund, music teacher, will hold regular music classes every Wednesday morning throughout the school year. Mrs. Marlene Haspiel is again scheduled to be the speech correctionist.

August 29 Miss Lucy Driscoll, assistant county superintendent of schools, will hold a pre-school, all day teachers' meeting at Feehanville school. Approximately 30 teachers from nearby districts will attend. Feehanville will act as hosts in order to show off the new school.

Last Thursday there was a meeting of various chairmen at the home of Mrs. Betty Flink, president of the Feehanville PTA. Under discussion were plans for the yearbook, this coming year's program, and ideas for next year's fun fair. Included among those present were Red Bischof, program chairman; Ruth Bischof, ways and means chairman; Bonnie Nowicki of the membership and hospitality committees; Idyl Nipper, parliamentarian and I. A. Hanson, publicity.

Mrs. Agnes Phares has accepted the appointment of chairman of the child health conference, held the third Tuesday of each month at the Forest River community hall.

A letter has been received from Miss Lois Rudd. She expressed her interest in her former pupils and the brownies and said she is planning to teach school in California, where she is now living.

Fire Department

Roman Anderson, trustee of the Forest River volunteer fire department, has asked that a plea be made for more daytime firemen — men who are now working nights and would be available for daytime calls. They can receive their training in the use of the fire truck, inhalator and other equipment on Saturday afternoons and will not be required to attend the regular business meetings of the fire department which are held at 8 p.m., first and third Thursdays of the month at the community hall.

Civic Association

A committee of 8 has been appointed by the board of directors of the Forest River Home Owners Civic association to plan the annual fall festival. Jules Miske, Jeanne Duncanson, Betty Arkell, I. A. Hanson and James Brewer of the committee met with Charles Badalamenti, president of the association, and Roman Anderson, director at the community hall last Monday to organize and make tentative plans. The date for the festival is set for November 19, and the next meeting of the committee will be September 19. Members who were not able to attend this meeting were Lu Zeravich, Richard Henning and John Snelton.

Teenagers

Election of officers will be the main business at the next meeting of the teenagers, the third week in September. The business meeting will start promptly at 7:30 with the social following. The teenage club is starting their second year, and all teenagers, 13 to 19 inclusive, are urged to come to this meeting and add the weight of their opinions to the great plans being made for the coming year. Dancing, more and more games and a snack bar are among the plans being made for the year ahead. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Phar and one other couple will be attending the meetings as chaperones.

Teenagers are planning a pot luck supper to be held at the community house for September 3. This will be a family affair, and every family in the community is invited. The price of attendance is a covered dish containing a specialty of the lady of the house — potato salad, baked beans, tuna or chicken salad, jello molds, stew, meat loaf, cake, cookies — the choice of what to bring is unlimited, and is the secret of the popularity of these pot luck suppers. Weather permitting, supper will be served outdoors at 6:30 p.m. and coffee and soft drinks will be available.

Forest River Church

Sunday school picnic Saturday can be called an annual success. The Sunday school provided the hot dogs, ice cream and soda pop, and the families attending brought the balance of the menu (and what a mouth-watering menu!) for a pot luck supper. Victory went to the married men this year in the hotly contested baseball game, married men vs. single men. Winners in the races and hilarious contests were Tommy Kramer, who won the pre-school 25 yard dash; Johnny Alexander, who won the junior ball throw and 25 yard dash. Linda Tully and Donna Jean Murphy were winners of the girls' wheelbarrow race, and Larry Bischof and George Grossi of the boys' wheelbarrow race. Buster Levine and Allen McManaway won the boys' 3-legged race, and Cinday Shimmin and Candy Lou Deering won the girls' 3-legged race. The peanut races were won by Cinday Shimmin and George Grossi, the leap frog race by Janet Sandquist and Bonnie LeVine. Larry Bischof won the 100-yard dash. The pie-eating contests were won by Marlene Olson and Phil Roos, the balloon races by Elaine Hanson and John Hanson. The men's pie eating contest was won by Fred Kramer. Mrs. Cynthia Martens won the 25-yard shoe race, Mr. and Mrs. Red Bischof won the bottle race, Richard Roos won the needle threading contest and Mrs. Ruth LeVine won the tire changing contest.

There was a little social period after prayer meeting last Thursday night at the church in celebration of Miss Jean Dick's birthday. Refreshments were served, and she received several lovely gifts.

Community News

Gerald Smith of Westgate rd. is leaving for California September 10 or 11. He will be attending school there.

Kay Phar is having a well-earned vacation, visiting with a friend on a farm near Quincy. She kept house for 7 weeks while her mother attended summer school and still another week while her mother was on a week's trip to the west.

Mrs. Roberta Phar completed her summer course and took a plane that evening to Colorado Springs where she joined Miss Ruth Smith, who had been traveling in the west with 3 friends. After Mrs. Phar joined the party, they went up to Pike's peak and visited all the caverns around Denver and Colorado Springs and did a lot of other sight seeing.

Bill Phar is entertaining two house guests this week, Allen Fink of Canton, Ohio, who came last Thursday and is going to stay a week, and Roger Seatman of Schiller Park, who is visiting with him several days.

George Grossi is back from his vacation — he spent 2 weeks at the YMCA camp in Kroehler, near Hayward, Wis., and one week with his grandmother and grandfather in Manitowish, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hartwig and the children, Paul, Janet, and Jeffry, and the dalmatian pup, Speck, are back from their vacation in Sister Bay, Door county, Wis. They visited the children's great-grandmother, and they had a fine time swimming and good luck fishing.

Birthday greetings this week go to Stephen Milz, who was 11 on the 20th; Judy Campbell, who was 3 on the 21st; John Erickson, who was 10 on the 22nd; George Grossi, who is 11 today, and Carl Kurt, who is 10 today.

Farm People Are Asking

by JULIUS BERMAN

N W district manager
Social Security Administration

A farm owner who arranges with someone to produce a crop or livestock on his land for a percentage share of the total crops produced does not get social security credit for that income. As I mentioned in my preceding article, his share of the crop is considered rental income and is excluded.

A farm business partnership, however, is another matter. If you have a farm and enter into a business partnership or a joint venture with someone to operate it jointly, both of you are self-employed, just as partners in a non-farm enterprise operated for profit. In these cases each partner makes a report of his share of net earnings separately as a self-employed person, for social security purposes, and pays the self-employment tax on that share.

GENERAL FEATURES of any partnership are that each of the partners contributes in some way as agreed upon to the operation of the business. If there are losses, each will bear a share. Profits are also shared. Moreover, the partners are individually and jointly responsible for the debts of the partnership. A partnership is indicated if the parties hold themselves out as partners by using a partnership name in their dealings with others, have a joint bank account, etc. Generally each member of a farm partnership would take part in making decisions regarding the management and control of the farm operations. They let everyone know they are operating the farm together. They each take part in the daily work connected with the operation of the farm and supervise the daily work of the farm hands.

It is possible, too, for a husband and wife to operate a farm as business partners, in which event, both would be self-employed for social security purposes. In the usual family farm arrangement, however, one party—usually the husband—has the actual management and control of the farm. In these cases, he, not his wife, is the self-employed farmer, and the net earnings from the farm operation should be reported in his name alone for social security purposes.

BY THE SAME token, a father and his child may enter into an arrangement whereby they are actually partners or joint venturers in the farm operation. In that event, both of them would be considered self-employed, and each would report his share of the net earnings and pay the social security tax on that share. However, if they are not partners and one of them owns the land but does not take part in operating it, only the one who actually farms the land is self-employed.

There are other family arrangements in relation to social security coverage for farm work. I shall discuss them in my next article.

Young Illinois Folk Visiting In Foreign Countries

Illinois is taking an active role in foreign affairs again this year.

Five of her rural young people are "Grass-Roots Ambassadors" — 4-H Club members who will live for the next few months with farm families in foreign countries as International Farm Youth Exchange delegates.

These young people are Raymond E. Koontz, of Clay county, assigned to Pakistan: Alice Ann Schorfheide, Washington county, assigned to India; Natalie Wiggers, Logan County, assigned to the Phillippines; Richard E. Bell DeWitt County, assigned to Indonesia; and Loraine Hoffman, Taxewell county, assigned to the Netherlands.

Under the IFYE program, selected rural youth from the U. S. participate in home, farm and countries for four to six months. Rural young people from these countries also come to live with American farm families.

Before leaving the country, the Illinois ambassadors attended an orientation program in Washington, D. C. The program included discussions on understanding people, world agriculture, trade, U. S. foreign policy and the American way of life.

The group will return home about the first of next year. (4-H

PADDOCK PUBLICATIONS

Football Practice To Open At High Schools Next Week

THURSDAY, AUG. 25, 1955

This is the fourth of a series of columns about golf courses within the area served by Paddock Publications.

LAST FRIDAY MORNING we played Mohawk golf course at Bensenville and had an interesting interview with Les Harber, general manager. Harber, who was one of Bensenville's best high school golfers of all time, works for the Branigar organization specializing in real estate. They own White Pines 36 hole course as well as Mohawk, and the Gulf Hills dude ranch at Ocean Springs, Mississippi. Branigars bought Mohawk in 1945 and under their ownership, and management of Harber, the club has become one of the most popular in the suburbs.

One of the reasons Mohawk, located on Irving Park boulevard one-half mile west of Bensenville, has such heavy play is that the management has such a range of fees for play at different hours of the day.

On week days Mohawk charges $2.00 with a reduction to $1.50 after 4:00 p. m. On Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, there are four rates. Before 6:30 a. m. the rate is $2.50. From 6:30 to 2:00 p. m. $3.25 is charged. From two to four the rate is $2.50 and after 4:00 it drops to $1.75. This tends to spread the play and prevent excessive crowding at any one period.

LIKE MOST COURSES in the Paddock area Mohawk was constructed in 1927 as a private club, but sold out in 1940 as a result of financial problems built up through the depression thirties. It has been a daily fee course ever since and has an open club house the year round for parties, wedding receptions, special dinners, etc. The club has dining facilities for 300 and a new bar and cocktail lounge will be installed soon. The club house has locker and shower facilities.

Harber stated the biggest problem in operating a daily fee course is to keep good tees. New ones are going to be built at Mohawk at the end of this season.

Play is so heavy there is little chance to work on them during the season. Harber was of the opinion number 18 was the most sporty hole on the layout with a water hazard, a sloping well trapped green, and plenty of trees. Eighteen is a par 3 hole 170 yards in length.

HARBER RATED THE number 4 hole a par 4 of 443 yards as the toughest hole on the course to par. In addition to length the hole has thick trees on the left and a line of poplars on the right. We know what he meant as we hooked behind the trees on the left and hit out across the fairway on an angle. We had to approach from 20 yards behind a poplar which we luckily escaped with an eight iron and after all this scrambling and luck got a five. Our son got an easy four on the hole and beat us, 43 to 44 on the front nine.

On the back nine the yardage seemed short or we were hitting the ball better, for we got eight pars and a three putt bogey on the final hole for a 36 and a 80 total to our opponent's 84. That was the best nine and the second best 18 this 15 handicap player has ever shot so you can realize why we like Mohawk.

The course has a 73 par with 38-35 nines, has almost no rough but lots of trees and bushes, plenty of traps and bunkers, flat fairways, greens which putt well and vary in size and shape, and plenty of yardage for the player who likes to use his woods. The first nine has 4 par 5 holes. The yardage is 3495 and 2872 for 6,331, a good length course particularly for a daily fee. The course record is 65.

MOHAWK HAS 12 TWI-LIGHT LEAGUES, but most of them number about 24 to 36 persons so there is no slow up on twi-light golf for others. Harber is also in charge of Westward Ho, which was this year leased to Branigar company by Automatic Electric company, who will build a plant on it next year and eliminate the course.

Harber played number 1 man on Bensenville high school golf team in 1940-44 when John Kirby was coaching the Bisons. In his senior year the Bisons lost only to New Trier. Other top Bison golfers of that era were Lawrence Geils, George Gutnick, Delbert Mahler, and Frank Pesch.

Bensenville high has Mohawk as their home course and two of their team members, Arthur Von Werder and Don Wiess work at the course in the summer. Harber started caddying at White Pines and has been connected directly with golf ever since. Lou Esposito is pro at both Mohawk and White Pines, and gives lessons by appointment at both courses.

NEXT WEEK — OLD ORCHARD

Palatine High Grid Candidates To Show Monday

Palatine's Pirates, the best defensive team in the Northwest Conference in 1954 and strong second place outfit, will launch their '55 football campaign Monday, August 29, at 9 a.m. with an afternoon practice also on the docket.

Head coach Charley Feutz has lost 3 All-Conference performers from last fall's once-beaten squad in end Douglas Hildebrandt, center Tom Hillesheim, and back Allan Eck, but the prospects are still very good for strong teams at all levels, particularly the varsity. The Pirates' only defeat was a 7-0 decision to Glenbrook, the conference champion. In the locals' 7 league tilts only 4 opponents managed to score with Grayslake's 9 points in an 18-9 loss representing the most productive offense against the Palatine defensive unit.

FORMING the nucleus of this year's team will be backs John Dilks, Bob Coates, Steve Cornwell, Jim Hess, and John Grabowy, a defensive specialist; tackles Leonard Rhode and Bill Thompson; guards Elwin Knutson and Bob Kozy and center Bill Brock. Probable flankers include Jeff Lehman and Carl Bondeson. Palatine's last Northwest Conference championship was in 1952 when they won 5 games and dropped 1.

Assisting Feutz with the varsity will be "Gene" Moyland who will be in charge of the line. Claude Bailey assisted by John Ellis will handle the sophomore squad. Art Zimmer assisted by Dean Harshbarger will prepare the freshman for their high school opener at home with Crystal Lake, September 20. Complete schedules will be published at a later date.

Bisons Aim To Improve 1954 Finish

Head coach Tom Menequin and his Bensenville Bisons—Varsity and Frosh-Soph—will open their football campaign Monday, August 29, at 2:30 p.m. with an optimistic outlook for the 1955 season.

Finishing in a tie for sixth in the '54 standings, the Bisons won only 1 conference game. With 17 of 23 boys back the Bensenville team is hoping for a good season with the first obstacle, September 17, against the Leyden JV's.

The Bisons haven't finished in the "first division" of the Northwest Conference since 1948 when they finished second behind the Barrington powerhouse.

Making up the coaching staff at Bensenville High for the fall campaign will be Menequin, Frank Novotney, Paul Henry, Glen Van Proyan, and Bill Jankheer with another coach due to join the staff next week.

Cross Country Call At Arlington High

First call for cross country at Arlington Heights high school has been issued by coach Russ Attis. Candidates are asked to report Monday morning, August 29, at 10 o'clock, at the track just north of the high school.

Cross country workouts have always started second week of school in previous years. This time Attis has issued the earlier call to coincide with start of football practice.

Cross Country

A seven-meet schedule has been announced for the Northern Illinois state cross-country team. The Huskies will open their season at home with a dual meet against Eastern Illinois state college on October 8.

The champion and runners-up in the Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournament at Arlington Country Club, August 21, pose with the first place trophy and dozen golf balls for low individual net. Mt. Prospect Lions won the 1955 tourney with Murphy Insurance and Mt. Prospect State Bank tying for second, the latter getting the second place medals by the flip of a coin.

Mt. Prospect Lions Win Paddock Golf Tournament

The Mt. Prospect Lions' foursome of Bob Hornbostel, Elmer Walters, Robert Salzman, and Harry Patton stroked their way over the 6132 yard Arlington Country Club course in 284 Sunday to capture the 1955 Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournament.

Maintaining a commanding lead throughout the afternoon's play, the Lions representing the Monday night league, won the tourney by 14 strokes over runner-ups Mt. Prospect State Bank and Murphy Insurance. After the 9 hole totals were turned in, the Lions held an 8 stroke advantage with 144.

Individually, the victors were graced with some terrific clutch golf by players with handicaps ranging from 11 to 26. Low gross for the '55 champions was Hornbostel with a 79 while Salzman carded an 84. With 11 and 18 handicaps respectively, this pair walked off with the individual honors, Salzman taking the dozen golf balls with his net 66. Hornbostel won low net honors in the '54 affair with a 71 playing for Mt. Prospect Hardware. Elmer Walters, a 13 handicap golfer, toured the par 71 course in 87-13-74, and Harry Patton, possessor of a 26 handicap for the tourney, fired 102-26-76.

MAKING UP the 2 runner-up foursomes were Wayne Rolfs, James Murphy, William Bueltman, and Frank Cowan for Murphy Insurance and Jim Driscoll, Vernon Barber, Dave Nicol, and Albert Barco for Mt. Prospect State Bank. Rolfs, a member of Arlington High's conference golf champions, carded a net 72 with 2 handicap, and Bueltmann made good use of his 15 handicap, covering the first 9 in 44, then finishing up in 42 for a net 71. Barber's 70 with the aid of a 22 handicap, sparked the Bankers' 298.

The talented foursome that teed off first in the tournament practically all lived up to expectations. Dan Musser, State & Rand Service, carded a 39-39-78 with a zero handicap and the other "O" performer, Len Arnold, representing Webber Paint, went 1-under for the front 9 with a 35, then evened up with a 1-over 36 on the second 9 for a par 71. Wayne Rolfs turned in the aforementioned 76, just missing a hole-in-one on the 190 yard 16th, but the fourth member, Glenn Rolof, Rendezvous Cabin, was 14 over par with an 85 and 11 over with a 3 handicap.

Last year Mt. Prospect Hardware captured the team title with 303, followed by Rendezvous with 309, and Dunteman Dairy with 320. The only 2 men playing in this year's tourney who also competed in '54 were Hornbostel and Roloff.

2 Workouts Daily For Arlington's Football Squads

Arlington High's football squads will open the 1955 season with workouts twice daily starting Monday, August 29. The first practice session will be at 8:30 for both the varsity and frosh-soph squads, and the freshmen will not officially start practice until Tuesday at a time designated by the frosh coaches.

Saturday, August 27, equipment will be issued. All varsity candidates, mainly juniors and seniors, will check out equipment and be assigned lockers between the hours of 9 and 11 a.m. Sophs are to report from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. The frosh candidates will meet with their coaches at the south end of the game field on Monday, August 29, at 3 p.m. At this time complete instructions will be given in regard to equipment, practices, etc.

All varsity and frosh-soph candidates must have completed and passed their physical exams before reporting for equipment. Each participant must have with him $8 to cover insurance, towel fee, fine deposit, etc. Part of this will be refunded at the close of the season in the event no towel or equipment has been lost.

EVERY SQUAD member must report for his equipment at the designated time. Lettermen will be given preference only if they report at 9 a.m. sharp. Any boy not getting his equipment on this date will have to wait until after the afternoon practice Monday to check in.

The Illinois State High School Athletic Association rules that all football candidates must attend 15 days of practice before competing in a scheduled game. With only 17 days of practice slated before the opening game at Leyden, September 16, no boy can afford to miss the opening day.

Seven coaches make up the Arlington football coaching staff. Heading the varsity gridders will be "Bus" Ormsbee with Robert Scott working as line coach. Art Serfling will assist Ormsbee and coach the JV squad and Bill Beckman and Dick Mudge will take care of the frosh-sophs. Coaching the frosh will be Curtis Larsen, assisted by Maurice Kellogg.

Tickets On Sale At Arlington Sept. 6

Season reserved tickets for football games at Arlington Heights high school will go on sale Tuesday, Sept. 6, in the office of John Schafi, business manager of the high school.

First home game is scheduled under the lights Friday, Sept. 23, with Hinsdale. Other home opponents include Downers Grove, LaGrange, Riverside-Brookfield.

Season reserved seat tickets are priced at $5 for the entire slate of 4 games. Single game reserved tickets at $1.35 will be available only the week of each game. General admission prices are 50c for students, $1 for adults.

Great increase in student enrollment, and growth of the area, make good seats at Cardinal football games harder to find for general admission customers. Half of the 1600 seats in the permanent bleachers on the home side are reserved for students. Remaining seats go in a hurry, so season ticket fans are urged to purchase theirs as soon as possible after September 6.

Need Bowlers

Expansion of the Rolling Meadows-Prospect Meadows bowling league at Beverley Lanes from a 4-team group to 8 teams has created a need for bowlers from those 2 towns. The group will roll the second shift Wednesday nights.

Any bowlers from those 2 communities wishing to compete is asked to contact Bob Binnie at Clearbrook 5-1282. Competition will start Sept. 7.

Meeting Aug. 29 For Eligible Midget League Football Players

The Midget league football program, sponsored by the Arlington Heights Park Distict, will gets its 1955 season underway Monday, August 29, at 1 p.m.

"Bus" Ormsbee, Arlington's head football coach and director of the program, is calling a meeting at this time for all eligible candidates to report to the west bleachers of the AHHS stadium. In order to be eligible, a boy must be going into the 6th, 7th, or 8th grade in school and reside within the boundaries of the park district. The purpose of the meeting will be to hand out parent permit cards, place each boy on one of the 4 squads (Bears-Cardinals-Packers-Lions) according to the section of town he lives in, and give out information on the proposed schedule for the season.

The park board recently approved to requisitioning of 60 pair of football pants containing hip and thigh pads which will now give each participating boy a chance to be fully equipped, with the exception of shoes, while he is taking part in a scheduled game.

THIS YEAR Cocch Ormsbee has obtained the services of 4 coaches to work with the boys from outside his high school staff. This will give the teams an opportunity to practice during the week. As in the past 2 seasons, all 4 squads will meet on the high school practice field Saturday mornings where members of the high school squads and coaches will assist in the teaching of fundamentals.

The entire purpose of the program is to acquaint our youth with the game of football and the assets that can be gained from participating in team sports. Some of the points to be stressed will be leadership, good sportsmanship, clean living habits, and above all, the necessity of being able to work together.

A regular schedule of games will be published soon. These contests will take part at various times, either just before the frosh-soph games at home on Friday evenings, during the half time of the frosh-soph games, or on Saturday mornings.

So, come on boys, let's have a big turnout Monday afternoon, August 29, at 1 p.m.

Bowlers To Have Choice Of 78 Alleys In Area This Year

There'll be 78 bowling alleys operating within the area served by Paddock Publications this fall. That's an increase of 36 alleys over last season when 6 establishments at Bensenville, Wood Dale, Palatine, Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect and Wheeling included 42 alleys.

Tremendous growth of the area has brought on these new alleys, with automatic pin spotters either in use or planned at each of the 3 additional establishments.

BEVERLY LANES opened its doors just recently on the east end of Arlington Heights, and has been doing a land office business ever since. The 16-alley establishment has automatics, under-the-floor ball returns, and is roomy and bright. St. John's league of Northfield will start bowling on 10 alleys Thursday night, Sept. 1, though the rest of the leagues won't open play until after Labor Day.

El Rando Annex, possibly to be known as Guhnell's alleys at junction of route 83 and Rand rd., will also have 16 alleys with automatic spotters. Air conditioning, cocktail bar, restaurant facilities, etc., are all included in the plans, though the alley probably won't be ready for bowlers until Sept. 13. Evenings are filled with leagues, though there are openings afternoons.

JEFFERY LANES, operated by Bud Miller, will open about Sept. 15 along Wolf rd., north of Dundee rd. Bud formerly operated the 4-alley establishment in Wheeling, reportedly up for sale. Most Wheeling leagues are moving to the new 8-alley establishment just west of town, expanding membership in the process.

Jeffery Lanes will have semi-automatics until the new Brunswick automatics arrive. Leagues will start competition immediately after opening.

Mt. Prospect Bowling Lanes, busiest spot around last season with only 1 hour open bowling all week, will be back to regular schedule with leagues starting to roll right after Labor Day. The 6-alley establishment has a cocktail lounge, and is located in the heart of Mt. Prospect.

HI-WAY RECREATION, the pupular 10-alley establishment in Palatine, will open a full schedule of league bowling Monday night, Aug. 29, getting the jump on other alleys with competition ending a week earlier next spring. Openings are available for a newly-formed second shift league Tuesday nights, but the roster is filling fast.

Arlington Heights Bowling Lanes, with Eddie Wolf in command, is now open for the season in the center of town, as usual. Eddie has redecorated, and this year is presenting shellacked alleys, attracting many bowlers for open play Few leagues have signed in the 6-alley establishment, with open bowling most of the week certain to be welcomed by many.

American League Dominates Palatine LL Playoff Tilts

by AUGIE BOEHM

In a playoff for the championship of the American division of the Palatine Little League the Indians beat the Sox, 1-0, in as exciting a game as has been played during the season. The Indians scored the winning run in the 8th inning when Dave Ball walked, advanced to 3rd on a passed ball and wild pitch, and scored on a ball hit into the infield by John Seehausen. The Indians had 3 hits, 1 each by Clark, Quayle, and Goodwille. The Sox also collected 3 hits, authored by Maffeo, Rose, and Michaels.

In a playoff between the 4th place teams the American league Tigers beat the Braves, 7-3. Basset, pitching for the Tigers, allowed only 2 hits, a single by Smith and a triple by Funston. The Tigers were never in trouble, scoring 3 runs in the second inning on 3 walks and a single by McWilliams. The Tigers scored a lone run in the 4th on hits by Goeppinger and Domek. They picked up their 5th run in the next inning on Domek's second single. McWilliams' second hit and a couple of walks accounted for the Tigers' last 2 runs.

THE AMERICAN League was again victorious in the battle between 3rd place teams, when the Yanks eked out a 5-4 win over the Cards. The Cards jumped off to 1 run in this see-saw battle on 2 walks and a double by Sief. The Yanks came up with 3 runs in the third when Schur reached base on an error, scored on Smith's triple, who scored ahead of Hartman on a long home run. The Cards went out in front again on 3 runs in the 4th on singles by Moss and Schuettner and Stiefs' second double and walks to Blundstone and Marker. The Yanks scored the tying and winning runs in the 5th inning when Schur again reached base on an error and scored on Stoneking's single who in turn scored while Hartman was thrown on at first.

Braves	100 101—3-2

Batteries: Tigers, Bassett and Smith; Braves, O'Brien and Funston.

Monday night the fans were treated to 2 thrilling ball games, the first contest going to the National League Cubs over the Sox, 2-1. Dettinger of the Cubs opened the games with a single, advanced to third on a passed ball and an infield out, and scored on another passed ball. Sox had singles by Michaels and Seidel in the 4th but failed to score.

THE CUBS wasted Thomes' single in the fifth, then the Sox tallied their only run when Boehm opened the inning with a bunt hit. He advanced on a passed ball, went to third on Jefferson's infield single and scored on a ball hit into the infield. The Sox went down 1-2-3 in the sixth although Seidel brought the crowd to its feet when he blasted a long drive to center field.

Tallying the game-deciding run in the last inning, the Cubs used a single by Helms to start off the rally; Helms scored on O'Reilly's long triple. Kehe was the winning pitcher although he needed help from O'Reilly in the 4th. Seidel pitched all the way for the Sox.

The championship game was a real thriller. The Indians scored the winning and only run of the contest in the last inning for a 1-0 win over the National League champion Giants.

THE GIANTS got 2 men on base in the first inning but couldn't score. The Indians also got 2 men on base when Clark walked and Quayle reached base while the Cubs were throwing out Clark at second. Helms tripled in the Giants' third but died there when the next 2 batters popped to the infield. In the Indians' second Schaeffer reached base when he was hit by a pitched ball. Schuh of the Giants reached base in the 4th on a fielding error, but still neither team could push across 1 run.

The Indians loaded the bases in the 4th when Seehausen doubled, Goodwille was hit by a pitched ball and Schaeffer walked, but here the threat ended when the next 2 men struck out. The winning run was scored in the 6th when Seehausen opened with a single, stole second, went to third on a wild pitch and scored on a passed ball. Helms and Seehausen pitched all the way and each allowed 2 hits.

Batteries: Cubs, Kehe, O'Reilly and Rogen; Sox, Seidel and Michaels.

Giants	000 000—0-2
Indians	000 001—1-2

Batteries: Giants, Helms and Donahoe; Indians, Seehausen and Clark, Conroy.

IN MINOR league action the Giants topped the Sox, 12-10, the Yanks dumped the Cubs, 5-1, the Tigers edged the Braves, 6-4, and in the first place battle the Indians dumped the Cardinals, 4-1. In the Minor league All-Star game the Indians-Yanks combination blanked the Sox-Tiger unit, 4-0.

VFW Sox Advance On Cubs In Northwest Pony League

by BETTY KIRCHHOFF

Last week-end the VFW Sox finished up their season with a bang. Friday night they whipped the Giants 10-0 and Saturday they took 2 marathons from the Indians, 16-3, and 20-6. These 3 wins put the Sox pretty close to the front running Cubs who still have 3 games to play. 14 percentage points are all that separate the 2 teams.

Bob Leekley twirled his first game in a long time Friday and came through with a commendable performance. He allowed but 2 hits, a single and a double, he walked 7, and fanned 9. Bob also was quite a hitting star with 3 doubles for 3 times at bat.

George Bork drove in the first 3 tallies with a homer in the first with 2 men on base. As it turned out these proved to be enough for a Sox victory but the Sox felt like fattening up their batting average.

IT LOOKED as though the Indians had finally cooled off the Sox when the second part of the twin-bill got underway. Bill McMillan, eventualy winning hurler, gave a free pass to Wally Borman, first Indian batter. Anderson then blooped a single to short center that moved Borman to third. He stole second a moment later. Pat Buick got a walk to load the bags up and bring up Dundy. Dundy came through with a single to give the Indians a 2-0 lead over the red-hot Sox. They just couldn't hold them for long though. The pennant minded winners got 3 runs in their half of the first, a single on next inning, and then in the third they really clobbered the one time first placers with 8 big tallies.

Kenny Grams really had himself some day. Indian pitchers only got him out twice in the course of both games. Meanwhile Kenny collected 3 doubles, 3 homers, and a single in 9 times at bat.

In the first game Saturday the run happy Sox continued their murdering pace as they trampled the Indians 16-3 behind George Bork's Brilliant 3 hit job.

EVERYONE slaughtered the Indians pitching with Denny Hahn and Kenny Grams leading the parade. Denny had a perfect day at bat with 4 for 4 and Kenny turned loop ball hitter with a long home run and 2 doubles.

The losers were fighting to the finish as can be seen when they scored their 3 runs. Two were tallied in the sixth and the other in the last inning.

Sunday the Northwest Suburban Pony League All-Stars lost their consolation game to Niles All-Stars 9-6, in the Highwood tournament. Last Wednesday the Lake Regions team whipped them 5-4, thus eliminating the locals from higher honors.

At the end of 2 innings NW All-Stars led 4-0. Then the roof fell in on the home-town boys. Niles combined 4 walks, and 3 singles into 5 runs to take a 5-4 edge. The game then see-sawed back and forth with Niles finally ending up on top.

North Chicago High Shuffles Coaching Staff

Changes and additions will give the North Chicago high school a new look for the coming year. The most important change is the appointment of Tom Parker to the position of head football coach which Chuck Mills had resigned last Spring to take a position at Loyola Academy in California. Tom, a graduate of Elgin high school later of Northern Illinois Teachers college moves up from frosh soph football to the head position. Although material will not be as plentiful as last year the coaches are optimistic about the prospects, feeling that the success enjoyed in the Spring of the year will carry over into the sports program this Fall. In addition to his duties as head football coach Tom will be assistant coach in both basketball and track. Last Spring Tom's track team finished third in the state meet.

New to the staff completely is Robert Braden who hails from Virden high school where he coached basketball and track. Bob is a graduate of Southern university. In his new position he will coach cross country, frosh soph basketball and head track.

JOHN CLAY, graduate of Lawrence college will coach frosh football, head up the wrestling and tennis programs.

Amos Jones graduate of Illinois where he lettered in football will assist in coaching football and be freshmen baseball coach.

Shifts within the staff will see Guy Curtright still as director of athletics, head baseball coach and intramural director.

Al Johnson will coach frosh football, head up the basketball program and be golf coach. Larry Hanzel will assist Parker in football, coach frosh basketball and frosh soph baseball.

Arlington Jr. Legion Team Ends Successful Campaign

by BOB FRISK

Arlington's 1955 junior legion baseball season is past history! The summer's campaign ended in a 2-1 loss to Blue Island Sunday in the Cook County second half playoffs and formally concluded at Wednesday night's annual banquet.

In some ways this could be termed the most successful junior legion baseball season for Arlington Heights. Certainly in regard to actual playing dates and competition faced, it WAS successful. The Fords played a total of 31 games, including several contests with semi-pro outfits, and they compiled an impressive 17-7-2 mark against legion competition for a .692 percentage. The strong team of 1953, managed by Lloyd Meyer, won 16 games and dropped 5 for a .762 mark.

MOLDED together early in June and pushed into action after 2 days of practice, the Poole Fords progressed slowly until they finally developed into the squad which Manager Dave Ryden predicted would rank with the best in the area. In comparison with the '53 aggregation the locals are on the short end of the hitting totals, but on the positive side in pitching. Johnny Sujack is one of the best pitchers to ever don a junior legion uniform and his performance in a losing cause to Blue Island left little doubt in this reporter's mind that the lefty should be ranked with the best of all time in Arlington legion annuals, including the 13-letter winner and ace twirler at Heights back in '48, Bill Robinson.

Let's look over the personnel of the '55 team..Denny Thill was the youngest regular on the team but he wasn't short on ability. Denny, author of 2 1-hitters as a pitcher, was selected on the district's All-Star team and he played the full contest..Bob Getts sufered an untimely injury which kept him out of the lineup for a few weeks, but he came back strong and blasted 2 hits in the Blue Island affair. Bob could play the outfield and infield and he pitched 1 contest.. Larry Webber filled in at second base after a few games and proceeded to turn in a commendable season. Larry has another year of legion ball ahead of him and should show marked improvement.

PAT BROWNELL gets Manager Ryden's nod as the most improved player. A capable switch hitter, Pat improved his defensive play considerably throughout the season..Jim Summers played every position on the team but catcher and had a pretty good season at the plate..Ron Ashley had no equal as a defensive outfielder and his stick work started to pick up just before he went to a baseball camp..Ed Meinken was a highly-touted backstop at the outset of the season, and he completed a good season both behind the plate and at bat. His stick work could stand a little improvement, but whose couldn't?..Dan Vittum is as personable a young ball player as you would want to meet. Vittum is a manager's ball player both in attitude and ability.

Jerry Klement started out strong with the bat but tapered off at the end of the season. Jerry's a big boy who should improve with age..Al Smeby was a fast-balling right hander who was off and on in starting asignments but brilliant in relief..Finally among the regulars was this writer's best source for a story — John Sujack. There doesn't need to be anything more said on John. His records tell the story.

Any good team needs a strong bench and Arlington was a team of "new faces" on the bench. Included in the list of reserves for Heights were Bill Fischer, Bob Barbour, Al Hutchinson, Dick Nickelsen, Bill Randag, Lee Magnuson, and the "morale booster" of the club, Dick "Tony" Christian.

IT WAS perhaps fitting that Sujack should lose the final game on an error. Possessing a 1.01 earned run mark for 83 1/3 innings, John was only beaten once on base hits and this was by Park Ridge, 3-2, a team he later set back, 4-3.

With the score deadlocked 1-1 in Sunday's playoff tilt Blue Island got a runner on second in the sixth. Then Ken Wendling hit a sharp grounder to Thill whose throw, attempting to cut down the runner at third, hit Wendling in the back. Before the dust had cleared another error had been chalked up by Arlington and Blue Island had the run which iced the victory.

Sujack fanned 12 and walked only 2 in the 9 innings. Larry Webber's single drove in the only tally as the locals had 11 men left on base. One clutch hit would have probably sent Heights into the tourney finale.

WEDNESDAY'S BANQUET, arranged by Bruce Fullerton and Jim Millay with assistance from Ryden, Randy Thomas, and Howard Lester, Arlington's varsity basketball and baseball coach, had Lee Pfund, Wheaton baseball coach and the former Major Leaguer, as guest speaker. C. O. Michaelson, ninth district director, Walt Wessman, Cook County chairman, and Ryden were also scheduled to give short talks with Bruce Fullerton, the man who so ably took care of the many details that surround legion ball for a summer, serving as master of ceremonies.

Next week as a final report for the season, the complete averages, compiled by Randy Thomas, will be published.

Review Changes In Football Rules

Official football rules interpreters appointed by the Illinois high school association met at 7 S. Dearborn st., Chicago, for an all-day session of high school rules instruction Monday, August 22. Prominent officials and football representatives from adjoining states were also present.

Instruction on the 1955 national federation football rules was given by H. V. Porter, secretary of the national federation football rules committee. The purpose of the meeting was to secure uniformity in interpretation and application of the 1955 high school football rules in downstate, suburban and Chicago areas.

A few of the major changes involved in the 1955 high school code are: (1) greater use of mouth or face protectors is urged. (2) metal tipped nylon cleats are legalized. (3) first touching of a kick by the kickers is ignored if the receivers commit a foul after having touched the kick. (4) the snapper is given the same foot rights as other lineman. (5) procedure is provided when penalty for illegal pass is declined (6) a second foul becomes a double or multiple foul if it occurs before penalty for the first foul has been accepted or declined.

Since there are relatively few significant changes in the 1955 interscholastic code, the IHSA interpreters spent much of their time reviewing fundamentals and older sections of the rules as well as the techniques and mechanics of officiating.

Line Is Greatest Problem At N.U.

Much of Northwestern's hopes of advancing up the Big Ten football ladder this fall hinge around a promising group of sophomores who figure prominently in the rebuilding plans of Lou Saban, the Wildcats' new coach.

Out of 62 candidates invited to report for the opening of practice September 1, 35 are sophomores, products of last year's fine freshman squad. It is disclosing no secret to report that a number of these newcomers are counted on to help replace 19 lettermen lost from the 1954 squad.

The Wildcats suffered their heaviest graduation losses in the line, and it is at these positions that the new sophomore additions will provide much needed replacements.

Hartman House Captures Rob Roy League Golf Title

The Hartman House team concluded its powerful drive for first place in the Rob Roy league by trouncing the L-Nor Cleaners, 6-1. The winners took over first place the second week of play and remained there up to the mid-point of the season where Webber Paint Co. took over. Webber Paint then held the lead up to Paddock tourney time. With 4 weeks left to play the Hartman House opened up and moved from third to first and the league title for 1955. Representing the champions and receiving the first place trophies are John Bozik, Ray Meyers, Art Thorsen, and Wally Schroeder.

Webber Paint Co., winner of second place, were edged out Tuesday, 4-3, by Ehler and Wenborg. After leading the league almost the entire last half of the season, Webber appeared to lose its drive. Right after winning the Paddock nomination they ran into a stiff portion of their schedule and were unable to gain big margin wins. Receiving the second place trophies will be Len Arnold, Bob Peterson, Vince Hoffman, and Norm Peterson. Len Arnold matched par in the Paddock affair and Tuesday, along with Bob Barrett, matched par again.

THIRD PLACE ended in a tie between Wheeling Bowling Lanes and Smith and Dawson. Since the league had no regulation governing ties, the team captains, Marsh Balling and Joe Marcin, agreed to match the low individual nets for the trophies. The records were brought out and the totals compiled and it gave Smith and Dawson the trophies. Receiving the third place trophies are Joe Marcin, Carl Hammerl, Irv Rybicki, and Roy Borough. Wheeling Bowling Lanes players are Marsh Balling, Norvel Funk, Walt Wilkerson, and Bill Keppen. Wheeling beat Park Ridge Stop and Sock, 4-3, while Smith and Dawson trounced Dunteman Dairy, 5½-1½.

Prospect Hts. Variety Store concluded its season by beating Wulbecker Furniture, 5½-1½. Barrett's par round for the Wulbecker team was not enough to beat out the Variety Store.

Kirchhoff Insurance, led by John Keely, drubbed last place Prospect Hts. Pharmacy, 5-1. John Brennan, sponsor and captain of the Pharmacy team, is probably happy the season is over because as league president he was unable to spur his team on like in past seasons. Consequently they wound up in the cellar.

Michaels IGA ended the season in a blaze of glory, beating Prospect Hts. Service Station, 4½-2½, when Wayne Rolfs bested par. Wayne also took low net of the night with a 33.

WINNER FOR the alternates trophy was Bob Schultz with 12 attendance points and 6 points on play for an 18 total.

The trophies will be presented to the sponsors and players at the league banquet at the Hartman House, Saturday, Sept. 17. The league tournament for individual prizes will be played at Rob Roy, Sunday, Sept. 11, with the first foursomes teeing off at 10:30. Pat McDonald would appreciate registration for the event to be posted as promptly as possible if any member of the league has not done so yet. The prizes for this event will also be presented at the banquet. The banquet has all appearances of being a gala event this year. Registration should be made with John Brennan or Robert Peterson as soon as possible.

Award Longer Season To State Duck Hunters

U. S. fish and wildlife service has given Illinois waterfowl hunters a longer season this year based on studies showing an increase in duck populations in the Canadian breeding grounds. The 70 days will include October 15 to December 23.

The bag limit will remain at 4 per day for ducks but may include one wood duck. The goose bag limit will be five, not to include more than 2 Canada or Whitefront geese. The possession limit on ducks is 8 while the possession limit on geese is 5.

ANOTHER CHANGE in the waterfowl law gives Illinois hunters the right to take jacksnipe for the first time in several years. The season is 15 days, from October 25 to November 8 with a bag and possession limit of 8 birds.

The shooting hours were changed a bit for waterfowl, the closing hour now to be one-half hour before sunset. Opening hour is one-half hour before sunrise.

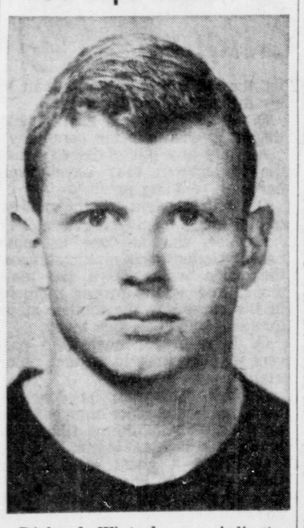

In addition to federal regulations the goose hunter must remember the special state regulations applying to the southern zone. First he should know that the southern zone now includes all the counties formerly in the zone and adds Calhoun and Jersey counties. All the other counties formerly in the Central Zone are now in the Northern Zone as there is no longer a Central Zone.

GOOSE HUNTING in the southern zone is limited to the dates November 5 through December 15. In Alexander county, shooting hours are limited to a 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. schedule.

The longer duck season is a compromise on the request of Illinois duck hunters who first wanted a two zone season in Illinois in order to allow hunting for the north end of the state and the south end of the state on an equalized basis. The hunters in northern Illinois want an earlier season while southern Illinois wants a later season.

Winterbauer Heads Yale's Soph Backs

Richard Winterbauer, Arlington Heights, Ill., is one of the 75 candidates for the 1955 Yale University varsity football squad who has been invited by Coach Jordan Olivar to return to New Haven for pre-season practice on September 1.

Winterbauer quarterbacked the undefeated Yale freshman squad last fall and served as its co-captain, and is one of the most highly regarded of the sophomore backs. He participated for four years in track and football at Arlington Heights High School and was awarded several state and district honors in football. He also won the national discus title in 1954, as well as setting the state shot put record and winning state titles in the event for two years in a row.

Yale's squad shared the Ivy League title with Cornell last fall, although in a meeting between these teams, the Bulldogs handed the Big Red a 47-21 thumping. Yale and Cornell are again co-favorites in the league race. Other Ivy teams are Pennsylvania, Brown, Princeton, Harvard, Columbia and Dartmouth.

Yale will mark its 83rd year of football in the season opener on September 24 against the University of Connecticut. Then, on successive Saturdays, they meet Brown, Columbia, Cornell, Colgate, Dartmouth, Army, Princeton and Harvard. With the exception of the Princeton contest, all games will be played in the spacious Yale Bowl.

Winterbauer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Winterbauer, and resides at 550 Banbury Road in Arlington Heights.

Rock Island Good Quarterback Spot

Rock Island, Ill., high school is proving to be a good training ground for Northwestern university quarterbacks. Two years ago, Dick Thomas, a Rock Island product, ranked among the leading passers in the Big Ten while performing for the Wildcats. Last year, Jack Ellis, also of Rock Island, made a highly successful sophomore debut until sidelined by injuries, and this fall, another Rock Island product, Tom Schuerman, will battle for the quarterback assignment. (Sp

Strikeout Ace

Philadelphia's Robin Roberts moved into fifth place in the strikeout list among active pitchers when he fanned four Cubs on July 31. That gave him a total of 1,110. Present pitchers who have struck out more are Bobby Feller, Virgil Trucks, Warren Spahn and Early Wynn. But only Feller has a better average per season than Roberts. Feller's average is 150.1 and Roberts' is 138.8.

We Missed Art

Sports editors missed the assignment of Art Serfling in the story of coaching assignments at Arlington Heights high school last week.

Art coached and taught at Lake Forest high school several years before coming to Arlington this fall. He'll serve football coach "Bus" 'Ormsbee as assistant, and coach the JV's. (Sp

Call 71 For 1st Grid Call At Illinois

Seventy-one candidates, including 16 lettermen, have been invited to report for fall drills at University of Illinois, head coach Ray Eliot, announced. The squad will assemble for photographers Aug. 31 with practice scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m. Sept. 1.

The Illini are expected to have a "new look" by time of the opener against California at Berkeley, September 24, since Eliot is relying heavily on incoming sophomores to bring Illinois back from the cellar depths of 1954.

MISSING will be All-American J. C. Caroline, captain-elect of the 1955 squad, who is scholastically ineligible, but returning lettermen are expected to man the guard, quarterback, and halfback spots. New talent probably will be most prominent at center, tackle, end, and fullback.

As was true in 1954, Illinois, despite loss of Caroline, will be strongest at the halfback spot. three seasoned performers are ready to step in here: Harry Jefferson at left half, Abe Woodson and Mickey Bates at right half. Sophomore talent is rated high and includes Curtis Griswold, Chicago (Crane Tech), Bob McKown, LaGrange, Buddy Spence, Terre Haute, Ind., and Bobby Mitchell, Hot Springs, Ark.

QUARTERBACK is likely to be a toss-up between Em Lindbeck, senior from Kewanee, and Hiles Stout, 6-4 and 212-pound junior from Peoria Central. Sophomores Chuck Schrader, Champaign, Ed DeLong, Waukegan, and Ray Nitschke, Proviso (Maywood), may enliven the competition for this important role.

Eliot is hoping that shift of two lettermen tackles, Bob Baietto of Streator and Percy Oliver of Miami, Fla., will solve his biggest problem at guard. This leaves tackle spots virtually in the hands of first-year men.

Six lettermen will be in the battle for end positions, but Eliot figures a couple of sophomores may grab the starting berths. They are: Rod Hanson, 6-3 and 205 from Thornton of Harvey, and Jim Renwick, 6-2 and 205 from Ottawa.

There will be a playoff between the Monday and Tuesday night leagues followed by a dinner. Members will be notified by the league president, George O'Day, as to the exact date.

Browns Dump Orioles In Babe Ruth Play

Browns overcame a tremendous individual display by the Orioles' Rich Wisner to win a Babe Ruth league game, 8-4, behind Orrin Helms.

Wisner slammed 4 straight hits, including a double, and scored 1 run as the Orioles out-hit the victors, 10-8, only to see several rallies checked by alert defensive play.

The Browns big inning was the fourth when 5 runs crossed the plate on 6 hits. Base hits in the productive frame were collected by Haste, Werfen, Helms, Schur, Gordon, and Freter.

Oak Brook Polo Club

Many high-goal polo players from all over the country are congregating at the Oak Brook Polo Club in Hinsdale to be ready for the National Open Championships starting Sunday, September 4.

Sunday, August 28, on the International Field at 22nd and York Road starting at 3 p.m. a prevue of the national will be presented. This game will include 2 of the 3 teams already at Oak Brook, namely, a Detroit-Buffalo-New York squad rated at 25 goals; one from Brandywine, Wilmington, Delaware, rated 24 goals, and Paul Butler's famous Oak Brook 25-goal team.

Meadowland Tops Washington Card

Saturday's $50,000 added Meadowland Handicap at Washington Park is expected to bring the winners of all five 1955 grass stages together for an exciting climax to turf course racing in Chicago.

Hasty House Farms' duo of Platan, winner of the Arlington Handicap, and Mister Black, the Argentinian who won the Continental Turf Handicap here during the Balmoral meeting, head the list of stakes winners.

There is also Calumet Farm's Mark-Ye-Well, who won the Stars and Stripes Handicap and finished third in both the Grassland and the Arlington Handicaps.

Mrs. Harry L. Nathenson's Irish-bred Blue Choir will be back, hoping to add to his conquests of the Balmoral Turf and the Grassland Handicaps here.

THESE 4 TOP-LEVEL grass specialists head an imposing roster of turf runners named for 1 mile and 3/16 Meadowland, highlight of Washington Park's fourth week of thoroughbred sport.

Saturday's Meadowland field conceivably could threaten the American Turf mark of 1:54:3 for the mile and 3/16 set by Platan in winning the $100,000 added Arlington Handicap.

Platan, who also shows a victory in the $50,000 added Equipoise Mile as 1 of his 3 wins this year, again will be back, shooting for his third straight stakes victory.

Calumet Farm's Mark-Ye-Well, who equalled the mile and 1/8 Arlington grass course record in winning the Stars and Stripes, also will see action, as will Blue Choir, who recently edged Mister Black in the 1 mile and 1/8 Grassland Handicap here.

Mister Black is co-holder of the Washington Park standard for 1 mile and 1/8 on the grass, a mark he achieved in romping to a 4 length victory in the $25,000 added Continental Turf Handicap here during the Balmoral session.

Although Swaps was numbered among the Meadowland nominees, it is unlikely the unbeated Khaled sophomore will be among the starters since he's scheduled to return to regular course training following his American Derby date and renew preparations for his $100,000 winner-take-all match race with Nashua, August 31, 1955.

Calumet Farm also will be represented by Duke's Lea, a 4-year-old whose chief claim to fame was a second to Determine in last year's Santa Anita Derby until he won the opening-day Clang Handicap here.

Stanley Mikell's Brush Burn, who won the '53 renewal of the Meadowland, also looms a definite starter, as does Reverie Knoll Farm's Smoke Screen, who has been second in 5 stakes this year. Marion H. Van Berg's speedy Vantage and Rex Ellsworth's Correspondent also appear likely Meadowland starters.

5 Teams In Running For Twilight Crown

With only 5 points separating the first 5 teams and the final night of match play approaching, this could prove to be very interesting in the final standings of the Arlington Heights twilight golf league.

Dave Borgardt and John Andrup tied for low gross 38. Bob Rankine had low net 33. Alternate J. Benson had low net 39. Don't forget the league' tournament Sunday, September 11.

Threat Of Publicity Brings In Money For Old, Unpaid Bills

by BILL DILLINGHAM

Posted in the display window of a London store is a sign which reads: "In view of the fact that a large majority of my distinguished clienele have not met their financial obligations to me, I have no alternativve but to close my shop. Within the immediate future, a list bearing the names of these clients will appear here."

Alongside of this sign there is a poster which asks pedestrians to step closer to the window and peer into a mirror. By doing so, a person can see his own shoes compared to a new pair, apparently side by side, carefully placed for this purpose. Another tiny poster asks the question: "Did you realize your shoes looked so bad?"

THE OWNER of this store specializes in shoes and suits for men, and deals in limited leather items for the ladies. The idea of posting the names of debtors in the front window, he said, has brought in scores of rarely-seen customers with money for their old bills.

A substantial number of men come in with their wives, giving the impression that the women of the community want to be certain their payments are made, and not risk ridicule from the neighbors.

THE PEOPLE who will not pay under threat of this publicity, the storekeeper explains, are those who have moved away and those who have no friends in the community. Those who are too broke to pay in full are always willing to offer a few shillings as a demonstration of good faith.

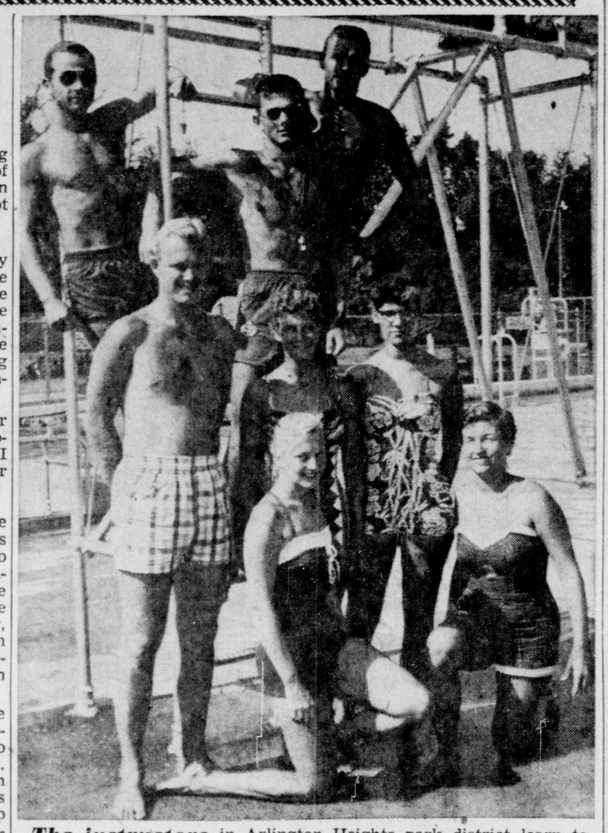

"That's just enough to keep your name from my next list," the shopkeeper said to one debtor, "but I can't guarantee anything after that."

THE IDEA for this poster came from the storekeeper's wife. It is her observation, he said, that too many people meet their obligations only when they have to, some sort of club being needed. Since putting the sign in the window, business has picked up from passersby. People come in because they don't like to see a man lose his store.

Neighboring shopkeepers are anxiously waiting for the list to appear so that they can know to whom they must stop giving credit. And, adds the man, there is an abundance of local housewives who have peered into his shop lately in search of the list, seeking material for conversation among the ladies.

Since the shopkeeper was explaining these points to a foreigner, he finally felt it safe to reveal a secret. "Actually," he said, "I'd close up my shop before puting up a list like that. But business is certainly booming. It is a bloody-good idea, what?"

The instructors in Arlington Heights park district learn to swim program hang on for the photographer. Red Cross worked with the park board in presenting instruction, which this year numbered 2,047 youngsters at Heights. Attendance in the classes averaged close to 500 daily. The classes ran through August 12.

Miss America of 1955, Lee Ann Meriwether, greets the Illinois Jaycee junior golf team as it arrives at Columbus country club, Columbus, Ga., for the 10th international junior golf tournament Aug. 15-20. Miss America personally welcomed more than 200 of the best junior golfers from all parts of the United States, Hawaii, Canada and the Canal Zone. Miss America is shown with (from left): Leo Pryor, Lockport, the escort driver; Bill Harris, Springfield; Tagg Bowman, Winnetka and Mike Spinello, Mt. Prospect.

Q. Is it proper for a girl to ask a young man to call, when she has known him for some time?

A. This would naturally depend upon just how long she has known him. Usually, the best way for a girl to handle a situation of this kind is to invite the young man to dinner in her home.

Q. Whose duty is it to see that the bride and bridegroom's car is ready and waiting for them at the wedding reception?

A. This is one of the duties of the best man.

Q. When ice cream is served with pie (a la mode), should this be eaten with a spoon or fork?

A. The fork should be used.

Q. How should a maid hold a dish as she presents it to the guests at a dinner table?

A. Flat on the palm of her left hand, and presented at the left of the guest. If the dish is hot, a napkin can be used as a pad underneath.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Are correspondence cards in good taste?

A. Yes; they are very popular and in good taste for the short, informal kind of note. It is becoming more and more customary for men and women to use these cards. However, they should not be used for strictly formal correspondence.

Q. When passing a salt or pepper shaker at the table, should one place it on the table or hand it directly to the person?

A. It is usually less awkward to put it down on the table and let the person pick it up, than to try to hand it directly to him.

Q. What jewels, if any, should the bride wear for the ceremony?

A. Only any gift of jewelry that the bridegroom may have given her as a wedding present.

Q. Is it all right for the mother of the bride to give her away?

A. Yes, this is done in some cases. Under such circumstances, the bride walks down the aisle alone, and at the proper moment in the ceremony the mother steps forward and gives her away.

Q. Is it proper always to present a young man to a much older man?

A. Yes. This can be done by mentioning the older man's name first, as, "Mr. Williams (the older man), this is Mr. Hudson."

Q. When a guest at a dinner table suddenly has a violent attack of coughing, what should he do?

A. Ask to be excused, and leave the room until the coughing has been relieved.

Grant Park Concerts Heard By 400,000

Music under the stars on Chicago's lake front during the summer of 1955 attracted an estimated 396,700 persons to the Grant Park concert series which ended Sunday, August 14.

The largest attendance at a single concert was Sunday, July 24, when 50,000 persons heard the Tschkaikowsky program presented by the Grant Park symphony orchestra under the direction of Andre Kostelanetz.

Catholic High School To Open In Niles

Notre Dame high school for boys, 7655 Dempster st., Niles, will open September 12 for 750 freshman and sophomore students.

In December 1953, His Eminence Samuel Cardinal Stritch invited the Holy Cross Fathers to open a boys' high school in the Archdiocese of Chicago. The school is now completed and equipped at a cost of $2,700,000. To accommodate 1500 students and a faculty house for 45 priests, its striking contemporary design embodies the most advanced thinking in school architecture and equipment. It is located on a 30 acre campus and includes a chapel of ultra-modern design, library, and theater.

The junior year will be added in 1956 and the senior year in 1957. There are 3 basic courses: academic, business, and general.

Principal is Father d'Autremont, assistant principal Father Van Wolvlear. Director of studies and business manager is Father Lane.

Lot Of Corn Deteriorated By Lack Of Rain

Gradual deterioration in the corn crop occurred during the middle part of August. A predicted great corn crop was being whittled down to a merely good one. A return of high temperatures plus lack of any rainfall in most areas cut back corn prospects day by day. Nearly all DeKalb's 75 seed corn reporters stated a good rain in their areas would be beneficial to corn and soybeans.

In Iowa, greatest corn growing state, a continuing deficiency of rainfall caused a prospective yield reduction ranging from 5 bushels in eastern counties to as much as 25 bushels in the west and southwest. In Illinois, the corn crop was in much better shape, as early August rains in northern and southern Illinois improved conditions there, whereas Central Illinois had been in excellent condition all along.

ONLY AREA to receive favorable rains was in the east, where Pennsylvania and New York farmers enjoyed plentiful and badly needed rain on the edge of Hurricane Connie. Some damage to corn was caused by the heavy winds accompanying this storm.

Maturity will be no problem this year as corn was already denting by August 15 in Iowa and Minnesota. Early planting, plus temperatures, had pushed maturity some 10 days ahead of normal in areas west of the Mississippi, where frost is always apt to cause most damage.

SOYBEAN CROP was also hurt by the hot, dry weather. Exceedingly tall growth in many areas did not seem to have a normal number of developing pods.

The dry, hot weather favored grasshoppers which were being treated by spraying in many sections, not only in the always affected Southwest, but up into Iowa, Nebraska and Minnesota. (Fm

'Youth Too Busy 70 Years Ago to Start Mischief,' Says Old Timer

JESS HAUSAM

"Young men did not have time to get into mischief 70 years ago," says Jess Hausam, a resident of this area for three-quarters of a century and now living in California. "The word juvenile delinquency had not been coined. In those days, when a boy had developed sufficient muscle to do a part of a man's work, he quit school and got a job, the salary being turned over to the father who in turn dished out to his son money as he needed it."

Jess says that he considered himself lucky if he was able to get 50 cents for a date. His dad was liberal and always came across, but he had "no chance to become a spendthrift." He was aware of the value of money.

HAUSAM, whose 80th birthday was Sunday, has been visiting this month in Arlington Heights area.

His first job was at the Henry Boehmer creamery at Wheeling, where he worked from age 14 to 24 His first acquaintance with Editor H. C. Paddock was in the 1890's, when late one night he heard a man calling for help. The Des Plaines river had overflowed Dundee rd. and Jess kept a rowboat at the creamery for rescue purposes and was glad to assist the editor, whom he found standing on the bridge eating an apple.

Jess did not expect money for such service. "People seldom talked about money in those days," he explained.

HIS FATHER, Jacob Hausam, was born and raised in Wheeling. Jess came to Arlington Heights in 1898, operating a dray service there from 1907 to 1917.

"That was before the age of trucks," recalled Jess. "I handled all freight and express for 10 years, ending up with 4 teams. One of our services was to answer fire calls, and when the bell rang those horses were on their way to the fire house whether I was ready or not."

After he sold his business in 1917, he went to work for Hitchcock Lumber Co., then located on the Hill-Behan site. Later he became associated with a hardware store where Arlington Bootery is now situated. But the long hours, 6:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. did not suit Jess. They were long because in the evening the men of the town would gather about the store stove, smoke pipes, and tell stories. "I couldn't kick them out," smiled Jess.

DURING WORLD WAR I he was a freight handler for the Chicago and North Western railway.

And then in 1920 he went to work for Bray and Kates, which became the Creamery Package Co. in 1921. He retired from that firm in 1941 after 30 years of service, 26 of them in charge of the tin house.

He is very much disappointed over the wrecking of the high school front lawn, occasioned by the building operations for the new addition. While Mr. Hausam spent three-quarters of a century in this area, he says, "I could not again reside here; there are too many changes."

Hausam has a daughter, Mrs. Ben Koeppen, 1006 N. Chestnut, Arlington Heights, and 2 sons, Howard and Donald, in California.

His home address is now 21914 Demetz rd., Woodland Hills, California. He leaves Saturday for the west coast.

Barrington Fights Liquor License

Barrington village officials have announced plans to protest an order of the Illinois State Liquor commission directing them to issue the town's fifth license for retail liquor sale to Abe Greengard, authorizing operation of a tavern at 102 N. Cook st.

Village ordinance limits the number of licenses to 4.

State Orders Halt To Deerfield Growth

Deerfield's growth was halted for the present through an order from the Illinois State Sanitary Water board ordering no more sewer connections until the sanitary system now under construction is completed.

These pneumatic tubes are not to count traffic, but are a part of the electrical speed timing system now being used by the Arlington Heights police department. The tubes are placed 66 feet apart. As the car hits the first tube it locks the mercury switch manually operated by a patrolman, and starts the clock. When the front wheels hit the second tube it stops the clock. The patrolman uses a stop watch to calibrate the speed between the 2 tubes. The policeman is stationed between 250-500 feet of the tubes and has visual evidence of when the car enters the timing zone. —Staff Photo

This minute mercury switch operates the timer that shows how fast motorists are traveling in Arlington Heights. The police department may move this equipment to any section of the village, and it will be used especially in areas where residents complain of constant traffic violations. —Staff Photo

One of 16 signs posted throughout the village of Arlington Heights to warn drivers that speed is electrically timed. The state highway department will post similar signs along state rd. and Northwest hwy. Since the new equipment has been put into operation more than 40 speed violators have been arrested. Chief Carl H. Skoog says, "Motorists are adequately warned, and if they are picked up for speeding they have no one to blame but themselves." —Staff Photo

Keep Gas Heating Pilot Light Lit

Keeping the home fires burning—even in midsummer or the fall—is good economy, according to gas appliance manufacturers association.

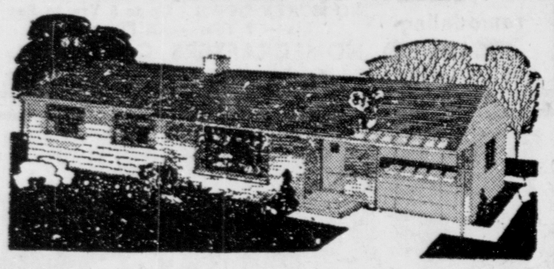

Not, the association hastens to add, that you should keep your equipment going full blast at a time when the thermometer is registering sweltering in the shade. But it will pay dividends in comfort and savings if you keep the pilot light on all year around.

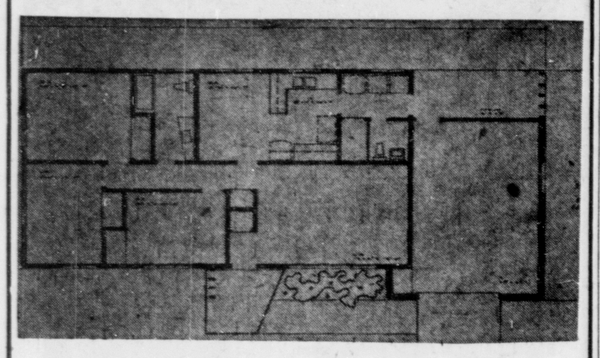

GAMA says that the constant burning pilot will keep the heating equipment dry during the summer, preventling rust and thus prolonging its life.

Then, too, the pilot generates just enough heat to increase the draf up the chimnew. This helps ventilate the basement, reduces dampness and mustiness.

About Your Health

Children with cerebral palsy are frequently reverred to as "spastic" children. Cerebral means pertaining to the brain and palsy means a form of paralysis or lack of control over muscles, whatever the cause. Therefore, the "spastic" child is one who, because of some damage to nerve centers in the brain, suffers loss of control over motion or sensation in some part of the body according to educational committee of Illinois state medical society.

Injury to the brain may have been present at birth or may occur in the birth process of the child, or perhaps the damage to the brain may have been inflicted through disease or injury during the early years. Unfortunately, little can be done about permanent damage to the tissues of the brain.

THERE ARE THREE general types of children afflicted with cerebral palsy: athetoid, ataxic and spastic. The child with athetosis makes random involuntary motions, usually with some muscle tension. The ataxic child has difficulty with maintaining balance, and the spastic child performs motions slowly and frequently inaccurately. Sometimes the mind itself is affected.

A determination of the intelligence of the child is important. Unless the child has sufficient intelligence to gain from an improvement in his condition, the undertaking of a long and costly orthopedic program is futile.

When the intelligence has been evaluated, a program of patience and understanding should be incorporated with that of training and education.

PALSIED CHILDREN display various degrees of mental ability. In such patients, the degree is difficult to evaluate.

Because of this difficulty in evaluating the various degrees of mental ability in children with cerebral palsy, it was, until recently, generally believed that all of these children were mentally retarded. However, as the program of muscle education and training is patiently adhered to, latent mental ability is frequently surprising as the physical ability improves.

Summer Season Sunburn Time Even For Trees

This is the sunburn season—for trees as well as humans.

With both, the amount of sunshine that can be soaked up without burning depends on the individual.

Some trees get scorched almost every summer while neighboring trees of the same species may remain normal.

Tree sunburn is known as leaf scorch, according to Davey tree experts. Common symptoms are brown margins along the leaf edges and back between the larger veins that supply the foliage with sap brought up from the roots. In severe cases foliage may appear scorched as though by fire.

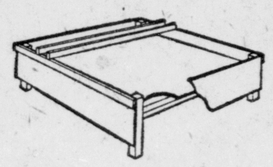

Leaves give off moisture through their pores. When the sun is hottest, the leaves may realease more moisture than is supplied to them. Then they dry out and turn brown.

Other factors besides hot sun may contribute to leaf scorch. These include high temperature, dry winds, root injuries and soil either too wet or too dry for the tree's requirements.

A regular program of feeding and watering is the best way to control leaf scorch. The feeding is important for it builds mats of fibrous roots, better able to obtain all possible available soil moisture. Well fed trees have greater capacity to endure drought conditions. Sugar maples commonly suffer from leaf scorch, but most trees, both deciduous and evergreen, may be damaged.

Chick Brooder Easy to Build

A simple, effective chick brooder can be built from a 4x8-foot sheet of asbestos-cement board and a few feet of framing lumber by utilizing the ideas shown in the sketch below. The asbestos board top is 4 feet square and the sides are 1x4-foot asbestos board strips. Corner posts, 16 inches high, and horizontal supports are cut from 2x2-inch lumber. The outer cleats are one-by-threes and the roosts are one-by-twos spaced six inches apart. Attach a heat lamp to a 1x3-inch block and fasten to one of the horizontal supports midway between a pair of posts. Asbestos board is low in cost, noncombustible, rotproof and easy to clean. Because it resists fire and rats, it has become a popular material for many farm uses.

Watering The Lawn Helps Weeds Grow

Don't spend too much time watering your lawn. Lawn grasses are semi-dormant during July, August and parts of September and need only enough water to keep the plants green, says Carl F. Mees, Cook county farm adviser.

Putting a lot of water on the lawn won't necessarily make the grass grow, but it will stimulate the weeds, he adds.

And when you first seed the new lawn you have to know when to seed, what type of grass is adapted to your area, what mixture to use, and how to grade the lawn to set off the house to best advantage.

University of Illinois Circular 729, "How to Have an Attractive Lawn," tells how and when to apply fertilizer, how to take care of the established lawn, what to do about weeds, insects, worms, diseases and moles, and even how to put a poor lawn into good shape.

You can get a copy from my office located in the Farm Bureau Building, 201 N. Dunton avenue, Arlington Heights.

World War II Vets Have Year Left To Complete GI Training

Veterans administration reminded Illinois World War II veterans that they have less than one year in which to complete GI training and less than two years in which to apply for GI loans.

Robert D. Beer, VA's manager for Illinois, said that July 25, 1956, marks the end of the education program for all but a few of the World War II veterans now in training under the original GI Bill.

GI training payments to schools and veterans will stop on that date even though a veteran may still have unused training entitlement or be in the middle of a course.

The GI loan program, now at peak activitiy, has two more years to run, coming to end for practically all World War II veterans on July 25, 1957.

The small group of veterans exempted from these two deadlines are those who enlisted or re-enlisted under the Armed Forces Voluntary Recruitment Act between October 6, 1945, and October 5, 1946 .These veterans have nine years from the end of their enlistment or re-enlistment to finish GI training and ten years to apply for GI loans.

At Northwestern

Donald R. Hortberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hortberg, Palatine, has been named as delegate to the 121st annual convention of Delta Upsilon fraternity. The convention will be held August 23 through August 27 on the Northwestern university campus.

It will bring together delegates from the 66 chapters and 94 alumni clubs of D.U. in the United States and Canada. At the University of Illinois Don has been active in Interfraternity Council affairs, serving as the assistant relations chairman as well as the Delta Upsilon representative on the council.

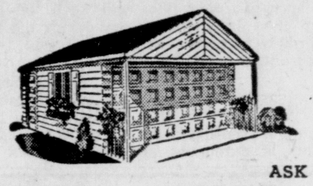

At National

Miss Judith Elaine Hall of 1009 Oakton st., Arlington Heights has been accepted for admission to National college of education, Evanston, for the fall semester.

900,000 New Households Over U.S. Since April 30

The census bureau has just reported that 900,000 new households were formed in the United States in the 12 months ended last April 30. But, as the bureau ifself hastened to add in the release that carried the news, the number of really new households wasn't that large. The figure was inflated by the fact that a lot of old households were just sorting themselves out.

The new-household figure was 50 per cent larger than the previous year's reported rise, and nearly 100,000 greater than the average for the first four years of this decade. Yet it is far below the 1,525,000-a-year average of the "undoubling" years right after World War II ended.

The significance of the report must be found in economics, rather than in population figures. A household, to the Census Bureau, is a set of related people who occupy one dwelling unit. One-third of last year's 900,000 new households, for example, are recorded as headed by women. Those, in most cases, are simply families headed by widows or divorcees who had been living with relatives to save expenses. Now they have better jobs—or the children find jobs, in these full-employment days—and they move out and set up their own households.

Married couples living with relatives have also dipped to a record low of 3.5 per cent. This figure has been falling steadily since 1947.

All in all, it looks as if worry over the vast supply of new housing was premature, as long as incomes hold up at present levels.

Release 40,000 More Permits For Gas Heat

Northern Illinois Gas company mailed letters to approximately 40,000 customers authorizing them to use natural gas for space heating under the terms of the Illinois Commerce commission's gas restriction order.

Marvin Chandler, president of Northern Illinois Gas, said the new releases were made possible by the order of the federal power commission approving request of Natural Gas Storage company of Illinois to increase the capacity of its underground gas storage project near Herscher. Involved in this expansion project is the construction of 31 miles of 36" main from Herscher to a new point of connection with the Texas Illinois Natural Gas Pipeline company's pipeline south of Joliet. The new authorizations, Chandler said, are in addition to the 30,000 issued by the company early in April of this year.

CURRENT RELEASE covers all customers who had applied for this service on or before August 22, 1953, for existing homes and on or before December 18, 1953, for new homes. Gas heat authorizations are issued only for single family dwellings and are allocated between old and new homes on the basis of the number of unfilled requests pending in each category. Those authorized have 12 months in which to complete their installations.

Chandler said that approximately 95,000 customers still will remain on the waiting list.

General Manager

Milton S. Samuels of Itasca has been appointed general manager in charge of the Lady Esther division of the Zonite Products corporation, it is announced by Charles T. Silloway, president of Zonite. In his new position, Mr. Samuels, who for the past five years has been sales manager of Lady Esther, succeeds Dr. Joseph Schultz, who resigned for another affiliation in the cosmetic industry.

Before joining Lady Esther, Mr. Samuels was in the sales department of Jules Montenier, Inc., and prior to that he was with Worth Parfums for four years. He has also been associated with the Chicago Journal of Commerce.

Mr. Samuels served in the navy during World War II for a five year tour of sea duty with the rank of lieutenant commander. He is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall college and a native of New York City. He resides with his family in Itasca.

Two-Car Trend Picking Up Speed

Illinois' wives and teen-agers, tired of being stranded when their bread-winner drives the family car to work, are sparking a statewide two-car boom, according to a special survey by Universal CIT Credit corporation, the nation's largest independent automobile financing firm.

There are about 4,500,000 two-car families in the United States. About 13 per cent of Illinois' car-owning families have more than one car. The percentage probably will double over the next five years. (BB

New Cars To Lean Heavier On Pastels

What happens behind the scenes when Detroit's gigantic automotive industry pauses for new model changeover?

Never fully told, that story unfolded in a discussion with M. C. Patterson, vice president in charge of manufacturing for Dodge division of Chrysler corporation, as the industry prepared for its annual summer metamorphosis.

In view of the increasing public demand for more and more color in their cars, Patterson likened the changeover from the production of current models to new ones to the cocoon stage of the butterfly.

"THE AVERAGE person knows little about what happens," Patterson observed. "One month dealers across the nation are offering new 1955 cars, for example. The next there's a brand new line incorporating all of the advanced ideas and features for 1956. That's the way it appears to the layman."

As soon as production is completed on the final car of the current series, plant workers start to clean up, collecting and tagging remaining materials for inventory.

While the inventory is going on, other workers from the skilled trades are moving in equipment for the foundry and for engine manufacture preparatory to plant rearrangement.

As the installation specialists finish any part of their work, production men move in and begin making new parts in limited quantities. From all over the plant, a trickle of finished parts converges on the assembly area, leading to the beginning of engine assembly and test-stand operation.

NEW EQUIPMENT already obtained is taken from storage and set up. Other fixtures and equipment for the new models begin arriving from tool shops and machine builders all over the country. The job progresses on an around-the-clock schedule, seven days a week, so that the plant "down time" for model change may be reduced to a minimum.

In the stamping division, new concrete flooring is laid, and foundations built for new presses or the relocation of old ones. Once in place, the machinery undergoes exhaustive tests.

The paint area, too, undergoes a startling change. Demands of car buyers for the wide variety of vivid and pastel colors, and for two-and three-tone combinations, have wrought a major change in this field.

"It may be the woman's influence," said Patterons, "but today the motoring world is far removed from the dingy black and 'tattle tale grey' period before the war. Not that we don't make black cars, or black and color combinations. It's just that more and more people seem to be in a gayer mood, demand colors to fit."

ON THE AVERAGE car, Patterson said, there are more than 13,000 components. This may increase to 15,000 in various models. The stocking of more than 7,000 items in inventory is necessary. The plant receives approximately 3,700 tons of materials every day to meet the demands of the various departments.

"A great daily inventory must be assembled. By the time the plant starts full production we need over four miles of bumpers, over a mile of engine, over ¾ of a mile of sparkplugs, and 68 miles of wiring (enough wire to reach from Detroit to Toledo) for each day's operation." (BB

Lane Bryant To Open Hubbard Woods Store Thursday

Lane Bryant, specialists in hard-to find sizes, will open a suburban branch store in the new Hubbard Woods fashion center on Chicago's North Shore, Thursday, August 25, it was announced by Peter J. Wessel of Palatine, manager of Lane Bryant, Chicago.

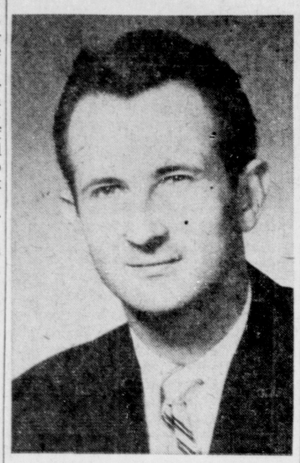

The Lane Bryant store, the largest unit in the center, will be a one-story, air-conditioned building, occupying 8,000 square feet of space. This is the second local branch for Lane Bryant, Chicago—the first being opened in Oak Park on March 19, 1953—operated under the management of Peter J. Wessel.

The exterior of the store was designed by Chicago architects, Cone & Dorbusch, and employs lannon stone and white-washed brick and wood facings, which blends with the suburban atmosphere surrounding it.

The interior is a theme of sophisticated pink. Harmonizing accents of deep chocolate brown are found in a ceramic tile wall, and in the charcoal grey carpeting, which runs throughout the store. (BB

Corporation Fees On The Increase

Collections of corporation fees and franchise taxes were $255,653.90 greater at the end of July than at the same time last year, secretary of state Charles F. Carpentier reported.

Collections for the month of July alone were almost $500,000 less than the amount collected in the same month last year, but heavy receipts in May and June still left the seven-month total more than a quarter of a million dollars higher than the previous year's, Mr. Carpentier said.

The amount collected so far this year, $4,475,196.16, is slightly more than $100,000 greater than receipts for the entire year of 1953 and is only about $95,000 below the 12-month total for 1954, secretary Carpentier said.

Organization of new corporations is 975 ahead of last year's figures, 5,644 having been issued charters or certificates of authority to operate in Illinois, Mr. Carpentier said. A total of 3,761 Illinois business companies have received charters, an increase of 653, and 609 out-of-state business groups have been granted certificate of authority, a gain of 162.

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

by PAUL LITTLE

You jazz addicts will roll up the rugs and cut many a caper over the latest 12-inch offering from Good Time Jazz, that enterprising West Coast outfit which has made names like Kid Ory, Bob Scobey and Turk Murphy known from coast to coast. Here is a Bob Scobey waxing which points up the fact that this gifted young horn artist has one of the best jazz bands blowing anywhere.

Clancy Hayes, who does his vocals superbly, strums one of the hottest jazz banjos to be heard this side of the immortal Django. A red-hot rhythm section, and pacing by Jack Buck on a sizzling trombone makes this album one of the year's best. Tunes like "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Memphis Blues" and "Beale Street Blues" (these latter two among the finest things W. C. Handy ever wrote), and "Someday Sweetheart," to say nothing of "Parsons, Kansas Blues"—a super-terrific tune written by Clancy himself, all add up to an album you will wear out with repeat playings. And the sound is gorgeously hi-fi!

IN CLASSICAL VEIN, we cite a wonderful new Vox 12-incher pairing Tschaikowsky's rarely played Second Piano Concerto in G Major and Scriabin's F Sharp Minor Concerto, with Friedrich Wuehrer ably and brilliantly playing both solo parts with the fine Pro Musica Orchestra of Vienna. Everybody knows the Tschaikowsky B Flat Minor (made into "Tonight We Love" some years back by Freddy Martin), but this successor is, in may ways, vastly superior in its writing for piano and its incisive orchestral development. A real listening treat!

The Scriabin work, relatively youthful, suggests Chopin, is intensely poetic and beautifully appealing. Piano tone is simply unbelievable in its clarity and sonority without distortion.

Sliding Window Lifts From Frame For Easy Cleaning

Until someone invents a window pane that stays clean without washing, window manufacturers are concentrating their attention on making their products easier for the housewife to clean.

Many wood windows now are made with sash that slip easily out of the frame so they can be washed easily and conveniently inside the room. The latest is the sliding window, the kind which slides from side to side instead of up and down. The sash lifts right out with a slight pressure applied at the top.

The sliding units are made of ponderosa pine, in various shapes and sizes to meet the needs of different rooms.

For example, horizontal rows of sliding windows are installed high in the walls of bedrooms and small living rooms to allow more wall space for placement of furniture. Groups of tall sliding units, reaching almost from floor to ceiling, are popular for enclosed porches and living rooms when a good view and plenty of light are desired.

An in-between size, square or nearly square in shape, is often installed singly or in groups above kitchen sinks. Windows over a sink are usually at arm's length from the housewife, but the sideward sliding action makes them easy to open and close. The removable-sash feature makes it possible to wash them without going outside and perching on a ladder.

The state sanitary water board has notified Lake Zurich village board that the sewage disposal plant has reached its capacity and that no more connections of significant number can be made to the system.

JOSEPH A. SCHWALL of Northbrook reports to the nation's water well drillers

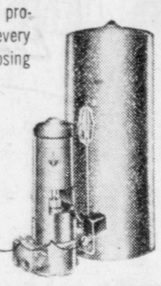

(reprinted from Water Well Journal and The Driller)

"I urge every customer to select a Jacuzzi Deeprime Jet" says Joseph A. Schwall of Northbrook, Illinois —one of northern Illinois' most successful and respected water well drillers.

"Whenever I drill a well, I tell my customer to install nothing but a Jacuzzi Deeprime Jet. I want my customers to be happy. Some pumps will burn out if the water level drops too low. They go out quick, too, if there's sand in the water. Other jet pumps lose prime. But, every Jacuzzi Deeprime Jet owner is happy as a lark. That's why I tell 'em to install a pump that won't ever lose prime—and every working part is right on top of the ground, not 'way down in the well. If the well is a weak producer, the Deeprime Jet adjusts itself and gets every drop of water the well can produce without losing prime or any danger of burning up the pump."

Door Knob As Brace

USING a door knob instead of a brace, when confronted by the need to bore a hole in a confined area, the craftsman can proceed without trouble, as shown in the illustration from Popular Mechanics.

Simply slip the knob on the shank of the bit and tighten the setscrew so that the bit can be turned by hand.

The magazine suggests another emergency method: Use a ratchet wrench that has a square hole of the proper size for the shank of the bit.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The way of health and holiness, of dominion over fear and sin which Christ Jesus came to teach, will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday, August 28.

Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus" will include the Master's healing of the servant of the high priest as recorded in Luke's Gospel (22:50, 51): "And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him."

Correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (54:10-17): "That he might liberally pour his dear-bought treasures into empty or sin-filled human storehouses, was the inspiration of Jesus' intense human sacrifice. In witness of his divine commission, he presented the proof that Life, Truth, and Love heal the sick and the sinning, and triumph over death through Mind, not matter. This was the highest proof he could have offered of divine Love."

Science Film Amazes Viewers

A large group of people viewed the film, "Prior Claim," a Moody science film, produced by Dr. Irwin Moon for the Moody Institute of Science, Sunday evening at the First Baptist church which holds services at Arlington Heights high school.

Many expressed amazement at the intricasies of nature as shown by the photography of Dr. Moon. The educational film, "Welding America," produced by the Natural Gas Co., was also shown.

It is the program of the church to show other evangelical films at special evening services in the near future.

Fair Is Over, Youth Groups Turn To Other Activities

by JOHN BICKET
Assistant Farm Adviser

The fairs are over and it seems as though it is about time to begin thinking about picking corn, combining soybeans or in general getting ready for the coming winter. There is, of course, that portion of the late summer and fall remaining when mother nature blooms forth with it's beautiful fall colors. To many people this is the most beautiful season of the year.

At the fairs the most precious crop of all, our youngsters, had on display the results of their year's work — livestock, crops, vegetables, electrical exhibits, exhibits on wildlife, soil conservation and others. They competed for ribbons, trophies and honors made available by the fair association and interested commercial organizations. Some were happy over the results while others were a little disappointed as their results did not meet their expectations.

COMPETITION is one of the centers around which life in these United States is built and I can think of no better place for these young people to get a taste of it. If you were asked what the highlights of the fair were, I am sure you would get as many different answers as people who asked the question. To the rural people it would mean one thing and to the non-rural it would mean another.

The important thing, it seems to me, is the effect it has on the individual 4-H club member in contributing to the development of a forthright citizen who will in the not to distant future take his place in perhaps your community.

THIS CONTRIBUTION to development of forthright citizens of the future has been the motivation behind the effort put forth by the fair boards, Cook county farm bureau board, The county 4-H club committee, local 4-H club leaders, junior leaders, agricultural extension personnel and the many others who gave of their time and money to make the North Cook County 4-H Fair a big success.

Wesley Plote and Marilyn Nickel were selected as king and queen. Wesley is a member of Palatine township 4-H club, having been a member for 7 years completing projects in dairy, sheep, swine, poultry, beef and crops.

Marilyn is a member of Washington agricultural 4-H club and Happy Hanover home economics club. She has been a member of agricultural club 6 years and the home economics club 4 years. Marilyn completed projects of cattle and sheep and displayed and modeled a complete wardrobe of her own selection last year at the Illinois State Fair in Springfield, Ill.

Wesley is a senior at Palatine high school and Marilyn a sophomore in Iowa State college, Ames. Iowa, majoring in home economics.

Results of the judging at the North Cook county 4-H fair are listed elsewhere in this issue.

4-H Boys Have Entries In Junior Hog Show

Two young area hogmen have made entries for the 16th annual Chicago Junior Market Hog show and Marketing Day at the Union Stockyards. The show opened Wednesday.

The exhibitors are Donald Drewes, Arlington Heights, a member of the Wheeling Doers 4-H club, and Erwin Schmid of Palatine, a member of Barrington Pioneers 4-H club.

One of the show's highlights was a grading contest open to all 4-H and Future Farmers at the show. All the graded hogs will be slaughtered and educational data on the carcasses will be sent to vocational agriculture and 4-H supervisors who have boys participating in the contest.

New business of the group was a discussion on ways to properly display projects at the fair. Refreshments were served by Bruce Knutson and Eddie Mosmann.

James McCabe, one of Palatine's foremost citizens, died Tuesday night. Formerly a railroad employee, he moved to the village some years ago upon his retirement.

Palatine's Clover Leaf card club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wente Tuesday evening on the occasion of Mr. Wente's birthday: Prizes were taken home by William Giebel, Mrs. Wente Mrs. Louis Schopp.

Mattie, Rosie and Lizzie Holt, West Maine, visited in Arlington Heights Sunday.

Robert Kirch and Emma Noller were married Saturday at Frieden's church in Bensenville.

Thirty Years Ago

August 21, 1925

There was no issue of the paper this week as a new Duplex printing press is being installed.

Our reporters and perhaps our readers will welcome the vacation. The mechanical force upon this paper have been working under difficulties the past month. The building has been in the hands of carpenters and masons and has been put back upon a solid foundation, after an existence for several weeks upon jack screws.

The circulation of this newspaper is today greater than at any time in its history and the publishers believe the Paddock Publications have a circulation in excess of any other weekly paper in northern Illinois.

Twenty Years Ago

August 23, 1935

A. F. Volz of Arlington Heights is spending a few days at Lake Geneva.

Sunday, August 18 is a day that will be long remembered by St. Paul's congregation of Mt. Prospect and its pastor, the Rev. J. E. A. Mueller. That day marked the 25th anniversary of Pastor Mueller's ordination into the office of the holy ministry of the church.

George Humphrey, 422 Easy st., Palatine, was removed to the Northwestern hospital, Des Plaines, after having become seriously ill from heat prostration while harvesting.

A number of Bensenville people pulled a surprise on Michael Kross at his summer home at Lake geneva last Saturday. All report having had a wonderful time as all do who visit that beautiful place.

Deaths this week: Frederich Eberling, 81, of Roselle, and Mrs. Flora Joiner, 62, of Palatine.

Mrs. Mary Barna, Stonegate, Arlington Heights, was seriously injured when she stepped through the flooring in the second floor of her garage Monday.

Ten Years Ago

August 24, 1945

On Monday evening relatives and friends gathered at the Louis Pohlman, Jr. home in Schaumburg to celebrate the birthday of their daughter, Marion.

Arlington Water Supply

There is a town called Arlington Heights
Which with proper guidance has a future bright;
Growing pains are rampant, knotty problems face it,
Nothing, however, if we all do our bit.

The summer's been hot, the rainfall light,
To keep our lawns green has been a grave fight;
Water, water, water that lawn,
Not thoughts that someday it might well be gone.

Finally it happened, the taps went dry,
Heads were shaken, we all heaved a sigh;
The crisis was here, what shall we do?
We were told to bid lawn watering an immediate adieu.

Soon we were allowed to water some more,
From six to eight, but not any more;
Everyone was asked to do his or her part,
Though it means cooperation with all our hearts.

If you want to heat coffee water or shower mom or dad,
The evening hours of six to eight are bad;
If you want to wash dishes or bathe the tots,
These hours may give you water and then they may not.

If you've said words about this regulated plan,
Remember our village does the best it can;
It's up to us all to adjust our sights,
Not just on ourselves, but on Arlington Heights.

Salt Creek

Last week in the Fence Post Mts. J. J. Johnston inquired about the use of deposits in Palatine's sewer revenue account for the purpose of cleaning, widening and deepening Salt Creek. I'm happy she asked because I'm told some others in town are wondering about it. This gives me an opportunity to answer any who have questioned this action of the village board.

Let's suppose that one of our sewer mains in town became damaged or deteriorated in some way and unable to do the job it was intended to do. That would result in at least a partial failure of our sewage system, even though our disposal plant would still be operating at peak performance. The village board would be derelict in its duty if it did not promptly take steps to remedy the situation. We would hire competent experts to repair the fauty main and get our whole system back in order. With no question, repairs would be paid out of sewer revenue. Such damage and repairs have been taken care of in the past as part of the normal routine.

THE TROUBLE now being caused by the condition of Salt Creek is much the same. Even though the disposal plant is capable of performing the job for which it was intended, with Salt Creek jamed and congested with debris, trees and crumbled banks, the operation of our whole sewage system is jeopardized.

In periods of more than average storm drainage, the creek is unable to take the volume of water discharged from the disposal plant after treatment. The higher the creek, the less effective our sewage disposal plant is—to say nothing of the inconvenience and health hazards which result from flooding of the creek. This flooding throughout the village is a growing menace as the creek becomes more and more congested downstream.

SALT CREEK is an integral part of our sewage system. It was for that reason that the Plant was located where it is, where we could conveniently discharge the "effluent" of our treatment plant.

The village board has recognized that our sewage system is only as strong as its weakest link. And with the help of our engineers we have seen that the whole sewer system is a chain made up of many vital links each dependent on the next in order to provide the sewer treatment and drainage we need.

We sought all the expert opinion available to make sure that clearing the creek is as much a maintenance expense as replacing pipes and valves and other mechanical features. Then, since our sewer rates should cover the cost of bonds, operation of the plant and maintenance of the system, where else to look for payment of this particular cost than in our sewer accounts?

YOU MAY ASK why this "surplus" built up in the fund. Also, why not instead use the "surplus" to permit a reduction in rate?

Actually, the clearing of the creek didn't become a necessity now. The clogging and congestion have been happening for years, and growing worse with each year. Had there been a regular annual procedure to keep it clear we wouldn't now be faced with this pyramided cost of the full cleaning job. Fact is, that's one reason why the fund has accumulated a "surplus"—the money wasn't spent before (a saving?). Another factor in the "surplus" is that each year we've added sewer users which brings in more revenue. But remember that not all this is plus. With more people to serve, the maintenance and operating costs go up.

Now for the question of whether to reduce rates because of this amounts to only about $12 per sewer connection as a reserve to meet the unusual expenses of operation and maintenance. And it's only about 1/3 of one year's sewerage budget for the village. It's good business to accumulate a reasonable reserve to meet unusual expenses. So this is a reserve not a "surplus." At our present rates we will continue to accumulate this reserve. Then, when there is enough we plan to complete the job of clearing the creek. What we have scheduled already is only half the job.

NOW, FOR ONE last question. A few folks have asked why not let future homeowners in Palatine pay part of this creek clearing cost? In other words, why not a bond issue? I think the others answers given also answer these questions, but here goes:

First, we, not those yet to come, have caused the creek to become a hazard. It is a hazard now. Our treatment plant is near capacity now—regardless of who comes later. The creek should be totally cleared once and for all and then kept that way in the future. And "they" will help do that.

Secondly, a bond issue is expensive—at least 25% more costly than "cash on the barrelhead." It's not unusual for government officials to go hog-wild on bond issues because this practice provides a lot of money in a hurry. But we are convinced that our first responsibility is to pay as we go. Then if the money just is not available and the project is worthwhile we should go to the people through referendum and ask them to back us up by approving a bond issue. Let's not kid ourselves, bond issues cost money and always add to our real estate taxes over and above the regular tax rate. Much better to pay cash when we can and add indebtedness only as a last resort.

IT'S ONLY FAIR to report here that we've advertised twice for bids on the creek project but to no avail. Our committee is trying to negotiate a contract to have this work done this fall but time is beginning to run out. Unless we can let a contract soon at a figure we and our engineers feel is fair to the village, we may have to defer this project until next spring. That would mean we must do what we can meanwhile on our own and with some outside held to forestall bad floods in the interim. That would be risking another 5 or 6 months' delay but we may have no alternative.

As I have mentioned here in the Fence Post before, the public is not only welcome but cordially invited to attend our board meeings, and question the members on any contemplated action—or just to be in the audience and see how the affairs of the village are administered. Regular meetings are held each second and fourth Monday evening at 8:00 P.M. in the village hall. And when you come, be sure to read the official minutes and reports posted in the meeting room. That way your visits will keep you posted on our progress.

In closing let me say that our judgement may not always be right but like baseball umpire we'll call them as we see them.

HOWARD I. OLSEN
President
Village of Palatine

P. S. to Mrs. Johnston: You objected last week in another Fence Post letter to giving an exclusive contract for garbage pick-up to any one contractor. So does the village board. There is in committee a study of how the village of Palatine might provide a municipal garbage collection service. But when that might come up for board action is hard to say.

School News

I wish to enter a few words of appreciation and well deserved praise for the excellent results we have enjoyed from one of Paddock Publications' many fine public services. I refer to the reporting of school news and problems.

The generous coverage for several weeks before last spring's clothing drive for the "Save the Children Federation" was largely responsible for the splendid success of this project. We were able to triple our quota of clothing which was distributed to needy children in the United States and throughout the free world.

This summer your news presentations regarding the teacher shortages which our school and other area schools faced inspired several applications from qualified persons living in the Arlington area. With sincere thanks to your fine news coverage, we were able to add two valuable members to our teaching staff who might not otherwise have considered teaching during the coming school year.

Principal, Wilson school

Litterbug

We certainly have a bunch of litterbugs in Palatine.

It seems to me that there should be enough civic pride to keep anyone from throwing papers, etc. on the sidewalks and streets be they adults, teenagers or children.

Do those same people throw papers, etc. all over their living room floors, or all over their yards? Would the parents of these children allow that? And yet they are not taught to keep the sidewalks and streets of their home village neat and clean.

Police Authority

I see by the papers there is a movement on foot to extend the jurisdiction of the Chicago police to all suburban areas throughout Cook county. It seeems to me, one humble woman's opinion, that the folks raised and schooled in these towns are better qualified to understand and handle their own individual problems.

Since when have the Chicago police shown their capability to eliminate the great vice problems of Chicago or even decrease them —juvenile delinquency etc.

Possibly it is partly due to insufficient number of police rather than inefficiency of theirs. However, it will be too late to handle this idea, or even alter it, after it is effective, if it is not brought to the attention of those able to cope with this insidious movement.

P.S. Understand Oak Parkers are up in arms over it—what say you? Politics could make this a serious procedure couldn't it?

THE FENCE POST

Letters to the Fence Post should be short and concise. All letters must be signed, though name will be withheld if desired. Address Fence Post, Paddock Publications, Inc., Arlington Heights, Ill.

Water Service

In last week's issue of the Fence Post, Mr. Bishop, Arlington Heights village trustee, publicly protested the decision of the village board in refusing to approve the $150,000 water system improvements on a pay-as-you-go basis. The board went on record that such capital improvements should be financed by revenue bond issue; that capital improvements planned for the future growth of our village are an obligation of our future home owners, as well as present home owners, and should not be paid from current water revenues.

Mr. Bishop states that, "the engineers prepared a water system report, for the entire village. This report, and its master water plan, was accepted by the village board (this was way before the election) and the engineers were instructed to prepare plans and specifications for the first stage." What Mrs. Bishop failed to state was that this so-called water system report was entitled, "Report on Water Supply Softening and Improvements," dated December 1954, and that a revenue bond issue of $565,000 was recommended. No pay-as-you-go was considered. This water softening project was a campaign issue last spring, and the defeat of the entire slate of old board members was a repudiation of this project. Upon taking office we went on record confirming this rejection by the voters.

Moreover, the so-called comprehensive waterworks program does nothing for the urgent needs of residents north of Oakton avenue. The plan also fails to provide for the rehabilitation of the Chestnut and the Douglas wells. Excessive water rates can't do all these things.

THE WATER improvements plan which Mr. Bishop is attempting to force on the board is the same water improvement plan with the Water Softening eliminated. It was designed primarily to serve that purpose. As an example, the connecting line from the Chestnut & Hawthorne well to the reservoir at Ridge and Wing, (at a cost of $34,000) would connect our poorest producing well for no purpose other than serving the softening plan.

The one phase of the water plan that we did approve, was connecting the Kennicott well to the two—1,000,000 gallon reservoirs at Ridge avenue; this at a cost of $17,179. We agreed this should be done at once, and the low bidder was ordered to begin work. We also approved an extention of a 12" water line connecting Miner and Ridge, along Davis street to Vail, connecting to the 10" main at Vail and Wing. This will eliminate the 6" bottleneck through the village hall, and will provide ample water supply to the heart of the business district. This was not proposed by the Engineers nor by Mr. Bishop. We heartily concurred that this was very necessary. Both of these projects are being paid out of present water funds. We shall continue to take care of necessary primary water extensions from cash funds.

THE STATEMENT that, "The ability to pay-as-you-go is an enviable position for a municipality and reflects a helthy position," fails to inform our citizens that such a policy is based on excessive water rates, and ignores the basic principle that future water consumers should pay their prorata share of major water improvements designed for a larger population.

On the subject of public improvements, Mr. Bishop criticises the ordinance establishing a performance bond in the penal sum of one and one-half times the engineer's estimate, together with a 15% deposit, when he must realize that the old requirement of a 115% cash deposit had proved unworkable. It should not be overlooked that a method was needed that is practical, and at the same time affords protection to the village. We are certain in this of uniform treatment of all developments; last week's correspondent knows that the former escrow arrangement established no such standard. We are of the opinion that comparisons, at best, are odious, and that pressing problems of our rapidly growing village will not be achieved by jousting with windmills. We cannot afford to waste time watching anything "go by" that is not constructive in scope and plan.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

What is it that makes some people so unable to bear the thought of superiority or talent in others? What makes them want to ridicule or hurt the person who through his own efforts or good fortune has achieved a measure of success within his own character, personality, or in the field in which he works?

You can generally tell a malicious person the first time that you see him by the expression of his face and the look in his eyes. There is an intensity, an appearance of restraint in his expression. You know that he is under strong tension, that he is trying to hold himself in check; and you know just as well that he will not, or will only partially succeed.

SOME SUCH malicious individuals can hide their feelings from their faces, but they can not hide them in the inflection of their voice, the words they say and the feeling with which they express them.

It can not be said that malicious people are that way just because they themselves are not adequate, or feel that they are not. Often you see it in a person who has made a success of his life in the eyes of the world, or a person who is exceptionally talented. It is possible that such an individual can not bear to see another person praised, but wants all of the praise, all of the attention for himself.

PERSONALLY, I am not able to cope with such individuals. Accordingly, I avoid them as much as possible, seldom give them personal information, and never encourage them in their caustic bitterness against other people. It is always the flaws in others, real or fancied, that they are looking for, so why give them a chance to discover mine? You can't change such people. They seem to be born that way, and will be that way until they die. And if you want to make a friend of them, you have to stoop to the same miserable level at which they constantly live.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

from Patty McArdle

Dear Peg:

Cheery Thought For The Day: you'll have to be skinny if you plan to wear clothes this fall! Regardless of whether you are short and fat, tall and fat, five foot three or three foot five you will simply have to appear long, lithe and lean. I'm letting you in on this news, so you can start right now giving up all that rich summer food—you know those little salads and sherbets you thought were so non-fattening and when you got on the scales you weighed six pounds more. Better take heed, since the full skirts and "flying panels" over the hips, that we hid under last spring, are no longer with us.

In the event you have detected a light bitterness in my fashion report so far, let me hasten to say you are very astute—I'm disgusted! Why doesn't some designer endear himself to the other 95% of us women who are plump and dumpy and decree the perfect figure for this fall must be: "plumpy and dumpy.

FOR THIS FIGURE, he would naturally design, for house and yard work, a comfortable tent-like ensemble, gathered in only at the neck and for afternoon and evening a clean one. You see, I wouldn't feel so badly if I hadn't let myself go this summer—eating and swimming, eating and playing tennis, eating and walking, eating and talking and often just eating, until now I look my best in a large, old shirt of Bob's, hanging out over a large, old pair of Bermuda shorts!

But, I'm on my diet now—if you want to join me, just eat 900 calories a day. The calories may be contained in any kind of food you want, but be sure to write down the number of calories every time you eat something. Your best bet is to go light on breakfast, eat as close to nothing as you can for lunch and save those calories for your dinner which should be eaten before 5 o'clock. Eat nothing after 5 p. m. Needless to say, this is not a doctor's idea of a good diet—it's mine and it works beautifully.

I DON'T KNOW HOW I got on this subject when all I intended to do us to give you a few fashion tips, however, what's the point in talking about clothes until you've got a figure to put in them. We're back to sheaths, straight skirts and long, narrow tunics. Also, the Nehru surcoat has been adapted to afternoon and evening wear. Waistlines and necklines are high, sleeves long and shoulders rounded. Everything is coordinated this year. The linings of jackets will match the dress, blouse or sweater underneath.

Color and fabric make the real news this fall. Blue, green and brown are favorites, but any flattering color will be in style. A "rich look" will be achieved through the use of beautiful fabrics, many imported, such as: Indian silks, English and French woolens, Italian, Swiss and French hand woven brocades and embroideries.

To sum it all up: this fall one must look like one spent so much money on clothes, that one had nothing left for groceries.

My love,
Patty.

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

We have never been much of an admirer of Pearl Buck. We don't mean that we haven't liked her as a person, we have never cottoned especially to her writing. And, anyway, we have never met the lady.

We read an article of hers in one of the women's magazines last night that has changed us into one of her most rabid fans. We will hear no criticism of Mrs. Buck, we can tell you.

We have long wondered why there were so many orphans in the world while we personally knew so many childless couples who ached to adopt a baby. Somewhere along the line was a great wall keeping these two natural forces from getting together.

We are afraid that we did as so many others must and just figured that for some reason there weren't enough babies to go around or our friends just weren't up to snuff as potential parents. It seems that neither is true if Mrs. Buck knows what she is talking about in her story. She more or less let us all know that the adoption laws in most states are pretty silly affairs.

She also came right out and said that there were people who would be out of a job if there weren't enough children to populate the institutions. For some silly reason we had always felt that those who dealt with orphaned children were sort of dedicated and were way above looking at their jobs as just jobs. And yet, don't we all think of ourselves first.

The whole story made us up and want to do something about something. We aren't just sure what there is to be done but we are willing to do anything that the law allows.

We are really moaning about the color of our grass every time that we come back from the river to wash our dirty linen in private. It just keeps getting browner and browner, the grass that is and not the linen.

Then we read in one of our more prominent daily newspapers, of a man who has invited a dye for grass that wil make it green even if it is brown. We are about to ask him for his formula. Or else we shall be forced to write to the heirs of Death Valley Scotty as to how life is lived on the great desert. We don't think we can adapt to the sere landscape but we are always willing to try.

HOW MUCH MONEY DO YOU NEED?

Maybe you need some extra cash to pay past-due bills. Maybe there are necessary purchases to make. Maybe some member of your family requires medical or dental attention. Whatever your money need, we will gladly help. Use one of our convenient loan plans.

Stop The Press!

The advertisers provide the funds for any newspaper. Paddock Publications is no exception, with friends among businessmen providing advertising revenue to continue the local paper in the size to which readers have become accustomed.

Subscription and newsstand collections pay for newsprint, ink and postage, but wages, overhead and other costs of operation are all paid by the advertisers. An advertising solicitor is seen here offering ideas for future advertising to one of the local store managers. —Staff Photo

In loving memory of Willard Consoer who passed away 1 year ago August 30, 1954.
Softly the stars are shining upon

Friends may think we had forgotten when at times they see us smile.
Little do they know the heartache that our smiles hide all the while.

Paul Bunyan Nozzle

Paul Bunyan could have built quite a yarn about his prowess as a fireman around the "big nozzle" display at the General Motors Powerama on Chicago's lake front south of Soldier Field Aug. 31 through Sept. 25 if his prodigious career had lasted until now.

"Golly what a faucet!" a layman can be expected to ejaculate when he first sees the tremendous force of the twelve-inch-in-diameter stream of water spouting 20 feet in the air and some fifty feet out into Lake Michigan from a pump operated by a 1200 horsepower Genefal Motors 567C Diesel engine.

The exhibit is designed solely to give the average citizen some idea of the power of a Diesel engin and is part of the display of Electro-Motive division of La Grange. Electro-Motive took precaution to be assured by navy officers and by independent hydraulic engineers that the Gargantuan splash of the Bunyan-like column of water thrown by the big pump will dissipate itself before its

Lessons In .... English

by W. L. GORDON

Words Often Misused

"Pupil" is used of younger persons. "Student" is the general term for one in attendance at a higher institution of learning. "Scholar" is now applied chiefly to one who has engaged in advanced study and acquired knowledge in some special field.

Do not use "ways" for "way," as in the expression, "A little ways up the hill." Say, "A little way up the hill."

"Just" in the intensive sense of "simply" or "quite" (as "just terrible"), is colloquial, and should be avoided.

Do not say, "We are contemplating on moving." It is much better to say, "We are considering moving."

Do not say, "I'll have a rare cut of beef." Say, "I'll have a cut cut of rare beef."

Avoid saying, "A certain party of my acquaintance." Instead, say, "An acquaintance (friend) of mine."

Words Often Mispronounced

Salute. Pronounce the u as in use, not as in rude.

Protocol. Pronounce first and second o's as in no, last o as in on, accent first syllable.

Justifiable. Principal accent is on first syllable, not the third.

Virile. Pronounce the first i either as in vine or as in vim.

Malpractice. Pronounce both a's as in at, accent second syllable.

Viscid. Pronounce viss-id, accent first syllable.

Words Often Misspelled

Deceased (dead); diseased (afflicted with disease). Muscle (bodily organ); mussel (bivalve mollusk). Excerpt; observe the c. Baring (uncovering); barring (excluding); bearing (carrying). Apprise (to inform); apprize (to appraise). Inundate, observe the in; innuendo, observe the inn.

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Disseminate; to impart, broadcast, or spread generally or publicly. "That country uses the radio for disseminating propaganda."

Rectitude; uprightness; integrity. "His rectitude was unquestioned."

Dexterous; characterized by skill. "He had the dexterous motions of an expert."

Submission; yielding to power or authority. "Your submission to his demands would mean slavery."

Condescend; to stoop or descend; to accommodate one's self to an inferior. "Shall we condescend to this man by acceding to his demands?"

Elude; to avoid slyly; to escape from in a covert manner. "He eluded the officer."

Barrington Welcomes City Sales Tax

The one-half cent municipal sales tax will be collected by Barrington merchants beginning Sept. 1.

Decision to levy the tax was made after more than a month's discussion. The vote was unanimous, but not without qualification.

Village President Martin Schreiber, who has said no action would be taken until residents had been given an opportunity to express their views, told the 2 score persons present that he had been opposed to the tax when it was first presented but had changed his mind when he had studied the needs of the village and balanced them against the lean resources.

He recounted, as he has done before, the necessity for improving the sewer and water facilities, which he said was imperative. The revenue might be used for other civic services as recommended by various trustees.

Despite vigorous opposition and protests from the Chamber of Commerce, the Park Ridge city council has stood firm in its decision to levy the tax. The city will receive $100,000 a year in added revenue from the tax.

Mount Prospect is expected to approve the sales tax this week. Wheeling has also given the revenue source a green light. Arlington Heights and Des Plaines are still considering it, while Palatine, which passed the tax ordinance, agreed Monday night to give the collection a 6 months trial period.

Wauconda High Adds New Service

"If any farmer who believes he is eligible to vote did not receive a ballot through the mail, he may obtain one by calling at or writing to the county office and establishing his eligibility to vote in the elections." Mr. Bormet stated.

MR. BORMET cautioned all farmers to follow instructions in the letter on the reverse side of the ballot. The ballot when marked must be placed in the small blank envelope furnished the farmer. This envelope should then be sealed and placed in the envelope bearing the county office address. The farmer should enter his name and return address in the upper left corner of this envelope. He must then affix postage and mail the envelope.

When the community election board assembles to count the votes the farmer's eligibility to vote will first be checked from the name on the outer envelope. The outer envelopes will then be opened and laid aside and the blank sealed envelopes containing the ballot will be placed in a ballot box. After this has been done the ballot box will be opened, the ballots removed from the blank envelopes and the votes tabulated.

THE CANDIDATE receiving the highest number of votes will be declared elected chairman of the community committee and delegate to the county convention which will assemble September 27 to elect the county ASC committee.. The second high will be vice-chairman and alternate delegate, the third high will be the third member of the community committee and the next two in succession will be first and second alternate community committeeman respectively..

Members of the community election boards for North Cook county include Barrington: King Larson; Elk Grove: Wilmer Rohlwing; Hanover: Roy Hecht; Leyden, Norwood Park and Proviso: Walter F. Sass; Maine and Niles: Henry Eichholz; Northfield and New Trier: Leonard Schultz; Palatine: Henry L. Moehling; Schaumburg: John Freise and Wheeling township: Martin C. Meyer.

IN ORDER to be eligible to vote in the community committee elections a person must have an interest in a farm in the community as owner, tenant or sharecropper, must be participating in the Agricultural Conservation Program or carrying out on his farm one of the eligible practices covered by that program or be eligible for price support on one or more agricultural commodities he produces or be eligible for a payment under the Sugar Program.

The chairman urged all farmers to watch their mail for the ballot and when they receive it to mark it at once and return it to the county office.

DOWN ON THE FARM

with Your Farm Adviser

CARL F. MEES

College of agriculture, University of Illinois, is holding open house Wednesday, August 31. Starting at 10 a.m. at the Morrow plots in front of the new agricultural building. The program is concluded at 3:30 p.m. at the barns on the South farm. If you would like to see a complete program of the tour phone me at my office and I will supply you with the information.

We are witnessing some very hot, dry weather at this time. The condition of the crops is alarming in many respects. As you drive through the county, one can see corn that is fired to the ear while other fields are still green. Did you ever wonder why?

FIELDS WHERE the corn is still green have been well taken care of and the fertility has been maintained. Fertilizer alone will not solve the problem because there must be organic matter in the soil so it has water holding ability.

However, when temperatures reach about 90 for eight to ten days straight and the drought continues there is very little that can be done. Good cultural practices pay but with conditions as they have been the past 10 days it is discouraging.

MOST LAWNS are dry in the area of drought. You need not be alarmed, the grass will put out again as soon as moisture is received and the temperature cools off. I notice the Merion bluegrass I sowed in my lawn is withstanding the heat and drought much better than Kentucky bluegrass.

You will see many home vegetables at the roadside stands this time of the year. Cantaloupes or muskmelons, whichever you desire to call them, are in season now. If you haven't purchased any as yet why don't you do so? They are delicious. They are much sweeter than the melons you get out of the store.

TOMATOES are in abundance at the present time. You should have tomatoes twice daily now. Stop at some of the roadside stands and purchase some of these good home-grown vetetables.

Students in the Arlington Heights Public school and high school and the Palatine high school will get more milk to drink during the coming school year. They will get 1/3 quarts instead of ½ pints. The cost to the student will be the same. I hope other schools are following the same practice.

State Plow Contest Set For August 31

Illinois farmers will have another chance this year to show how well they can plow.

They'll do it at the state conservation field day and plow matches to be held August 31 near Sibley, says John H. Bicket, assistant farm adviser.

The plowing contest will demonstrate skills in good plowing, while exhibits and demonstrations will show conservation practives and information.

Contestants reach the state contest after first winning the district and land use council contest. State winners will compete in the national contest at Wabash, Ind., September 17.

LAST YEAR the Illinois contest was held at Olney along with the national contest.

Two Illinois farmers were victorious in the national contest last year. John Daniels, Mulberry Grove, won the contour plowing division and Robert C. Erickson, Minooka, won the level-land plowing contest.

Both of these men will defend their national championships this year at Wabash. They will also be at the State contest to demonstrate contour and levelland plowing.

AT LEAST EIGHT, and possibly 12 of the 16 land use councils in the state will have entries in the various classifications at Sibley, Bicket says. The national rules will be followed in the contest.

There will be exhibits and demonstrations on waterways and tiling, plow hitch adjustments, subsoiling and pan-breakers, plowing with two-way plows and plowing under or utilizing legume and plant residues.

Roy G. Miller and Charles Snavely, both of the Illinois Retail Equipment Association, will conduct the exhibits and demonstrations, says Walker.

The contest will be held on the Sibley Farm operated by George Karcher and managed by L. L. Norton, three miles southeast of Sibley.

Best Buys On Vegetable Market

Locally grown produce from the Chicago vegetable producing area coming to the Chicago markets week of Aug. 22:

Best Buys—Cabbage, dry onions, beets, pickling onions, tomatoes, acorn squash and curley parsley.

Good Buys—Green beans, summer squash, red cabbage, peppers, radishes, pickling cucumbers, eggplant. Summer squash—very good quality.

Starting to reach the market — Yellow cucumbers, leek, cantaloupe, parsnips and potatoes.

Anticipated best buys for week of August 29—Cabbage, beets, dry onions, acorn and summer squash, tomatoes, pickling onions and peppers.

If the hot dry weather continues all vine vegetables will suffer severely. Therefore it is wise to preserve tomatoes now.

Ground Barley

Ground barley is about 90 per cent as valuable as corn, pound for pound, for feeding beef cattle.

Underplanting In '56 Won't Cut Wheat Allotments

Wheat growers whose 1956 wheat acreage is as much as 25 per cent below their farm wheat acreage allotment will get credit for full allotment acreage in calculating future farm allotments.

In other words, chairman Bormet of the Cook County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee explains, if the farm's wheat acreage for next year's harvest is only three-fourths of the farm allotment, the future wheat acreage allotments established for the farm will be figured as though the full allotment has been planted. Heretofore reductions of more than 10 per cent were considered in calculating future allotments.

Each year's farm allotment, the chairman explains, is based primarily on the farm's wheat acreage for the previous 3 years. Under the new ruling, even if the wheat acreage is as much as one-fourth less than the farm allotment, future allotments will be calculated as though the full allotment had been harvested.

Christmas Trees Can Be Good Farming Business

Do It with Christmas trees, says John H. Bicket, Cook county assistant farm adviser.

Christmas trees shipped in from other states could be replaced with trees grown in Illinois. Montana alone ships in about 400,000 Douglas fir trees each season. Untold numbers come from other states.

Trees adapted for this area include the pines — red, white, Scotch, Austrian, Norway spruce in north ½ of the State.

Besides restoring wasteland to productivity, home-grown Christmas Trees have other advantages, Bicket explains.

THE NEEDLES will stay on them longer than on shipped-in trees because you can cut them just before the holiday, whereas those shipped in must be cut long beforehand to get them here on time.

Also, they can be grown and managed to be far superior in form and quality than shipped-in trees cut from thinnings.

Harold Scholten, University of Illinois extension forester, suggests that you keep the following points in mind to get a good Christmas tree plantation:

CHRISTMAS TREES are a crop, and it requires good care to produce a good crop.

The best time to plant is in the early spring just after the frost has left the ground.

As the trees continue to grow, protect them from livestock and fire. Maintain bare-soil fire lanes on contours to prevent erosion and big fires and to provide roads during harvesting.

Remove undesirable hardwoods, and keep down weeds if they start to compete too heavily.

SHAPE THE TREES by "Shearing" the third year after planting. Remove any double leaders, and cut back extra-long side branches and leaders.

Shear pine trees, making the cut in the new growth before the new buds form — about the end of June. But don't shear the same year you harvest. Shear spruce just above a bud in late summer, fall or winter.

You can get order blanks and price lists for pine trees — jack, red Scotch and white — after September 1, from your county farm adviser or the extension forester, Urbana. Last year jack and Scotch pine sold for $10 per thousand, and red and White pine for $15. The smallest number you can order is 500 seedlings.

Check Your Pastures For Poisonous Herbs

Short pastures brought on by hot, dry weather and mature pasture plants will cause livestock to sample plants they would not ordinarily eat. Some of these plants are apt to be poisonous, according to Dr. P. D. Beamer of the college of veterinary medicine at the University of Illinois.

The veterinarian points out that poor pastures often develop in August and early September. Many poisonous plants reach their deadly stage about the same time. These plants include braken, horse nettle, tall buttercup, white snakeroot, horsetail and many others.

DR. BEAMER urges farmers to become familiar with poisonous plants and to learn their dangerous stages. Look carefully at your fence rows and in swampy places in your pasture. These are likely places for poisonous plants to grow.

If you suspect that a plant is poisonous and want to make sure, take it to your veterinarian or to your farm adviser, or send it to the College of Veterinary Medicine at the University of Illinois or to the Illinois Natural History Survey at Urbana.

Plan Soil Conservation Tour Monday

The North Cook soil conservation district is sponsoring a soil capability tour at the Paul Sweningson farm located on Sutton road, 2nd farm south of rt. 63, Monday, August 29, at 1 p.m.

The tour is designed to study four different locations on the farm to determine the present value of the soil based on the status of erosion, permeability, depth of top soil and structure. These are the most accurate factors used in judging the value of a soil as determined by soil scientists.

THIS TOUR should prove of value to farmers interested in improving their own soils as they will be able to take this information home and constructively evaluate soil conditions on their own farms.

To farmers who are interested in buying or renting, there is no better way to judge the value of the soils than will be outlined on this tour.
